To THE GIFT GIVERS OF BLACKFOOT

The giving of gifts is a gift in itself. Most appropriate of gifts is that attuned to the hopes of the recipient and the sentiment of the giver.

A gift of jewelry in its enduring beauty keeps alive the memory of the giver and the giving. Its intrinsic value grows. Its exquisite charm is unchanging.

Your jeweler is an adept in gift selection. His nice discrimination insures generous value at modest cost. He will welcome the opportunity to aid you with your Christmas gift list.

IN A BAD WAY

Many a Blackfoot Reader Will Feel Grateful for This Information.

If your back gives out; Becomes lame, weak or aching; If urinary troubles set in; Perhaps your kidneys are "in a bad way."

Doan's Kidney Pills are for weak kidneys.

Local evidence proves their merit. Ask your neighbor.

Mrs. A. Watson, Blackfoot, says: "I had a good deal of trouble with my kidneys some months ago. They were congested and my bladder became inflamed. My back was lame and sharp pains darted across the small of it. I felt tired and languid most of the time. I began to look for a good kidney remedy. I heard of Doan's Kidney Pills and bought a box at Powers' Pharmacy. All the symptoms left and I believe the cure is lasting."

Price 60c. at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Watson had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y.—adv.

Jewel Father of Gold Standard.

The evolution of the Jewel was responsible for another and highly important custom—one which has become a vital and seemingly ineradicable feature of our present-day civilization. It was the adoption of gold as the standard medium of exchange. Gold not only filled the bill, but was conveniently carried, especially since the invention of the serpent ring and bangle.

Not Measured by Noise. "The smallest men often make the biggest noise," said Uncle Eben; "but de bass drum don't get near as much respect as de fiddle."—Washington Star.

Culture Alone Elevates Man. Man is born barbarous—he is ransomed from the condition of beasts only by being cultured.—Lamartine.

Embalmed Bodies as Medicine.

Six or seven hundred years ago our doctors held firmly to the belief that there was great medicinal value in ground mummies, and many a nasty dose given ailing youngsters contained a bit of the embalmed body of a man or woman who may have known Joseph, or seen the miracles of Moses.

Pineapple Leaves Valuable.

The leaves of the pineapple plant yield one of the finest of vegetable fibers, used in the Philippines for making pineapple cloth, a highly esteemed fabric for embroidery and other fancy work.

Venezuela's Torrid Climate.

Venezuela has the hottest climate in the western continent.
