HERE AND THERE.

In the German army more and more attention is being paid to the science of aerostatics, and officers are being trained to make balloon ascensions.

The politics and politicians of northern New York have been mixed with romance and put into a novel by Editor W. A. Wilkins, of the Whitehall Times.

Great preparations are being made at Assisi, in Italy, to celebrate this winter the seventh centenary of the birth of St. Francis, the founder of the Franciscan order of monks.

As an act of grace, on the occasion of the sixth anniversary of his accession to the throne, the Sultan of Turkey pardoned sixty-nine persons suffering imprisonment for various offenses.

Does the weather change with the moon? Sir William Thomson tells the British Science Association that there is no connection between the two things, as far as he can discover, and he has studied them.

Speaking recently at Norwich, Cardinal Manning said that last year he had the pleasure of sitting next Gen. Sir G. Wolsey at a dinner in London, and observed that the General was a strict total abstainer.

Despite the unfavorable weather, the number of visitors at Wiesbaden in the latter half of August is given at about 62,000; at Baden Baden, 36,000; at Carlsbad, 24,450; the other German watering places having a score corresponding to their popularity.

School libraries are greatly on the increase in France. In 1865 the number was only 4,833, and in 1874, 16,648. There are now 25,913. This does not include the teachers' libraries which number 2,348, with an aggregate of five hundred thousand volumes.

Is a city under obligations to protect its citizens from damage by fire? That question is involved in a suit brought against Montreal by Mr. Dion, a sculptor, who lost an eye in consequence of a fire in a house where the law as to fire-escapes had not been enforced.

The fat men of Connecticut are perturbed. The President of their association chose a place which they do not like for their annual clambake, and they threaten to sue him, unless he yields, for a return of the gold-headed cane which he carries as their chief officer.

An insurance company to indemnify public singers against the loss of their voices is proposed in Paris, the idea being to contract to support the insured in a manner appropriate to their position and the amount of premiums paid by them before their voices deserted them.

The best tricycle exploit reported thus far is the recent ride of Mr. A. Nixon, the honorary secretary of the London Tricycle Club, from John o' Groat's to Land's End, a distance of 1,007 miles, in a little less than a fortnight, making an average ride of over seventy-one miles per day.

During service in the cathedral at Ragusa some days ago the officiating priest, a member of the Society of Jesuits, was stabbed to death by a girl whom he had betrayed. She inflicted five wounds. The congregation poured amid wild excitement into the streets, and the girl was taken into custody.

The Rev. Mr. Landsell, an English clergyman, who started several weeks ago from St. Petersburg on a missionary tour in Siberia, was arrested and taken back, the police having taken the Bible he distributed for Nihilist literature. After some considerable difficulty, however, the reverend gentleman freed himself.

Recently large shoals of whales have been frequenting the creeks and bays in the Orkney Islands, on the Scottish coast, but it has been found difficult to capture any of them. Finally, however, in Scape Bay, while there were over 200 whales swimming about, the boats succeeded in catching one nineteen feet long.

The Paris Figaro says that the ex-Khedive's abode in Paris is that very Chateau de la Terrasse, described by Alphonse Daudet in his "King in Exile." Ismail is 52, not tall, but stout. He wears his beard, and has a way of observing everything while apparently looking at nothing. He knows French well, having been partially educated in Paris.

In Wales there are some very little parishes. A few days since the Bishop of St. David's re-opened the parish church of Llandawke, a Norman building of great antiquity, which for years has been in a most ruinous and dangerous condition. The parish is only 620 acres in extent, and all the land, except the glebe, is owned by a single Nonconformist, while the population, all told, is only 21.
