

Any time that you're willing to compare the value of Rowles - Mack Clothes with the goods of other stores, we have made a customer.

Make the test today

- Compare cloth
- Compare tailoring
- Compare style
- Compare linings

Ask the men who wear our clothes-- they'll tell you that we fit them better than they've ever been fitted.

$10 to $25

Rowles-Mack Co.
- Good Clothes -

Hansen and Silva Yancey at the home of the latter which was beautifully decorated for the occasion and which made the guests feel the spirit of Halloween. A dainty lunch was served and games were enjoyed by all.

On the evening of the 2nd of November a birthday party was given in honor of Elmer, the eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Hale. Just passed the birthday that entitles him to vote. A pleasant time was enjoyed by all present. Mr. and Mrs. Smith Gummersall left for Turner, Ida., last week where they expect to reside for some time, thinking to improve the health of Mr. Gummersall.

STERLING

L. A. Watts made a business trip to Blackfoot the last of the week to purchase farm implements.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Taylor and sons, who have been visiting Mrs. Taylor's sister, Mrs. Quantrell, left for their home Monday. Mr. Taylor has been erecting a new house for E. N. Wells.

Mrs. O. C. Henderson, who was operated on for appendicitis at the Idaho Falls hospital, is reported to be improving slowly, but on account of her dangerous condition her husband has been summoned from Purple Springs, Alberta, Canada, also her father, J. H. Haycock of this place.

Henry Morrison has sold his Ford to E. N. Wells and will purchase a larger car in the very near future.

A fishing party motored to Snake river last Sunday in the Johnson brothers' car where they spent the day. Those going were M. A. Driscoll and family, Guy Priest and wife, the Tiechert family, Tracey Driscoll and family, of Pocatello, John Watson, Jr., and the Johnson boys.

Miss Nada Brown of Blackfoot is visiting Miss Valene Cutting this week.

Tracey Pugmire of Pocatello is spending his vacation at the Tiechert ranch on Snake river.

H. K. Wiley shipped sixty-one sacks or about $5000 worth of Grimm's alfalfa seed to the government at Washington, D. C., Thursday.

About thirty-five cars of sugar beets have been shipped from this station this season.

The farmers of this vicinity will be pleased to learn that a new rural mail route has been confirmed by the government for this place.

The O. S. L. carpenters are expected here this week to erect the new stock yards at this station. The material is all on the ground for the same.

Ross Burriston made a call here Saturday in the interest of the Blackfoot Packing company.

A. D. Quantrell and wife came down Saturday to spend a few days with their son before leaving for California for the winter.

Mr. A. Rupe made a business trip to Blackfoot Friday.

W. W. Hayes, Mart Driscoll, Clarence Quantrell and Julius Tiechert motored down to Bannock this week in the latter's new Ford.

Mrs. M. A. Driscoll motored to Aberdeen last week and visited with Mrs. Abe Colburn.

Sterling's merry-makers motored to Grandview Thursday to take in the big hop.

Mrs. John Cooper and family are visiting in Ogden.

There is a new son at the home of Oscar Rice, mother and babe doing nicely, but Oscar has a smile that won't come off.

Miss Page and mother, and Fred Weise returned Saturday from Pocatello where they have been attending Teachers' institute.

Mrs. Greer is spending the week in Butte and Three Forks.

Frank Hutchinson has been visiting relatives in Thomas.

Fred Murphy's cigar man is in town interviewing his local trade.

Mrs. Guy S. Priest will leave Thursday for a trip to Salt Lake, and will visit in Pocatello and Ogden before returning.

Mr. Harder is shipping hay this week to the Beebe Grain company of Butte.

Lou Watts was called to Ogden Monday on account of the death of his mother.

Mr. W. C. Hill and wife left Monday for Butte where they will spend the winter.

Mrs. P. Parsons left for her home in Blackfoot Monday after a ten-days' visit with Mrs. Graham.

RICH

Misses Jessie and Goldie Thompson gave some of their schoolmates and young neighbor friends a Halloween party last Friday evening on the eve of getting through pulling and hauling beets. The evening was spent with music, recitations and games, the principal one being 500. Miss Hannah Clough was awarded a dainty pair of Japanese slippers, and Mr. Frank Baker a Bulgarian match box. Cakes and palatable refreshments were served and all went home satisfied with the night's entertainment.

Mr. Frank Baker and Mr. Lee Dygert will pull off a beet hop and social at Pingree in the near future, or when Happy Troutner gets through pulling and hauling his large crop of beets.

Mr. Frank Baker is officiating at the Cope beet dump during the absence of Mr. Lee Dygert this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Dygert, of Indiana, are visiting their son Lee Dygert at his ranch.

Mr. Jack Flynn has been cutting quite a swell lately. He made three trips to Blackfoot and the third was a charmed one as he captured the right and painful tooth and the swelling has subsided and he is feeling very good, as he is making the beet tops fly in all directions.

Misses Vivian and Anna and Mr. Moore were visiting Mrs. Alma Clough and Miss Hannah last week.

Mr. Sam McBride was up from Utah last week looking after his brother Marion's crop of beets. He finished and returned home this week.

GROVELAND

October 27th Dr. Beck visited the Boy Scouts of this place and gave them a lecture on first aid to the injured, applying bandages etc. This was a big help to the boys as they are taking up that kind of work in its order.

Friday night, October 27th, the Boy Scouts gave an entertainment in the Ward hall where a large crowd listened to a good program rendered principally by the scouts. After the program a very pleasant evening was enjoyed in dancing. Lemonade and cake were served.

Saturday evening, the 30th, a Halloween party was given by Miss Celia

Ladies' Suits from $4.98 to $32.50

Ladies' Coats from 4.95 to 32.50

Misses' & Children's Coats from 2.95 to 12.50

in all the latest materials and colors

LADIES' FURS

in sets and separate pieces in all the latest shapes. Our furs were purchased before the advance in prices, and we are giving our customers the benefit of our early buying.

The Brown-Hart Company
The Big Store

Last Sunday the big plate glass window of the Thorstenberg confectionery was broken in an unusual manner. A big smooth pebble was thrown from the street through it and made a hole like a cannon ball fired at close range. After passing through the outer show window that had such throwing power is said to have hailed from Pocatello.

Closing Out

Boys' and Youths' Clothing

All Suits and Overcoats 17 Years and Down

Great Reduction in Price

This clothing is of the latest styles. The tailoring is high grade; the materials reliable in every way. To close it out quick we are going to sell at very low prices. Our stock is large and we can suit you. If you want boys' clothing now is your opportunity to save money.

Boys Waists, regular 40c, for30c

Boys' Fine Flannelette Shirts, regular 85c, for55c

As long as they last

Be sure and buy your boys clothing now, at

BIETHAN'S

FALL AND WINTER COATS

A LARGE LINE OF LADIES', MISSES' AND CHILDREN'S WINTER COATS

These coats are not this season's style, but are made of the best materials and are high priced coats, but in order to clean up we will give you your choice of them while they last at

$1.50 Each

Kinney & Co.

The Busy Store