Ask any news dealer for a copy of the TIMES map of Wood river. It is the most accurate extant, and only costs 25 cents per copy.

Judge Waldron has decided to make his home in Hailey. His family having arrived, he is looking about for a residence. If he does not find one that suits, he will build one himself.

Mr. E. Cramer, of Hailey, is the agent for J. Eberhardt, proprietor of the Santa Clara (California) Tannery—the largest on the Pacific Coast—and pays the highest prices for hides, pelts, and furs.

The TIMES map of the Wood River and Sawtooth Districts shows the distance from Hailey of every town, gulch, ravine, creek, and mountain range. The price is ridiculously low. Only 25 cents.

A lady who lives in Bellevue is raising two kittens "with" a feeding bottle. One of the kittens being somewhat stronger and more aggressive than the other, generally takes the bottle away from the other. The lady has therefore christened the stronger one Hailey and the weaker one Bellevue.

Mr. Wolters, one of the two owners of the Hailey smelter, came in from Boise yesterday, and at once began making preparations to blow in the furnace. He says that he cannot state positively when the furnace will begin to smelt, because he wants to get the kinds and variety of ore that experience has taught him to be necessary to successful smelting; but it will be very shortly, as everything else is ready.

Our Boom to Begin Soon.

United States Marshal Chase came in yesterday morning from Blackfoot, in his own conveyance. Mr. Chase's coming was somewhat anxiously looked-for, as he was the only member of the old town company who had not already signed the deed conveying all his right, title and interest in and to the Hailey townsite to the Idaho & Oregon Land Improvement Company. Mr. Chase's signature being affixed to that document, there remains no further obstacle to the beginning of operations by the new owners. Ditches will be surveyed, building sites selected, brick made, lime burned, new buildings commenced, and a large number of other improvements initiated. All this will be in a few days. Population will then begin to flow in, the Bellevueites will feel sick, and—the boom will be started!

Where it Will be Built.

This morning the Idaho & Oregon Land Improvement Company purchased from the publisher of the TIMES the easterly 60 feet of the lot on the southwest corner of Croy street and First Avenue, and Colonel Case, vice-President of the company, at once gave orders to build the office of the company on the lot so purchased. This will accordingly be done.

Stages to All Points.

Hailey is now the headquarters for all the stage lines running to all points from Wood river. The stage for Rocky Bar, Boise and way points leaves at 6 o'clock in the evening. All others leave in the morning. The tri-weekly mail to the Smokies also leaves Hailey—on horseback.

The Deer Creek Bridge.

Work is progressing rapidly on the new Deer Creek bridge. Four of the spans are already completed, and a stringer has been thrown across the river for the last span. The total length of the bridge will be 200 feet.

Merchants, Take Notice.

D. C. Adams, agent for the following well-known business houses, will interview the merchants of the Wood River country about July 1: Sprague, Warner & Co., E. Schneider & Co., M. E. Page & Co., Diamond Match Co., J. E. Boyd, Omaha Barb Wire Co., Omaha White Lead Co., J. S. Kirk & Co., Sprague, Warner & Griswold, and Cutting Packing Co. Merchants are invited to withhold orders until the arrival of Mr. Adams.

Nature's Work.

A DEVASTATING CYCLONE IN PENNSYLVANIA.

Several Persons Killed and Injured.

TERRIFIC WATER-SPOUT NEAR THE GARDEN OF THE GODS.

A Town Covered With Eight Feet of Water.

GREAT LOSS OF LIFE AND PROPERTY.

Special Dispatches to the Times.

COVILVILLE, Pa., July 2.—Following are the particulars of a cyclone here: A new frame house and dwelling, owned by Frank Baird, was completely wrecked in Stanley, and Mr. Baird, his sister-in-law, and clerk, Mr. Carman, were badly injured. Mr. Baird was blown a considerable distance, but miraculously escaped injury beyond a few bruises.

Five hundred feet south of this store a dwelling-house, occupied by Thomas Johnson and family, was blown down, but all the inmates escaped without injury.

The residence of Mrs. Barnes was blown away fully 300 feet, and lodged in a fence corner, and she was so badly hurt that she died in 30 minutes. A child of Mrs. Barnes was carried 500 feet and received injuries from which it died this evening.

The residence of Jonathan Kelley, which contained nine people at the time the cyclone struck it, was completely demolished, and all persons in the house more or less injured; one person—Wm. Hurly—has since died.

Three barbers, next door, were so seriously hurt that they are expected to die.

The only hotel in the place, the Gilsey House, was so damaged that it will be necessary to rebuild.

Altogether 15 houses were wrecked, and from 25 to 30 persons were killed and injured.

In the track of the storm there is scarcely a tree left standing. Great trunks of big trees were twisted off like pipe-stems, and in some instances carried hundreds of yards.

The loss will probably exceed $750,000.

COLORADO SPRINGS, July 2.—A destructive and fatal water-spout visited this vicinity last evening, the center of the storm being Manitou Springs, in which place the houses were more or less damaged.

The water came down from the mountains through Williams, Ruxton and Ute Pass canyons, forming a wall eight feet high, and sweeping everything before it. Several parties of excursionists during the day had gone up these canyons, and it is feared that some perished.

One body which washed down Williams canyon was swept past the hotel, in at the door, and lodged in the floor. A bus filled with passengers, which had started for the train, was swept from the street, and the horses, driver, bus and contents were washed down the torrent and dashed high and dry on the rocks. All escaped with but slight injuries. Manitou Cliff, Beebe, and Parker hotels are more or less injured, and hundreds of cattle and horses have been carried away.

Over a mile of the track of the Denver & Rio Grande Railway was washed away; the wagon bridges between Manitou and Colorado Springs also were.

The loss is placed at from $750,000 to $1,000,000, as far as known, and it is expected that reports to-day will disclose further loss of life and property.

A United States Marshal Shot.

BELMONT, Mo., July 2.—Marshal John Bryant and posse, of Columbus, Ky., surrounded a house near here, this morning, in which Kilgore, the murderer of Gardner, was concealed. Kilgore rushed out and shot the Marshal, who tried to stop him, and escaped. The Marshal's injury is not necessarily fatal.

Pension Statistics.

WASHINGTON, D. C. July 2.—The amount paid for pensions on account of the late war to March 1st, 1882, is $500,781,950. It is estimated that there are now on the rolls the names of 250,000 pensioners of the late war. This does not include 20,000 pensions on account of the war of 1812. The aggregate value of 250,000 of the late war pensions is $27,500,000, and of the 30,000 of the war of 1812 pensioners $2,800,000, or an aggregate annual value of $30,300,000. Estimating the disbursements for May and June, the total paid for pensions for the current fiscal year will not vary much from $65,000,000. On April 1, 1882, there were on file 217,162 standing claims which if allowed would be entitled to arrears. Estimating 17 1/2 per cent for rejection and 1,200 as the average arrears in each case, there would be paid, if allowed within the year, $21,490,800.

There are 53,719 pending claims filed subsequent to limiting imposed by the arrears act, and when allowed a pension commences from the date of filing. Deduct 17 1/2 per cent for rejection and the average first payment would be one year's pension at $110 per case, or $4,826,030. If the two classes just referred to should be at once added to the roll this would increase the annual value of pensions by $24,500,000—which, added to the present annual expense, $30,000,000, would be $54,600,000.

How Senator Miller's Fine Horse is Trained.

WASHINGTON, July 2.—To-day a writer for the Sunday Herald of Washington tells the following story of Senator Miller, of California: Miller bought a fine horse the other day for $1,200, and got stuck badly, from one of the Washington horse dealers. The first day he went driving the horse kicked the dashboard off the buggy and nearly killed Miller. He got to talking to me about the horse, and I told him that if he would give $5 per day for ten days I would go to a horse trainer and have him properly trained. Miller agreed. So I took the horse to the race-track where my old friend, Joseph McKibler, has charge of things. I saw an old darkey with a big track roller, and asked him what he would give me for the use of the horse. He said four bits a day. So I hooked the horse up in the big shaft and let him go. That's the kind of trainer I got for him. I was out there the other day, and the old darkey had to whip him to make him go along. I'll bet he'll be gentle enough when Miller gets him back. In this way I get $5.50 per day for having the horse trained.

Another Crank.

ERIE, Pa., July 2.—A strange crank passed through here to-day, who professed to be on a divine mission to Washington, to execute the command of God by avenging Guiteau's murder, as he termed it. He resembles Guiteau in personal appearance, and professes to be a distant relative. He said he had never taken much stock in Guiteau until the night before he was hanged, when God appeared to him in a vision and commanded him to go to Washington and avenge Guiteau's murder. As to the manner in which this is to be effected he is in doubt, as God promised to reveal it to him. Upon his arrival in Washington he refused to tell his name or where he came from, but he had a ticket from Chicago to New York. He uttered terrible threats against Arthur and others.

A Nice Muddle.

PETERSBURG, Va., July 3.—Two police forces patrol the city. The Democratic police refuse to surrender the station-house to the Readjuster policemen and the latter made their headquarters at the city jail. The Readjuster Mayor-elect has not qualified. The present Democratic Mayor will not recognize the Readjuster police force—hence offenders arrested by them will not be tried by him.

Congress to Adjourn on the 7th.

WASHINGTON, July 2.—It is the general opinion of the best-informed members that Congress will adjourn sine die on the 7th instant.

The corner stone of the Garfield Memorial Church was laid this afternoon on Vermont avenue, on the site of the Christian Church which the late President and family attended.

An American Minister Resident Acts as a Policeman.

NEW YORK, July 2.—W. J. Stillman intends to address a further protest to the State Department against his expulsion from Crete. He has now received notice of expulsion from the whole of the Turkish Empire, which involves the forfeiture of his connection with the London Times as its correspondent. The subservience of Frelinghuysen's Tom Wallace to the Turkish authorities renders the safety of every member of the American colony in Turkey precarious. The spectacle of an American Minister in Constantinople acting as a Turkish policeman brings American authority into contempt throughout the East. The injury inflicted on Stillman individually is without justification, and is likely to prove irredeemable.

Egyptian Affairs.

ALEXANDRIA, July 2.—At the Council of Ministers, to-day, Arabi Pasha proposed a levy en masse of the population. The Ministers of Public Works and Finance opposed the proposition, and no decision was reached. Meanwhile work on the fortifications continues the same.

The impressment of recruits continues. In consequence of alarming rumors from Cairo the military have been ordered to make special exertions to maintain order.

CONSTANTINOPLE, July 2.—The conference reassembled to-day. The nature of its deliberations is unknown. Major Osman Bey sailed for Alexandria with instructions from the Sultan to Dervish Pasha.

Disturbances in County Kerry.

DUBLIN, July 2.—There were disturbances yesterday at Lestowel, County Kerry. Mrs. Moore was addressing a crowd, when the police dispersed the meeting. She subsequently addressed a mob at the railway station. The police again advanced, and were attacked with stones, whereupon the riot act was read and the police proceeded to disperse the mob by firing their revolvers. Several persons were hurt and some arrested. The military had to be called out.

Washington Irish Buncombe.

NEW YORK, July 2.—Tribune's London: The resolution in the House of Representatives demanding the release of the so-called American suspects, has not elicited a single comment in any important journal or any notice in Parliament.

Such a resolution, if adopted by the legislative power, would have been regarded as a serious menace. Washington Irish buncombe is only too well understood here.

A Newspaper Building Thrown Open.

LONDON, July 2.—The opening of the new building of the Daily Telegraph, Wednesday evening, drew together a numerous company, including the Prince of Wales and many other celebrities. The whole premises were beautifully decorated with flowers, and were thrown open. The printing of Thursday's paper was proceeding in the presence of the spectators. The counting-room where the principal reception was held, is probably the finest in the world.

Two Sets of City Officials.

PETERSBURG, Va., July 2.—The Readjusters and Democrats had a contest in organizing the City Council Saturday afternoon, which resulted in there being two sets of officers and two police corps. Mahone was present during the exciting scene.

A National Disgrace.

NEW YORK, July 2.—Matthew Webb, champion long distance swimmer of England, at Coney Island, this afternoon, defeated George H. Wade, the American champion, for a $1,000 stake and the championship of America.

Harvard Badly Beaten.

NEW YORK, July 2.—The eight-oared race, distance two miles, between Yale and Columbia colleges, to-day, was won with ease by the latter, in 10 minutes 16 seconds. Harvard's time was 11 minutes 10 seconds.

Alleged Spontaneous Combustion.

PHILADELPHIA, July 2.—Thomas & Sons' building, worth $200,000, burned to-night. The contents were worth $75,000, and were destroyed by spontaneous combustion.

News From Kanakodom.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 2.—The steamship Suez arrived from Honolulu with the following news up to June 22d: The new Gibson Ministry of King Kalakaua is very popular. They have their own way with the Legislative Assembly, now in session. Premier Gibson has introduced a loan bill, which no doubt will pass, to borrow $2,000,000 to promote immigration and certain internal improvements. The loan bill will be taken up in Honolulu.

The Government now proposes to immigrate people without contracts to labor.

The Portuguese immigration from the Azores is checked for the present on account of excessive charges.

When the steamer Monarch arrived from St. Michael's at Honolulu with 865 Portuguese immigrants on board the cost to the Hawaiian Government was $65,000. Yet on evidence it is proven that the actual cost was about $28,000. Attention is now directed to Japan as a favorable field for recruits for people for this archipelago.

A movement is on foot to introduce colored laborers and their families from the United States into the Island. It is the purpose of the Government to provide for the passage of immigrants without their being subject to any contract for service or charges whatever.

It is generally understood, though not yet officially announced, that the coronation of King Kalakaua will take place February 12, 1883, on the anniversary of his accession to the Hawaiian throne.

Criminal Carelessness.

NEW YORK, July 2.—All the testimony taken by the Coroner in the case of the railroad accident shows that the rails were imperfectly spiked—which caused the disaster.

ELECTRIC SPARKS.

On the first of July the highest temperature in New York was 91, the lowest 64; in Chicago—highest 69, lowest 56; in Hailey—highest 96, lowest 45.

Colonel Noah L. Orr Grant died in Marysville, Ohio, last Saturday.

Billy Welch and Dave Phalen fought a prize fight near Manchester, N. H., last Saturday. Forty-three rounds were fought. Phalen won on a foul. Both men were badly punished.

The British military preparations, in view of possible contingencies in Egypt, are now virtually complete.

Michael Davitt did not speak at Worcester, Mass., last Sunday night, owing to physical prostration.

In the race from Baltimore to Fortress Monroe, Va., 188 miles, last Saturday, between the yachts Rena and Elfin, the latter won by one minute.

Generals Grant and Hancock attended the Veteran Soldiers' Reunion at Burlington, Vt., to-day.

AN EDITOR BOYCOTTED.

His Patrons Combine to Break Up His Business.

A couple of weeks ago a rumor to the effect that C. H. Clay, "editor and manager" of the Bellevue News, was considering the advisability of removing his press and type to Hailey, was circulated in this city and in Bellevue. Mr. Clay being frequently seen in Hailey just about that time, the rumor gained some credence. When the judicial decision declaring Hailey to be the county seat was rendered Mr. Clay quietly stated that it was his determination to move up here. This was soon known in Bellevue, and caused considerable indignation, which presently developed into active hostility, and lists were prepared pledging all signers to abstain from reading the News and to immediately withdraw all their patronage. These lists were circulated throughout Bellevue for two days, and very generally signed—so that Brother Clay finds himself with a newspaper on his hands, but scarcely any one to read it, and very few advertisements to put in it.

ACCIDENT AT DEER CREEK.

A Seven-Mule and Two-Wagon Outfit Carried Down the River.

Last Monday, W. T. Jones, a freighter who lives at Malad city, attempted to ford Wood river at the Deer Creek crossing, with an outfit of seven animals and two wagons. Before he had got well into the stream the animals lost their footing, and driver, teams and wagons were washed down stream a distance of about a quarter of a mile, when a shallow piece of ground was reached, and, the 15 or 20 men working on the bridge having come to the rescue, the outfit was saved with the exception of the body and hind wheels of the trail wagon.

THE FOURTH OF JULY.

Why It Was Not Celebrated in Hailey—The Ball in the Evening, in Ward & Quantrell's Splendid Hall.

Hailey did not celebrate the Fourth of July this year. As the announcement that the railroad terminus and the county seat were fixed here, had but recently been made, it was held that that was glory enough for one year, and, by common accord and to smooth things over with our neighbors, all who could get away agreed to visit Bellevue or Ketchum. At the latter place, the celebration was all that could have been wished. His Honor Judge Prickett delivered the oration, Hon. Joe Huston read the Declaration of Independence, a poem was read, and other exercises took place. In the evening a large number of Ketchumites accompanied the Haileyites home, and to the hall in Ward & Quantrell's hall.

This new hall was thrown open to the public for the first time last evening, and over 100 couples, besides a large number of gentlemen unaccompanied by ladies, attended. The hall had been handsomely decorated for the occasion. Festoons of evergreens depended from the center of the ceiling to the corners, where Chinese lanterns were pendant. There was a wide band of American flags all around the ceiling, the music stand was draped in flags and evergreens, a half-dozen oil-paintings hung from the walls, and handsome lace curtains in all the windows completed the fine effect produced, while the 12-light chandelier in the center of the hall set off the whole to the best advantage.

The corridor was likewise decorated with flags and evergreens, and lighted with Chinese lanterns.

The hall is the largest and best in the Territory, in many respects. The floor has a fine "spring" to it, the ceiling is 18 feet high, the seats are inclined at the proper angle, and the dressing and cloak rooms are just where they should be. Sixteen quadrille sets can dance on the floor at one time.

Among those in attendance last evening were many ladies and gentlemen from Boise and Ketchum, Bullion and Bellevue.

Late Again.

At 4:30 o'clock this afternoon, when the TIMES went to press, the Blackfoot stage carrying the dispatches received up to yesterday morning, had not arrived.

One of the most eminent of living investigators into the phenomena of optics is M. J. Plateau, of the Royal Academy of Belgium, who for the last forty years has been so totally blind that he may direct his face to the sun without being sensible of the least objective clearness. His researches into the phenomena of light have excited the admiration of his fellow scientists; his experiments on the wonderful color of soap bubbles are beautiful. M. Plateau has just published a little paper on the sensations which he experiences in his eyes, which is of practical value. He states that he has constantly in his eyes the sensations of light. His field of vision is divided into spaces, of which some are very clear and others sombre, or almost black. These spaces are not precisely limited, but run into each other at their borders; but what is remarkable is that their general tint alternates between gray and reddish.
