LEMHI LOCALS.

By Miss Georgia C. Holgate.

Friday evening, was again the scene of much merriment at the Agency school house. Owing to the resignation of Mr. G. K. Gilluly, the teacher of the Lemhi school, and president of the Literary, the debate was called off, but a program consisting of songs and recitations was rendered. Mr. Norman H. Dutton was elected president by a unanimous vote, and takes the chair Dec. 10th. After the business session and program, the floor was cleared and a very large crowd enjoyed a dance until nearly daylight. There will be a program and business session for Dec. 10th, and possibly an old fashioned spell down. All are welcome as usual.

Mr. G. K. Gilluly, who has had charge of the school at the Agency this term, left on Thursday's train for Montana where he expects to locate if satisfied.

Thresholding amid a snow storm and blizzard was completed in Hayden Basin the latter part of the week.

Mrs. Anker Amussen returned to her home near Lemhi Wednesday from a two weeks visit with friends and relatives in the southern part of Idaho.

A large number of young people from Tendency were in attendance at the Agency dance Friday night. Mr. Joe Pattee conveyed the party to and from the dance in his auto.

Mrs. Don Fyeatt and Joe Murphy returned to their homes near Lemhi Thursday night from a nine day's trip to the Big Hole basin. While there they purchased three fancy thoroughbred Shorthorn cattle, two for Mr. Karl Spahn and one for Mr. Fyeatt.

At this writing Mr. Wm. Bates is reported to be very ill at the home of S. E. Tobias on Hayden creek. Mr. Bates was returning to L. T. Ramsey's at Lemhi Saturday with a load of grain from Hayden Basin, when he became ill. His many friends hope for a speedy recovery.

Mrs. J. D. Holgate and daughter, Georgia are in Salmon for a few days this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Morris, Mr. and Mrs. Carlson ate their goose Thanksgiving Day with the Smith's and I know that it was good as I helped eat it.

Everybody had good dinners that day. Mr. Igou had six invites to eat turkey, goose and chicken pie. He was entertained at Ball's.

Friday George Ashton was in town on business and helped finish the goose and chicken pie at Smith's. He said that the remains looked good to him and I should imagine it tasted good from the amount that he stowed away.

Miss Mary Matley, from Palsmar is visiting with her cousins Mr. and Mrs. Fred Pattee.

Miss Paine, our teacher, had to go to Salmon for turkey and there was no school from Wednesday morning to Monday morning.

All the young folks attending high school at Salmon were at home for a good dinner and a better visit.

Estella Ball, of the Bohannon Bar school, and Don from Salmon, came home to eat a fat turkey that Joe Pattee shot.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Snook are getting ready to go to their California home. They go in about two weeks. It's pretty nice to have a home where they can get out of the snow and cold. They had not better ask me to go with them.

The Copper Queen is doing some business. A cook and her husband came there last week to go to work and there are other work men there.

Mr. and Mrs. Spencer have a brand new boy at their home. They expect to keep him.

Charlie Carpenter has gone to Big Hole with a bunch of cattle for Jackson and Holmes. They bought of Mr. Spencer who had to sell some cattle to pay the new boy's board.

C. S. Carroll is visiting friends on Boyle creek. He must be having a good time as he has been there for ten days.

Mr. Ed Wolf and his father were here this morning on the way to Salmon.

Temptation and how to Meet it.

(By Rev. E. N. Quist.)

1 Cor. 10:13.—The first step in overcoming temptation is to understand the real meaning of it. It is no sin to be tempted. The greatest men have had the greatest temptations. Christ himself was tempted in all things just as we are, yet without sin. A life without temptation would become weak and undeveloped. Like the tree that needs the wind to make it strong so the temptations that we overcome make us stronger characters.

Christ always met his temptations with the "word of the spirit" which is the word of God. The devil can't stand the word of God. When a Christian prays the temptation is overcome. "God is faithful, who will not suffer you to be tempted above that ye are able, but will with the temptation also make a way to escape that ye may be able to bear it." Sometimes a temptation can be avoided. We can avoid the persons and places that are likely to tempt us to sin.

Think of the thousands of Christians that have started on the narrow way that leads to life, but the attractions of this world has side tracked them. They quit the church. The Bible is seldom read, and prayer is only a form, or is altogether neglected. If you have been overcome it is because you have neglected the means of grace. "God has made a way to escape."
