

HOMELY PHILOSOPHY
for 1922

HERE'S the housing problem. Nothin' but high rents, high taxes an' cares, but why kick? Let's get back to the ways of our sturdy ancestors and live in the caves. Still, we've got to face all this marital discontent. Everybody gettin' married, gettin' divorced, gettin' married again, gettin' divorced again, an' the whole trouble could be stopped by nobody gettin' married at all. Then we've got the trouble with children—nothin' but care an' sacrifice—well, let the people decide not to have any children. Really, there isn't a confounded thing right with the whole world, so why not stop it? Can't be done? Boy, we're in a fix. Maybe we'd better not waste time grouchin'. Then we'll have this

Poem
by UNCLE JOHN

I wonder if the man's alive, that's got a perfect score, in pleasin' all the critics that his life is flashed before? It's true our dear Redeemer lived a short, though perfect span. . . . But critics pierced his lovin' heart, as brutal humans can. . . . This land or our'n has shed its blood, that peoples might be free. We seized our swords an' bayonets, an' said, "It's got to be!" We sent our dashing boys abroad, an' crushed the monster's might, and now, we hear the critics howl, "They never done it right!"

Facts is—a lot of Dervishes, in editorial guise, that spend their time promotin' all the politician's lies. . . . They occupy a velvet seat, an' shake their loaded dice—they'd criticize the angels, if the devil had for Uncle John.

Score One for Performer.

At a point during the course of an address before members of the Caravan club the other day, Representative William D. Upshaw of Georgia had occasion to be "reminded" of a certain vaudeville performer whose imitation of dogs comprised the chief feature of his act.

"On his way to the theater in the small town where he was appearing," said the congressman, "the actor was accosted by a youth who wanted to know if he wasn't the man down to the Palace theater who barked like a dog."

"Yes," replied the imitator, rather complimented on being recognized.

"Gee," laughed the boy, "I got ya beat when it comes to makin' noises like a dog."

"That may be true," snapped back the performer, "but, then, you must remember I had to learn it."—Exchange.

Spilled Diamonds.

Among the crown jewels of the Hapsburgs were two large diamonds of ruby tint which were always regarded as especially valuable and whenever the royal jewels were placed on exhibition these stones were under special guard. It was necessary some time ago to dispose of the jewels, and as they were being prepared for exhibition, prior to being offered for sale, they were put through a wash which unfortunately removed the color of the precious stones and left them perfectly white. Instead of demanding a fabulous price as ruby diamonds, they were sold simply as white stones.—Chicago Journal.

Neighbors.

One of the joys of having neighbors is that you can put in a lot of idle time borrowing things and taking 'em back.—Richmond Times-Dispatch.

REDUCED RATES SECURED FOR THE SEED SHOW

Boise, Idaho—The Oregon Short Line Railroad Company has granted a reduced rate of a fare and a third for the Idaho State Seed Show to be held at Burley, January 9-12, 1923, on the certificate plan, according to an announcement made by C. B. Ahlson, Secretary-Treasurer of the Seed Show. This means that 150 tickets sold to Burley will be necessary to secure this rate. Anyone attending the Show would buy a one way ticket to Burley and get a receipt for it. These receipts will be collected at the Show and providing the necessary 150 are procured, a one-third fare will be granted for the return trip.

Plans for the coming show are well under way. Entries are coming in daily from all parts of the State and there will be keen competition for the $1500 premium money to be awarded. There will be several additional features to this year's show. The model dairy and seed farms which attracted so much attention at the International Grain and Hay Show at Chicago recently are being returned for the Burley Show. Another addition to this year's event will be the demonstration hall where grain grading and treating, potato treating, corn selection, seeds and weeds, poultry and bull associations are other attractions which will be demonstrated every morning.

The best speakers obtainable have been secured for the afternoon and evening programs and there will be something to interest every type of farmer in the State. Tuesday, January 9, is Seed Day; Wednesday, January 10, is Potato Day; Thursday, January 11, is Poultry and Dairy Day and Friday, January 12, is Livestock Day. On Thursday afternoon and during the entire day Friday there will be a special program of interest to women.

With the carrying out of the plans there is no doubt but that this year's show will be the best in twelve years history of the Show. Let's all get behind this show and boost the Pure Seed Industry.

STOCK SHOW CLASSES STRONGER

"The strongest breeding classes of the beef herds ever seen in the West" is the way Harry Yungerman, manager of the National Western Stock show, sizes up the prospects for the seventeenth annual event. "The show this year will house in its spacious quarters entries in various departments from every state west of the Mississippi, and a number of the Eastern States," says Mr. Youngman.

Why That Lame Back?

That morning lameness—those sharp pains when bending or lifting, make work a burden and rest impossible. Don't be handicapped by a bad back—look to your kidneys. You will make no mistake by following this Blackfoot resident's example.

Mrs. Isaac Jensen, N. Shilling St., says: "Whenever I caught the least cold, it settled in my kidneys, and made me miserable all over. I could not stoop on account of knife-like pains in my back. The worst trouble was the too free action of my kidneys and headaches were bothersome, too. I heard so much of Doan's Kidney Pills, I made up my mind to try them. One box of Doan's from Powers' Pharmacy was all I needed and the trouble left. I am glad to recommend Doan's."

Price 60c at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills, the same that Mrs. Jensen had. Foster-Milburn Co. Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y.—Adv.
