

HOW TO SMELL SWEET.

Perfume a Good Thing If Not Used Too Liberally.

Use of the Various Subtle Agents—Why Each Woman Should Keep Her Particular Brand—Recipe for Treating Natural Flowers.

The refinements of the ancients varied in almost every way from those of a modern age, except, perhaps, in some of the uses pertaining to the toilet, and the Scriptures, as well as other records of ancient customs, bear testimony that baths and clean linen, perfumes and sweet odors, were regarded quite as much of a luxury then as now.

Opinions, says a writer in the Chicago Herald, differ about the use and abuse of sweet scents. Certainly there is an incongruity in their use by men, but a woman who leaves behind her a subtle sense of redolence carries always a double charm.

Their unconsciousness is pitiable, their vanity deplorable, for it would wound them too greatly to suggest a lessening of their indulgence, and they must be allowed to reek on. The olfactory nerves are capricious things, and the aroma which makes them dilate with pleasure at one time is quite disagreeable at another.

A gentleman who was particularly fond of the fragrance of the violet, both "au naturel" and artificial, used a delicate scent about his person and clothing in all possible ways, never permitting it to pass a faint, subtle point, grow to abhor it utterly because his negro butler had evidently the same propensity, which he gratified not only by indulging constantly in his master's essences, but in stronger and less carefully prepared extracts of his own.

Women generally have a habit of tucking little bags of sachet powder in their bureau drawers and pinning them in their dresses, but they are generally so indiscriminate in choosing the odors, sometimes buying hothouse, sometimes violet and again rose. There is much more refinement and daintiness of feeling, beside a quaint and certain sweet coyness in keeping always a perfume of one's own; it becomes then almost a part of one's own being.

Our grandmothers well knew the delight of stealing the perfume from the flowers, and their "still-room," where were all conveniences for this, was a part of the machinery of every home.

Notice of Forfeiture.

T. O. J. McCORMICK and P. H. WARD, their grantors, assigns, heirs, executors or administrators, and all parties claiming under them, hereby give notice that they have this day filed their application for a patent for fifteen hundred (1500) linear feet of the "Magnolia" mine or vein bearing silver, with surface ground six hundred (600) feet in width, situated in Highland Mining District, County of Lincoln and State of Nevada, and designated by the field notes and official plat on file in this office as Lot No. 37, located on unsurveyed lands. The exterior boundaries of said Lot No. 37 being as follows, to wit:

Beginning at a post marked No. 1, U. S. survey No. 37, whence the Mendha brick smoketack, marked U. S. mineral monument No. 1, bears S 89 1/2 deg E 242 feet. Thence southeasterly to about 75 feet high and 8 feet square at the base. The main shaft in this claim bears N 82 deg W 862 feet. The notice monument stands 8 feet north of the center of the shaft, thence running, 1st, E 89 1/2 deg W 1600 feet; 2d, to a post marked No. 2, U. S. survey No. 37; thence, 2d course, N 13 deg W 600 feet; to a post marked No. 3, U. S. survey No. 37; thence, 3d course, N 77 deg E 1800 feet; to a post marked No. 4, U. S. survey No. 37, and thence, 4th course, S 13 deg E 600 feet to post No. 1, the place of beginning; containing 20 66 1/3 acres. Posts Nos. 1 and 4 stand in the original location monuments. Posts Nos. 2 and 3 stand about 40 feet westerly of the original location monuments. Magnetic variation, 16 degrees east.

The location of this mine is recorded in the Recorder's office of Lincoln county, Nevada, in book of Mining Records. The claim is bounded on the east and west by extensions of this lode—name unknown—and on the north and south by no known claims. Any and all persons claiming adversely any portion of said Magnolia mine or surface ground are required to file their adverse claims with the Register of the United States Land Office at Eureka, in the State of Nevada, during the sixty days period of publication hereof, or they will be barred by virtue of the provisions of the statute.
