LOCAL TEAM WINS GAME—SCORE 2-1

A Satisfied Crowd of Hundreds Witnessed Fast Game Sunday Between Blackfoot and Pocatello.

The Yellowstone base ball league opened its season Sunday afternoon at the fair grounds, with a good attendance and a satisfied look adorned the fans as Blackfoot defeated Pocatello by a score of two to one. The game was clean in every respect, and while Blackfoot won, Pocatello displayed unusual talent, and were a good match for the home team. The crowd was enthusiastic and felt repaid for their support of the home boys. Pocatello is to be congratulated on the clean bunch of players they have, and will play an important part in the series this year.

Vaught, the new pitcher, showed that he was master of his position, and evidently did not exert himself to pitch the game. The fans believe he is capable of tightening up when the situation exists. The catcher, second baseman and the remainder of the team played excellent ball and the battery's support was first class in every respect.

The local committee, consisting of Otto Maas, Dr. A. H. McFarland and E. M. Kennedy, have worked hard to make the league a success this year, and the opening game shows the result of united effort. They hope to keep Blackfoot at the head of the column this year and the first game was indeed pleasing to them, both from the standpoint of attendance as well as the players.

Rigby defeated Idaho Falls by a score of 10 to 7 at the same hour.

HERO BROUGHT HOME FOR FINAL BURIAL

The body of Joseph Charles Walters, son of Mr. and Mrs. James T. Walters, of this city, arrived from France Sunday afternoon, and funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon from the Second Ward chapel, Bishop O. L. Rider conducting the ceremonies. The American Legion, with Captain Will Parkinson in charge, conducted the services at the grave.

The young man was killed while in action in the Argonne Woods in the fall of 1918. The body was first buried on the battlefield, later being removed to the American cemetery in France, and still later brought home for its permanent resting place.

The deceased was 22 years old at the time of his death, and leaves to mourn his loss his parents, four brothers, five sisters, and the entire country for which he gave his life.

CROP CONDITIONS

BOISE, Idaho, May 18.—Increased warmth greatly improved growing conditions and all vegetation made rapid growth. Both winter and early sown spring wheat are looking fine, as weather conditions all along have been mostly favorable for these crops. Sugar beets are coming up nicely in most localities but in the Twin Falls district the stand is poor. Alfalfa grew rapidly. In many sections this crop has been given its first application of irrigation water, which is plentiful in all districts. Pasture and range grasses are growing luxuriantly. Range feed is improving in all districts and forage generally plentiful.

Rev. Gillman went to Idaho Falls Wednesday to conduct funeral services over the remains of the small son of Wesley Holden, who died in California a few days ago.

POCATELLO BANK CLOSED.

Last Friday morning the Bannock National Bank at Pocatello was closed, temporarily at least, on account of the bank's inability to realize fast enough on its assets to meet its liabilities. H. L. Macken, supervising national bank examiner, is now in charge. L. D. Franklin is cashier of the suspended bank, while S. L. Reece, E. C. White and D. W. Church are the directors.

According to the bank's latest statement, its resources are greatly in excess of its liabilities, but having overloaded itself with loans on which it could not realize immediately, it was forced to close.

RIVERSIDE NEWS.

The Junior ball team gave a dance on Friday evening. There was a large crowd in attendance and many people from Blackfoot attended. The music was furnished by Barrer's orchestra. Refreshments were served and plenty of money was raised to support the team for the season.

The Junior ball team crossed bats with the Wapeho team at that place on Saturday, Wapello winning by a score of 10 to 18. On the same day the Senior ball team played Moreland at Riverside, the score being four to three in favor of Riverside. They played twelve innings.

Riverside students who are attending the Bible class in Blackfoot, were speakers at the L. D. S. services on Sunday.

A dance was given on Friday afternoon by the children of the Sunday school. Refreshments were sold to raise funds to buy song books.

The Mutual Improvement Association of the Blackfoot First Ward put on a play on Tuesday night entitled "Just for Fun." There was not a very large attendance on account of the rain but all those who were present appreciated the show very much.

SAVE ARMENIANS FROM STARVATION

Dr. Allen Addresses Commercial Club on Subject of Starving Armenians. —Says Our Own Kith and Kin.

Last Thursday evening the regular business of the commercial club was laid aside to hear an address on the Armenian question by Dr. Allen, who has spent many years in that section of the world, and besides the members of the club a number of ladies were present to hear the address.

The discourse was interesting throughout, and told a graphic story of continued persecutions, butchery, brutality and starvation, which could not help but elicit sympathy from the hearers. Dr. Allen said the Armenians are our own kith and kin, originating in the same part of the world that we did, and that they have always been Christians from the very start.

Bingham county is asked to contribute $2,700, to support forty-five of these starving children and helpless men and women for one year. Miss Fowler is conducting the drive, and it is hoped that each person in the county will do his bit toward saving these helpless people until such time as they can be rehabilitated in their own homes.

Both stores were open Saturday, at which time a sale was put on. In the future the firm will only conduct their business at the Broadway location.

MARKET NEWS BY RAPID TRANSIT

Dept. of Agriculture Will Introduce Innovation in Transmitting Market News by Radiophone.

Agricultural market reports by radiophone is the latest innovation announced by the Bureau of Markets, United States Department of Agriculture. This service will be launched experimentally at East Pittsburg this week, and with the necessary radiophone apparatus, farmers and others within a few hundred miles of Pittsburg will be able to keep abreast of market conditions and prices immediately after the close of the markets. The reports are to be sent from radio station KDKA over a wave length of 330 meters.

The department's experimental radiophone service follows shortly the inauguration of sending agricultural market reports by wireless. Daily radio market reports are now being dispatched from Omaha, St. Louis, Washington, and Bellefonte, Pa., and received by wireless operators in 22 Central and Eastern States who immediately relay the news to farmers, shipping associations, distributors of farm products, and others. Although in existence but a short time the department is receiving many gratifying reports regarding the usefulness of this service, and marketing organizations everywhere are not only watching the work with keen interest, but are arranging as rapidly as possible to utilize the service.

Sending the reports by radiophone would greatly simplify their receipt by farmers and others direct, inasmuch as the operation of a radiophone set does not require a knowledge of wireless codes. Instead of coming in dots and dashes the market news would be received in English, the same as conversation over an ordinary telephone. At present those desiring the radio market reports must make arrangements with local experienced wireless operators to receive and relay the messages to them.

CATTLE AND HOGS LOWER; SHEEP ACTIVE HIGHER

Kansas City Stock Yards, May 16.—Cattle prices today were 10 to 15 cents lower than the extreme high point late last week, and about 25 cents higher than a week ago. Demand from killers was fairly active. Hog prices were 10 to 15 cents lower, top $8.35 and bulk of sales $7.90 to $8.30. All classes of lambs were 25 cents higher, and the highest of the year. Sheep were strong to 25 cents higher.

Today's Receipts

Receipts today were 13,000 cattle, 17,000 hogs, and 10,000 sheep, compared with 12,000 cattle, 12,500 hogs and 16,000 sheep a week ago, and 11,100 cattle, 24,000 hogs and 12,450 sheep a year ago.

Beef Cattle

Trade in fat cattle opened slowly with buyers holding back for lower prices. As soon as a 10 to 15 cent decline was established, trade became active and a fairly good clearance was effected. Demand was about the same in all weights, though choice to prime tidy weight yearlings continued to bring a premium over other classes. Cows and heifers were steady to 15 cents lower, and veal calves weak to 50 cents lower. The general demand in the market now is much broader than a few weeks ago.

Stockers and Feeders

Trade in stockers and feeders was active at steady prices. Receipts were moderate. There was a fairly good inquiry for stock heifers.

Hogs

Hog prices declined 10 to 15 cents, and at the lower level there was active demand. Fairly liberal receipts and lower prices at more eastern markets caused the decline here. The top price was $8.35, and bulk of sales, $7.85 to $8.30. Pigs were strong at 25 cents higher, top $8.75. On the basis of present demand from packers' prices are expected to hold to about present levels for some time to come.

Sheep and Lambs

With prices strong to 25 cents higher sheep and lambs sold at the highest levels of the year. Spring lambs sold up to $12.50, woolled lambs up to $11.70, and slipped Texan wethers 7.25. Some goats brought $4.00. Trade was active with a close clearance.

Horses and Mules

Prices for horses and mules were steady compared with a week ago. Receipts continued moderate. CHARLES M. PIPKIN, Market Correspondent.

DON'T VIOLATE TRAFFIC RULES.

There having been considerable trouble lately over violations of the city ordinance governing traffic, and several arrests having been made, we wish to call the attention of the public to some of the provisions of ordinance No. 222. It is the intention of Mayor Peck and the council, Police Judge Allen and Chief of Police Moulden, to enforce this ordinance to the letter in the future.

According to its provisions, all drivers of motor vehicles must comply with the state laws; must be 16 years of age or over; must be sober; must have adequate brake and horn; beginning one hour after sun set, and until one hour before sunrise, must have two lights in front and one on the rear, front lights must be visible at least 200 feet in the direction the car is going, and must be equipped with dimming device; on nearing street intersection must slow down and sound horn; must not park within 20 feet of fire hydrant, in front of city hall, picture shows or hotels, and not over eight hours in one place; speed limit inside city limits 15 miles per hour; speed limit in passing schools between 8 a. m. and 5 p. m., on school days, eight miles per hour; speed limit at street intersections or when turning from one street to another, eight miles per hour.

BOOK NOTES FROM THE LIBRARY

The short story in its perfection has been developed in America. Every corner in this country and every phase of American life is depicted in the magazines of today through the short story. Since 1915 Edward J. O'Brien has each year collected in one volume the twenty most notable stories of the year, listing also many other stories according to their excellence and grading the magazines as to the quality of the fiction published in their pages.

These volumes are all on our shelves, the "Best Short Stories of 1920," having been recently added. While on the short story we might say that through the kindness of Dr. Gillman the works of Edgar Allen Poe have been added to the library, and those that delight in the weird, mysterious charm of these wonderful tales will find them all here.

Among the foreign writers most talked of today is John Bojen, the famous Norwegian novelist. He is represented on our list by "Life," the story of a girl of simple tastes who craved the sunshine of happiness but because another also wanted it and took it her life was ruined just when it seemed most full of promise.

In the "Wind Between the Worlds" by Alice Brown, the characters are interested in the life hereafter and in communication with the dead and the reactions upon the living when the quest becomes too ardent, constitute the moral.

Kelland's "Youth Challenges" is the story of Bonbright Foote VII, who balked old family and business traditions and changed a concern that had fossilized for six generations into an up-to-date going business.

"Captain Macdoone's Daughter," by William McFee, is the tale of strange paces, strange people and strange motifs and will gladden the heart of the lover of beautiful English prose.

A scheming and selfish heroine is Dorothy of Compton McKenzie's "Variety Girl," first to get on the stage then to capture a titled husband.

Talbot Mundy's "Eye of Zeitoun" is a story of the far East with two interesting women playing important parts, one a fearless American girl and the other a wild pagan mysterious daughter of the Orient.

In Margaret Sherwood's "World to Mend" we meet a man who is brought by the war to realize his limitations and leaves a secure position in a rich and aristocratic society to become the village cobbler in a little New England town. Here in this lowly position he thinks through his problems instead of stepping around them and wins a place in the love and esteem of his fellow townsmen.

May Sinclair's "The Romantic," is a poignant study of the psychology of a coward, bringing in the new subject of psychoanalysis.

Miss Lulu Bett in Zona Gale's novel of that name is the family drudge in her sister's home.

A marriage that turns out to be no marriage at all awakens her sense of independence and the story leaves her with happier days ahead. This book has been made into one of the most successful plays on the New York stage.

The novel that Eleanor H. Porter finished just before her death, "Sister Sus," is the story of the unselfish older sister who slaves for a selfish family, finally winning the happiness so much deserved.

Francis Brett Young in "The Tragical Bride," shows the same lovely qualities that mark his work as a poet. This is the pathetic story of Gabrielle Hewish, the last of a per-

CHAUTAUQUA ON JUNE 21 TO 27.

Ellison-White Company Will Put on Some of Best Features Ever Presented on Chautauqua Course.

That the Chautauqua program for the coming season holds much of interest for the lecture, music and entertainment lovers is indicated by the advance information from the Ellison-White Bureau. The dates for Blackfoot have been definitely set for June 21st to 27th.

The announcement that Peter Clark Macfarlane, the noted writer, is scheduled for a Chautauqua appearance this year is of particular interest. For many years Chautauqua managers have tried to lure Macfarlane to the platform, both because of his popularity as a writer and because of his well known platform ability. Senator Hiram Johnson rates him as one of the best public speakers in the country. His contributions to the Saturday Evening Post, Colliers, McClures, American, and practically all the leading periodicals have been widely read and appreciated.

Another figure of national, or rather international importance, scheduled for the coming assembly is Stefansson, the famous Arctic explorer. Stefansson was contracted for a Chautauqua tour last year but throat trouble developed and he was forced to cancel at the eleventh hour. Stefansson has been repeatedly packing the big auditoriums of the East at his lectures and his coming will undoubtedly be eagerly anticipated. He has a fact lecture packed with information as well as real interest.

Willie Collier's great success on Broadway, "Nothing but the Truth," is one of the feature attractions announced. This play is a screaming comedy and has often been rated as one of the best farces of the past decade. A big musical attraction of interest is scheduled in Leaurance's Little Symphony, an orchestra organized by the well known American composer, Thurlow Leaurance.

ATTEMPTED MURDER AT POCATELLO

Arthur Fay, state organizer for the American Legion, was stabbed in Pocatello last Friday, supposedly by an I. W. W., against which organization Mr. Fay has been launching attacks through the newspapers. Previous to the stabbing he had received an anonymous letter which said, "You leave town or we get you." He thought it was a joke, and paid no further attention to the matter until after the stabbing occurred Friday night, when he met a man in the dark, armed with a knife. The intended murderer got away, but the citizens of Pocatello are very indignant, as well as the good people of the entire state, and if he is caught it will no doubt go hard with him.

LEGION DRIVE IS PROGRESSING NICELY

Local Legion officers report that the drive for membership has so far resulted in doubling the membership of the Blackfoot post, and that it is expected to be doubled again in the near future. They state that there are a good number of ex-service men in this vicinity who have not responded to the call, and think their failure to do so is due to the fact that many of them are engaged on the farms and otherwise, and that in the course of a short time most of them will come in and enroll with their comrades.

WEDNESDAY'S GAMES

Wednesday afternoon at Rigby a base ball game of seven innings was played between the Rigby and Blackfoot teams, score 5 to 3 in favor of Blackfoot, game being declared finished at the end of the seventh inning on account of rain.

At the same time at Idaho Falls the team of that place and the Pocatello team played four innings, score 4 to 1 in favor of Pocatello, but this was declared no game.

Irish family, of her cold and calculating husband and of the beautiful youth, who, like Undine, finds a soul through love and sacrifice.

For those who like a good western story there is Vingle E. Roe's "Val of Paradise," with adventure a plenty and one of the wonderful horses she always provides.

Irving Bacheller's "Man For The Ages," gives a picture of Lincoln's youth and the pioneer days of the middle west. This is a most excellent story.

We are still in the market for your old rags. Highest market price paid.
