

Looking for More Money. The national Republican committee, through Chairman Thomas H. Carter, is sending out most urgent letters to the leaders of the party for funds to pay the deficiency in the national campaign fund. One of these letters to a southern member of the national committee was shown your correspondent. This letter was signed by Chairman Carter and stated that the national committee had a deficiency after the election of nearly $25,000. It stated that at the eleventh hour Republicans discovered that defeat was inevitable, and though the campaign committee had kept campaign expenses well within the limits of subscriptions thereto, it was found that subscribers who had pledged a half million dollars to the party refused to fulfill their obligations, and the result is that the committee is urgently pressed to meet debts with an empty treasury. He states that after carefully considering where to get the amount the committee has made an assessment on good party men of an amount sufficient to pay the deficit. The assessment of the man who received the letter was fixed at $1,000. He was asked to collect the money or forward it in five days by check or draft made payable to Duane, treasurer of the committee, at his address in New York.—Mobile Cor. Louisville Courier-Journal.

The Popularity of Astrology. It will surprise a large majority of readers to be told that astrology as a science is not only holding its own in England today, but has during the past ten years made such strides that it is felt by many that the "Rogues and Vagabonds" act, which prevents the casting of horoscopes for gain, will by this next parliament stand a chance of being repealed. A large number of regular professional astrologers live in London, and they one and all agree that the science has distinctly become more popular since 1888. Previous to that date they carried their horoscopic practice in fear and trembling, but there has been no reservation in an astrologer, qua astrologer, in England for four years now, the last being at Bow street, when "Neptune," an intuitive seer, was selected in five pounds for casting a horoscope; a barrister in court, who had never seen or heard of him before, springing up to defend him gratuitously on the sole ground that he himself was a believer and a practitioner of astrology. Six years ago there were no periodicals in England devoted to astrology. There are now three.—Edgar Lee in Arena.

Lord Rosebery's Ambitious Success. As a young man Lord Rosebery set out with a determination of making a mark in the history of his country, and hitherto everything that he has attempted has been attended by success. He has won the Derby, he has married the richest heiress in the United Kingdom, he has become a cabinet minister, he has just been created a Knight of the Garter, and if he avoids the royal union projected he will eventually blossom forth into prime minister of the empire. On the continent his talents are held in even still greater estimation than in England, especially at Paris and at Berlin, and he is a particular favorite of Prince Bismarck.—Chicago News-Record.

The Khan of Khiva in Europe. The Khan of Khiva, Lyed Mohammed Rahim, is now paying a visit to the courts of Europe. He has visited St. Petersburg and will visit Berlin, Vienna, London and Paris. The Khan is in his fifty-third year. He speaks several languages, including the Persian, Arabic and Russian, and his dress is that of a European, although his connections are those of an orthodox Mussulman. He travels in company with his molak or agent and his own cook, as he eats no food but that prepared according to the rites of his religion. The Khan's annual income is about $600,000. His court is quite modern in its rules and observances.—Milwaukee Sentinel.

Secured by 90,000 Swallows. The swallow nuisance continues with unabated vigor at the Naval academy, Annapolis. From 8,000 to 20,000 swallows gather every evening in the five or six maple trees in front of the superintendent's residence and make evening and morning hideous with their cries. All efforts to drive them away have failed, and a bell and gong are kept going at intervals to drive the pests from the two trees next the superintendent's house. Every year this disagreeable rendezvous is maintained by the swallows.—Baltimore Sun.

Transferring a Pension by Marriage. A peculiar marriage was celebrated at San Antonio Wednesday, C. J. Ennis, aged eighty-six years, an old Mexican war veteran, who was in a dying condition, was married to Elizabeth Bacaus, aged seventy-seven years. Ennis is in receipt of a monthly stipend of eight dollars from the government. In gratitude to the woman, who is now his wife and nursed him for the past two or three years he desired that the marriage take place, so that his dutiful nurse will receive his pension after his death.—Cor. New Orleans Times-Democrat.

Lovers Drowned Together. Miss Lois Burnett and Mr. George Kennicot, engaged to be married, fell through the ice while skating on a pond about three miles south of Nebraska City and were drowned. No one was with them. Their prolonged absence led to a search. The bodies were recovered. Miss Burnett was a graduate of the high school here. Kennicot was the son of a prosperous farmer.

An Enormous Buffalo. An enormous wild buffalo, which was shot in Montana about a year ago and is now on exhibition in a Buffalo store window, stands nearly 18 hands high, measures 9 feet 6 inches in length and weighed when shot about 3,000 pounds.

In a Shingle Mill at Gray's Harbor, Wash., recently the entire works were kept running all day on a single cedar stick, which made 158,500 shingles.

A San Francisco firm is about to commence the revival of whaling in the Antarctic ocean, which has not been carried on for many years.

Looking for Engagements. Just at this period of the year, when the pantomime season is rapidly approaching, actors and actresses, particularly those of the lighter schools, fly to the papers to secure engagements. The current number of the principal journal devoted to theatrical and music hall requirements contains vast numbers of advertisements, not only of this kind, but of every possible requisite for the stage, and some particulars of them may prove interesting.

There are 404 ladies, including both actresses proper and music hall stars, major and minor, who have vacant dates that require filling. In addition to these, thirty-three combinations of "sisters," eleven troops of lady gymnasts and trick bicyclists, three fat women, two lady champion rifle shots and a strong lady seek engagements. Even this does not complete the list. Twenty-four competent lady pianists want something to do, nine leading chorus ladies have where to sing, and four female instructors will be happy to teach dancing to aspiring disciples of Terpsichore. The male portion of the community is represented by 419 advertisements, including exponents of the legitimate drama and representatives of the music hall stage. To these must be added nine jugglers, fourteen tight rope walkers and aerial trapeze specialists, four strong men, a dozen circus clowns, six conjurers and a man monkey—whatever the latter may be. There are fifty-eight instrumentalists who desire positions in orchestras, and seven amateurs wish to go on the stage. Trios, families and troops are found in twenty-five instances.—London Tit-Bits.

The March of Mind. The two boys, eleven and thirteen years old, who snatched a woman's pocketbook at the postoffice, where she was writing a money order, and then led the policeman a merry chase by hallways and roofs, illustrate the march of mind. When the novelist of "Oliver Twist" sketched the youthful London criminal, with whom he was well acquainted, he makes him an expert pick-pocket. He appears as versatile and ready of wit in doubling and covering his trail, but nothing will be found in his performance that suggests the New World audacity. In its minor field it is of a piece with the dash that robs western banks and holds up railway trains. It is the revelation of a mental quality, and as such is worthy the meditation of the philosopher.—New York Evening Sun.

A Box Constrictor Among the Bananas. As a merchant on Louisiana avenue was unloading a wagon load of bananas a small box constrictor dropped from one of the bunches. There was a general stampede, during which the native of Central America calmly coiled itself and waited developments. In a few moments a large crowd had assembled at a safe distance and his snakehood was discussed at long range. The cold atmosphere, however, and the chilling atmosphere were not conducive to a great amount of hilarity on the part of the snake, and after a little while he tucked himself in a dozen bowknives, tied his head out of sight and went to sleep. It was a fatal mistake, for a moment later he was a prisoner, and now poses in coils as the chief attraction in a museum in Twelfth street.—Washington Star.

The sun and the sea up to date. The sun of the golden May morning was streaming through the branches of the trees that lined the walk, and the sweet spring air, just touched with a fading memory of frost, caused the blood to rush through the veins and rendered my Sunday morning walk pleasant and invigorating. I had just passed a stately church, from which the school children were emerging, some running and romping, some quiet and orderly and some clustered around their teachers. Ahead of me was a little group composed of a teacher and seven or eight scholars, among which was the regulation bad boy. The subject of their conversation was "Balaam and the Ass," evidently the school lesson for the day. The teacher, a sweet faced young lady, was busy answering the questions of the children. Finally one of the youngest placed himself in front of her, walking backward, and said: "Miss Anna, you said the ass spoke to Balaam. What did he say?" "Why I answered the teacher 'You don't know,'" answered the teacher. "Now, Jimmie," she said, turning to the bad boy, "you tell Frankie what the ass said to Balaam."

"He said 'Come off,'" answered Jimmie as he tripped one of his companions up. "Why, James," said the horrified instructor. "What do you mean? What makes you think he said 'Come off?'" "Cause," answered the hopeful as I passed the group, "he knowed dat Balaam was onto him."—Chicago News.

The Wisdom of Fools. Folly, in the abstract, has been denounced alike by Scripture and ancient heathen sages. "If I wish to look at a fool," says Seneca, "I have not far to look. I have only to look in a mirror." The Emperor Maximilian distinguished the dullest of his counselors by the title of the king of fools. Once when he addressed a prosy adviser by this title the gentleman neatly enough replied: "I wish with all my heart I were king of fools. I should have a glorious kingdom, and your imperial majesty would be among my subjects."—Youth's Companion.

Fighting a Shark. A Roche Harbor (Wash.) young woman recently had quite an experience with a large shark, which undertook to get a salmon from her hook while she was hauling her line in. By persistent efforts with an oar she succeeded in getting the best of him, but in diving he slashed the boat with his tail, nearly upsetting it.—Philadelphia Ledger.
