This reduction, while gratifying, does not make our postage quite as cheap as that of Great Britain, but it will be accepted as a step in the right direction.

Common Sense.

Very few people in this world possess what is known as practical common sense, yet those who do claim a moiety of that necessary acquirement say that it is foolish to assert that there is no known cure for Rheumatism, when the great medicine, Salicylica, is guaranteed to give immediate and permanent relief. A test of its efficacy is the fact that it has been established for five years, and is an assured success.

Wanted.

A good new milch cow. Gentle. Inquire at the U. S. Land Office, Hailey, Idaho. s34tf

Among the Shakers. In certain sections of the country there are religious sects known as Shakers; but for the present we will not speak of them. The "shakers" to whom we refer are those who suffer from swamp fever which necessarily entails Rheumatic troubles and Neuralgia. To these unfortunate ones, therefore, we recommend Salicylica as a panacea for their ailments. Try it and be convinced of its curative powers.

C. W. HOLCOMB, ATTORNEY-AT-LAW, Office Rooms 611 F street, Washington, D. C. (P. O. BOX 574.)

Practices in United States Supreme Court, Court of Claims, before Committees of Congress, and in all the Departments of Government at Washington.

Has an experience of eleven years in General Land Office as Chief of Pre-emption Division, Recorder, Chief of Mineral Division, Chief Clerk and Acting Commissioner, and Inspector of Surveyors General, and District Land Offices, and one year as Law Officer of Indian Bureau.

While not presuming to gratuitously advise, he ventures to suggest, as a result of his experience, that no land contest can be safely conducted by the best lawyers, at remote points; and that the lawyer in a Land District, who has all his ex parte entries—especially of mineral lands—promptly examined on their arrival at Washington, can, by then curing defects, avoiding delay in patents, and being able to accurately, and at all times, inform his clients of the exact status of their claims, gain a positive business advantage over those who permit their cases to drift without direction.

In cases where good reasons exist, he will undertake to secure issue of patent in advance of the regular order.

All business will receive prompt and careful attention. Refers to Prominent Men throughout the country.
