MORELAND NEWS.

The last of the week many of our home people spent the week-end shopping in Blackfoot. Sunday services on the 12th were devoted to Children's day in the Methodist church, and a program and feast was enjoyed by the children. L. R. Thomas and Mr. Parkinson were at the L. D. S. church as home missionaries on Sunday. There was a very large attendance. Dr. Beck was at the home of Chauncey Christensen on Sunday. His little boy is better. Dr. Davis was a welcome caller at the home of Ervin Christensen on the 14th. A fine girl was born to the Christensens that day. Mother and child are doing nicely. There was a merry crowd of young people attended the barn dance at Mr. Arvis' on Monday night. Bert Grimmitt spent last Sunday with his family. Mr. Augustine has got his car from the desert. He and his wife went fishing last week, and had to take the train home. There has been a number of drummers at the stores in this village this week. Hyrum Grimmitt and wife and children are spending a week in the hills at their summer ranch. William England and Mr. Wheeler are at their ranch in the hills, fencing. Claude Goings and family are at their ranch in the hills. He has his farm rented to Mr. Loy. There was a dance in the Moreland hall Friday evening. Only a small crowd was in attendance, as many of our young people went to Thomas. Miss Lola Grieves attended the dance at Thomas on Friday night, also Miss Parker. Mrs. Myrtle McKnight motored to Blackfoot on Saturday to attend a meeting of the Relief Society. Miss Edna McKnight went to Ogden on the morning train last Saturday, to visit her sister, Mrs. Ida McBride, and her brother, Ralph, at Brigham City. Mrs. Miller and children have moved from Blackfoot to their old home here. Word was received here by the grand children of Mrs. Lovice Richardson that she died at her old home in Harmony, Utah, at the home of her brother, Thomas Richardson.

They have the sympathy of their many friends. The many friends of Miss Lillie Beinap will be pleased to know that she is still in Salt Lake, and has employment in a bank, and she sends her best wishes and love to her many friends. Mrs. Merkley and many others were down from Wapello to see the boys play ball. It was a lively game and our boys won the honors. The Juniors played the Thomas team recently. Mr. and Mrs. Wilford Jordan and mother, have returned from their trip to Salt Lake, and report having had a splendid time. They motored down and back. George Ferrell spent Saturday at his home with his family, then he and his wife went to town with Ray Baxter. Mrs. Talbot returned to her home at Groveland on Saturday. She has been staying with her daughter, Mrs. Ervin Christensen. Her sister, Edith, is with her now. Ervin Christensen is home with his family for one day. He returned to the road on Monday. Mrs. Ernest Anderson, Andrew Benson and Lloyd Anderson are home from their trip to Salt Lake. Mrs. Deardorff was a caller at the home of Mrs. Mars Jacobsen on Wednesday. Many of our young people attended the Saturday night dance in Blackfoot.

Opening and closing hymns, "Onward Christian Soldiers," and "Parting Hymn." Mr. Von Ceder has bought and moved into the old Bunleigh home. Miss Delta Mangum entertained Miss Verda Chaffin and Mildred and Mary Samuelson Sunday.

LOWER PRESTO NEWS.

Gooseberry pie, Ya! Hu! Rhubarb too. Hupala! And strawberry short cake. Have you tried some from the home grown ones, the ones you have watched from the bloom to the red ripe, luscious berries, watched the tiny fuzzy berries begin to form, then grow larger and the seeds begin to show, the faint tinge of pink give way to the bright red of the ripe berry and then the fun of picking the first ones and last but not least the eating of that short cake that literally melts in your mouth? Can't be grown here? "Say, you all don't know what you is talking 'bout." And say, they beat those that are shipped in by a country mile. Radishes, turnips, beets, greens, lettuce and the peas growing fat on the vines; say, don't it fairly make your mouth water to think of all the good things to eat that the little old garden plot is handing out these days? Maybe it did take some of the men folks' time when they thought they ought to have been spending it on some of the other work but now that it is placed before them they sure pat themselves on the back that they took the time. The Carlsons attended the mid-summer picnic at the Simon Peterson place given by the Lutheran church of Firth. They report having had an enjoyable day besides making way with a goodly share of the good things to eat that were there in great abundance. The boys say that if anyone went away hungry it was their own fault as even a blind man might see. G. O. Jensen made a trip to the hills on Tuesday, returning Wednesday. Mrs. David Johnson, her daughter, Mrs. Mabel Call and Mrs. John Thompson and daughter, Hazel, were visitors at the W. E. Hall ranch on Thursday. David Gordon was a caller at the M. A. Jensen home on Thursday. Mrs. Fred Twitchell made a trip to Firth on Thursday, taking her daughter, Frieda, to the train. Miss Frieda is living with her grandmother, Mrs. Shannon at Blackfoot, and has been out for a short visit with her mother and father. Ethan Allen and Joseph Pratt of Wapello, passed through Presto on Wednesday on their way from the hills. Mr. Allen had been after a load of pine poles and Mr. Pratt a load of dry quaking aspen. M. A. Jensen and family were in Firth on Saturday and while there attended the picture show. On their way home they made a call at the Chris Petersen ranch. Adolph and Peter Bartauskay made a trip to the hills on Wednesday. Frank Just and family motored out from Blackfoot on Sunday to Presto where they visited with relatives. Miss Hazel Quigley who has been at the William Pratt home for some time, has begun work in one of the hospitals in Blackfoot. Mrs. Peter Fraile was a caller at the G. O. Jensen home on Friday. Frank Pratt made a business trip to Firth on Saturday. Fred Mackie was a Blackfoot visitor on Sunday. Miss Mabel Bennett has been spending the week in the hills with the W. E. Hall party, who are at Brush Creek. James and Mary Dunn of Wicks and Miss Castor of Blackfoot, have also joined the party. While most of the farmers are busy irrigating, things can usually be arranged so that at least one member of the family can be away from home. In this way many of the farmers are making trips to the hills after timber of one sort or another and from present indications the coal dealer is going to miss a good many of his erstwhile customers as the price of coal during the past winter was a good deal higher than most people thought there was any warrant for, so that the present wood hauling campaign is not only a means of lowering the cost of living but also a protest against the price charged for coal. Mrs. Clara Jensen returned from Blackfoot where she has been aiding her mother, Mrs. Jorgensen who had the misfortune to break her arm. Mrs. Jorgensen came out with Mrs. Jensen and will remain for some time while her arm is mending. Jack Jensen and his son, Virgil, were in Firth shopping Saturday. A few of the Presto people have started haying but most of them will wait until after the Fourth of July before getting into it in earnest. Miss Mary Pratt was a caller at the Peter Kalford home on Sunday. Willard McMillan and family were visitors at the W. E. Hall ranch on Sunday. Josie Kalford called on Mrs. G. O. Jensen Sunday evening. Mrs. Samuel Hargrave and son, Lewis of Inkom, spent the past week visiting with Mrs. Wm. Hall. They were called to Pocatello Saturday evening on account of the illness of Mrs. Hargrave's father. Frank Pratt made a call at the W.

E. Hall home Sunday morning. Peter Kalford was a visitor at the Peter Bartauskay ranch on Sunday. J. A. Vaughn was a business visitor at the Peter Bartauskay ranch on Saturday, water and headgates being the subject for discussion. Miss Agnes Petersen spent Tuesday and Wednesday at the Fay home. Mr. and Mrs. Ben Arvish, Misses Agnes Petersen, Edna Fay, Ardella Walton, Violet Raymond and Messrs. Harry Fay and Butch and Charlie Tressel attended the barn dance at the Wm. Arvish home Tuesday night. Harry Fay assisted Ben Arvish a couple of days. Mr. and Mrs. Earl Jewett have rented one of Harry Farnsworth's places for the summer. Leo Hughes is now at home after spending several months at American Falls, herding cattle. Miss Louise Mattingly has returned to Pocatello after a few days visit at the Charles Hughes home. Mr. and Mrs. Sam Kirk visited at the Ben Arvish and Joe Fay homes Friday. Miss Hazel Killion visited with Edna Fay Wednesday. Mrs. C. W. Kirk and children came up from Salt Lake Saturday to spend the summer. Mr. and Mrs. Ben Arvish were entertained at dinner at the Fay home Sunday. A few people from here attended the ball game at Groveland Saturday. The game was played between Groveland and Pingree, the score being ten to one in favor of Groveland. Robert Hughes visited at the Trego home Sunday. A few of the farmers are now ready to start haying, the hay being ready to cut earlier this season. Robert Greeg spent Sunday with Fred Poindexter at his ranch. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Farnsworth and Theo Farnsworth and Company returned from their outing Wednesday but say they had no luck at catching fish. Miss Hazel Killion and little sister, Lucile, were Moreland visitors Monday. Mrs. Hannah Roubidoux was a Centerville visitor Thursday, returning to Fort Hall that evening. Hazel and Emma Killion visited with Nellie Raymond Sunday.
