Emerson Yancey, Albert Hampton, Emery Barrus and Ray Benson have just returned from Jackson Lake, where they went fishing and had fine success. They brought home a large lot of speckled trout.

E. A. Grover from Thomas visited Mrs. Alice Yancey Monday.

Miss Veda Bowker is recovering from a serious illness.

Miss Norma Anderson who is at the Blackfoot hospital is improving in health every day. It will take some time to regain her normal condition on account of her case being such a serious one and because of her being so sick last winter.

Mrs. Flora A. Havens spent Tuesday with her daughter, Mrs. Claus Anderson.

The Groveland gymnasium opened Wednesday night for the winter, for the benefit of the basket ball players.

The Primary teachers surprised their members Wednesday afternoon by giving each a bag of peanuts. The peanuts were served by a Halloween ghost.

The usual pranks were played on Halloween night by the boys and girls, but nothing serious has been heard of.

Friday afternoon the lower grades gave a Halloween party at the gymnasium to which the whole school was invited.

The Groveland farmers have nearly all harvested their beets and have been rejoicing over this wonderful weather.

Mr. Fred Hammond was a Pingree visitor Thursday.

It was thought last week that little LaRue Lindsay had the mumps

PERSHING WELCOMES FOCH TO AMERICAN SHORES

Gay as a boy, Marshal Foch, Generalissimo of the Allied armies, sailed across the Atlantic to be greeted on American shores by our world-war hero, General Pershing. It was Marshal Foch's first long sea voyage. He comes as the guest of the American Legion, for the third national convention at Kansas City. He will also attend the armament conference at Washington. The picture was taken on the pier at New York.

Buy a pipe— and some P.A. Get the joy that's due you!

We print it right here that if you don't know the "feel" and the friendship of a joy'us jimmy pipe—GO GET ONE! And—get some Prince Albert and bang a howdy-do on the big smoke-gong!

For, Prince Albert's quality—flavor—coolness—fragrance—is in a class of its own! You never tasted such tobacco! Why—figure out what it alone means to your tongue and temper when we tell you that Prince Albert can't bite, can't parch! Our exclusive patented process fixes that!

Prince Albert is a revelation in a makin's cigarette! My, but how that delightful flavor makes a dent! And, how it does answer that hankering! Prince Albert rolls easy and stays put because it is crimped cut. And, say—oh, go on and get the papers or a pipe! Do it right now!

HAM OR BACON

Some folks consider that pork is not the very healthiest sort of food, and will call attention to the obvious faults of the hog when it comes to toilet and personal habits but in spite of these contentions a large part of the whole civilized world dotes on ham or bacon for breakfast.

There is no argument as to the nutrition to be found in a rasher of bacon or a slab of ham, especially if the weather is cold and the human furnace is in need of fuel. But the question—the proposition before us, is not as to the nutrition of bacon and ham, but as to what the dickens makes everybody hanker for it so fervently in the morning.

We all know that ham or bacon tastes fine—but so does beefsteak, oatmeal, bread and milk, lamb tongue or pemmican—when you're hungry.

Clearly, it is neither nutrition, nor the taste of ham or bacon that attracts us toward 'em before the breakfast hour.

It is the aroma!

It is the glorious invisible mist of gastronomic loveliness floating from the kitchen toward our boudoir; more tempting than the most voluptuous perfumes of Araby; more appetizing than the packers advertisements in the magazines, that makes it easy to spring out of bed with a whoop—and dress in ten seconds, including shave.

What is there more lovely than the tickle of eau de Bacon in the nostrils as the alarm clock breaks loose?

What spring time breeze blowing over blossoming wild plum trees can approach the glory of the altar of sizzling ham arising from the wife's culinary department?

Noses are god for two things—breakfast and hayfever—but more popularly the first.—World Herald.

Don't be deceived with cheap furnaces at low prices. Remember a furnace is not consumed in one year. Rudy cast is distributed over a lifetime of service; that is why Rudy Furnaces are cheaper in the long run. Have Nugent Metal Works give you an estimate.
