

FRIDAY AND SATURDAY

"PARTNERS OF THE TIDE"

FROM THE GREAT NOVEL BY JOSEPH C. LINCOLN

A death grapple beneath the waves—full rigged schooner sunk at sea—another sturdy craft destroyed by fire—intrigue—humor—heart interest—and a charming love tale. These are the elements which Irvin V. Willat has woven into his greatest production.

EPWORTH LEAGUE ELECTIONS.

At the business meeting of the Epworth League, Monday evening, a hilarious attendance was in force. The retiring president, Miss Grace Holt presided gracefully as her name indicates, and after hearing the reports of the society for the past year proceeded to the election of the officials for the new fiscal year beginning May 15, the thirty-second anniversary of its organizing.

EVERY LADIES' SUIT IS SELLING AT REDUCED PRICES

With happy emulation and joyful rivalry the candidates were proposed and opposed till the following were selected, some of them being the fragments of a most carefully made slate: The retiring treasurer, Leslie Jones, was made president; his co-partners are Laura Faulconer, Julia Sutton, Olive Eckersley and Grace Miltenberger to the vice-presidencies in the order of their names here given. To record their deeds and hold the money bag, Paul Pearson and Leona Hines were chosen. Paul can write his name and Leona can count pennies up to twenty, but does not know how to start an electric stove with a match. Miriam Pearson handles the ivories when music time comes around.

On Sunday evening at the church at 8 o'clock the newly elected cabinet will be charged and the retirers discharged.

American Legion Week May 8th to 14th
100 PER CENT AMERICANISM 100 PER CENT ENROLLMENT

The American Legion Safeguards Your Rights

Do you know, buddie, that the state legislature M. P.'s almost put the "verboten" sign on the lowly cigarette this spring?

Do you know what helped avert the catastrophe? American Legion posts.

There is only one way to have a voice that carries any force, and that is to be a member of a strong organization.

Work Together

The war's over and forgotten, but you men who helped fight it have other battles to fight. You can't do much separately but you can get somewhere by working together.

"First Call"

It's reveille, boy, and you've got to wake up and do something for yourself or you'll probably find a lot of your pleasures marked "Off limits" by the powers that be.

Preparedness Now

Join your American Legion Post now and get ready for whatever comes. Legislators passed this anti-cigarette bill knowing you would oppose it, and knowing especially how unorganized you are! Only the governor's recommendation and a lot of burning telegrams from Legion Posts gave us a sensible and workable law.

Join the American Legion and help make this country safe for the ex-service man, and all his personal rights.

American Legion Week May 8 to 14th
100 PER CENT AMERICANISM 100 PER CENT ENROLLMENT

The American Legion Will Help You

The Time You Put In

Have you made up those months; perhaps years, you gave to the nation? Do you find it slow going and the competition keen?

Want To Keep Up?

Perhaps special training would put you on your feet, and save you the loss of the time you served with the colors.

The American Legion will see to it that every ex-service man eligible for vocational training gets what is coming to him.

There may be other advantages coming to you—and if you join the local post of the Legion you'll be kept informed about everything.

When The Going Is Rough

Remember, there's a long future for most of us. The sledding may be hard, and the Legion will always furnish a helping hand to the ex-service man.

Perhaps you don't need any help—never will; but how about the brother who may?

Only Sure Remedy

Are after-the-war conditions all you could have asked for? If not, there's only one way to remedy things, and that is to join the strong organization of the American Legion and help right them.

Get into the bunch, be an active comrade, and you'll reap rewards. The Legion has only commenced to do things.
