Idaho Falls is to have the grandst fair ever pulled off in the Intermountain west, the dates being August 16, 17, 18, 19 and 20. Don Williams who gained an enviable reputation through managing the successful round-up here in the past, and who was given a thousand dollars for a week's similar work in Salt Lake last fall, has consented to take the management of the fair. There will be round-up features, but the show will not be all bucking contests. Some classy horses will be on the ground all right and this part of the sport will be made as interesting as the hurricane deck of a genuine buckner will permit.—Idaho Falls Times.

W. C. Doebler is making some much needed improvements on the grounds of the city cemetery this spring. The old dilapidated fence is being replaced with a neat woven wire fence. Other improvements will also be made on the grounds and with the help of the lot owners our cemetery can be made a much less desolate place.

There were ten of them and they crossed the Salmon in a boat and spent the day at White rock and neighboring hills. The weather was almost perfect and the ladies spent an enjoyable day in the open air.

Plans are being made for a flower show to be given sometime in September by the ladies of our city. Prizes will be given for various kinds of flowers and other inducements offered to get the ladies interested in flower culture. Now is the time to get busy so you will have something to enter when the time comes. Its a good movement so boss heading.

Such a cleaning Salmon has not had for some time as was given to the streets last Tuesday by the business men and property owners. A regular army of men and boys gathered the up refuse and wagons hauled it away. This is but the starting of an organization which is bound to be established for the purpose of keeping up the good work. Mayor Atkins authorizes The Recorder to say that the city authorities are behind any movement which has for its object the improving and beautifying of Salmon. Let the good work go on until all the streets, alleys and back yards are in a clean and sanitary condition. More about this next issue.
