

Dyspepsia

Makes the lives of many people miserable, and often leads to self-destruction. Distress after eating, sour stomach, sick headache, heartburn, loss of appetite, a faint, "all gone" feeling, bad taste, coated tongue, and irregularity of the bowels, are some of the more common symptoms. Dyspepsia does not get well of itself. It requires careful, persistent attention, and a remedy like Hood's Sarsaparilla, which acts gently, yet surely and efficiently. It tones the stomach and other organs, regulates the digestion, creates a good appetite, and by thus overcoming the local symptoms removes the sympathetic effects of the disease, banishes the headache, and refreshes the tired mind. "I have been troubled with dyspepsia. I had but little appetite, and what I did eat distressed me, or I did me after eating. I would experience a faintness, or tired, all-gone feeling, as though I had not eaten anything. My trouble, I was aggravated by my business, which is that of a painter, and from being more or less shut up in a room with fresh paint. Last spring I took Hood's Sarsaparilla—took three bottles. It did me an immense amount of good. It gave me an appetite, and my food relished and satisfied the craving I had previously experienced." GEORGE A. PAGE, Waterbury, Mass.

WOOD RIVER TIMES

TUESDAY ..... MARCH 10, 1891

Judge Beatty having failed of confirmation as United States Judge for Idaho, the President appointed him to the place two days after the Senate adjourned. This appointment holds good until the Senate shall take action upon it, next December. As the charges against Judge Beatty are based solely on political grounds they will doubtless be ignored by the next Senate. Judge Beatty is therefore reasonably certain of holding the position.

Some surprise was recently created by ex Senator Mahone, in a newspaper interview, booming Senator Gorman for the Democratic Presidential nomination, but the cause is now apparent, and it is creating considerable indignation among the labor organizations and others, who had been promised last summer that a new Government printing office building would certainly be provided for at this session, and now the whole matter has been coolly postponed until next December. Here are the facts: A committee of eminent gentlemen, including the late Secretary Windom acting under the instructions from Congress, selected as the most available of the sites offered one that is in the neighborhood of the present printing office. Everybody seemed satisfied except ex Senator Mahone, who has a site which he wants to sell the Government for $250,000. He began active operations to hang the matter up, and he succeeded in getting the aid of Senators Gorman, Cameron and Butler, the latter making an ungentlemanly and personally abusive speech in order to get a resolution adopted by the Senate postponing the purchase of the site. If any accident causing the loss of life or property occurs in the present man trap used as a Government printing office these gentlemen must shoulder the responsibility.

Location notices, for both lode and placer claims, for sale at the TIMES office.

Blessing a Baogé Mill.
In Russia they make brandy by the grace of God, therefore it is not to be wondered that the people pour it down for the love of God. On January 19 a great brandy distillery was opened near Kazan, on the borders of the Volga, with services conducted by the clergy of that locality.
