

THE HAILEY CEMETERY.

The plot used by the citizens of Hailey to bury their dead, was located at a distance of about a quarter of a mile from the traveled road.

WOOD RIVER AT DENVER.

Hon. T. F. Singiser, Commissioner for Idaho at the Denver Exposition, stopped over day before yesterday on his way to Challis and Bonanza, and left this morning.

Our representation at Denver will be composed of men of brains—men who will be a credit to us, and who will favorably impress strangers at the first glance.

FOR THE EXPOSITION.

The Latest Specimen Contributed by the Star Mine.

Specimens are daily being received by H. Z. Burkhardt, in this city, for the Denver Exposition. Yesterday a chunk of solid galena, containing about 22 cubic inches and weighing 870 pounds, was received.

Miners' Union Officers.

At the regular meeting of the Bullion Miners' Union, held in the town of Bullion, the following officers were elected for the ensuing six months:

Warning!

All parties negotiating for any mining claims located in 1881, in Deer creek, in which the name of J. H. Hodgman appears, are hereby warned not to purchase said properties, as I am a partner, and have not been consulted.

BELLEVUE ITEMS.

Recent Occurrences in Our Neighboring Town.

A load of general merchandise left A. J. Block's store here yesterday for Mr. Block's house in Sawtooth.

Notwithstanding the cry of dull times, our merchants, as a rule, are all doing first-rate. Foot-bridge Keating (Billy) has gained a reputation for being the cause of the erection of the foot-bridge to Broadford.

Dave Bingham, brother of our Assistant Postmaster, has been slightly under the weather for a week past.

Jim Agnew's stable on River street is something new.

Dick Hambley, of McIrvine & Hambley's saloon, has taken his prospecting outfit out in the hills with him, and we all know what to expect.

The Bellevue Fire Brigade's hooks and ladders—six of each—have arrived, and will soon be placed in a handy location for immediate use.

When E. C. Headrick sings, it is this:

"Many men of many minds, I'm the only man with many signs," and repeat.

Art. Smith, of Bullion, is down on a visit to his Bellevue friends. Art is a brother of Dick Smith, of the firm of Smith & Canavan, of this place.

Dr. E. Thiele, organizer of the Bellevue Council of Chosen Friends, made Hailey a visit yesterday, in the interest of the Order.

Yesterday morning H. A. Sheard, George Gonne, George Pryor, J. B. Black and George —, left for Silver creek on a fishing expedition. They report angling very poor, but succeeded in bringing home five "suckers." They may go again, and again they "mayn't."

F. Ephraim, one of our cigar dealers, is quite a lover of celebrating the Fourth of July, but he made a mistake on the day, and yesterday he allowed a few crackers to catch fire back of his place of business, and they caused quite a little blaze, that called forth the Fire Brigade. No damage, however.

Back of John Murphy's Cremorne saloon is a pile of rubbish, and a passer-by threw a lighted cigar into it yesterday, which caused quite a blaze, but a neighbor put a bucket of water on it and squelched it. The next time this is done, John will no doubt be "fired." More to-morrow.

A Ball for the Benefit of T. F. Cox.

Three gentlemen of this city have taken in hand the case of T. F. Cox, the prospector who had his lower limbs so badly frozen, last winter, that they had to be amputated, and they propose to give a ball, next Thursday evening, the 20th instant, for his benefit.

A Part of the Utah Northern.

The Oregon Short Line Railway has been officially declared a part of the Utah Northern Railroad, and Mr. Thatcher, Superintendent of the Utah Northern, has taken charge of the line. This arrangement will probably continue until direct connection is made with the Union Pacific at Granger, and the gauge of the Oregon Short Line is widened. The through rate on all goods from Ogden will be fixed within a few days.

Judicial Rottenness in Salt Lake.

SALT LAKE, July 8.—Special agents of the Department of Justice are here investigating the affairs of the District Court presided over by Chief Justice John A. Hunter, of Ohio, and Clerk of the Court Colonel Averill, of New York. Hunter was appointed by Hayes, and soon became unpopular with the bar, which quite generally denounced his decisions either as partisan or as showing inexcusable ignorance.
