LOCAL INTELLIGENCE.

Hon. Geo. S. Sawyer is expected in from Cedar, Utah, this evening. Mrs. Wm. Lloyd and family, after a visit of several months with relatives at Beaver, Utah, returned Tuesday evening.

Jimmy Nesbitt bought the house and furniture of J. B. Wheeler on McCannan street, which has been up for sale for two weeks past.

Mrs. Mike Cohen left Monday for Eureka, Nev., called thither by the death of Jake Moritz, a brother-in-law. Mrs. Cohen may be absent some time.

W. H. Perry has taken a contract to carry the backboard mail from Eureka to Palisade, and leaves to-morrow, expecting to begin the service Monday next.

As the name indicates, Hall's Vegetable Sicilian Hair Renewer is a renewer of the hair, including its growth, health, youthful color, and beauty. It will please you.

When the news was received here announcing the assassination of Mayor Harrison of Chicago, general regret was expressed, and the universal remark was, "Why wasn't it Cleveland?"

We are indebted to Senator Stewart for a copy of his great speech on the "Independence of the Co-ordinate Departments of the Government," delivered in the Senate Sept. 25th and 26th.

Joseph Dupont and Mrs. Annie Stalker were married at the residence of Mrs. O. P. Sherwood here, on Friday evening last. The couple will make their home at Lake Valley, this county, or in Ely, White Pine county.

Abe Travis and wife of Taylor, White Pine Co., have been in town this week, visiting T. E. Edwards. Mr. Travis took a run down to the Ferguson country Monday and returned last evening favorably impressed with the camp.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla acts directly and promptly, purifying and enriching the blood, improving the appetite, strengthening the nerves, and invigorating the system. It is, therefore, in the truest sense, an alternative medicine. Every invalid should give it a trial.

JOHN SHIER, Proprietor. JOB PRINTING in all its branches, equal in style to any, done at this office.

While out riding at the new smelter grounds last Tuesday afternoon, Mrs. DeFreiz was thrown out of a buggy and sustained a number of severe bruises about the arms and shoulders. The horse she was driving took fright at something and ran away. The injuries sustained are not regarded as dangerous.

The District Court has been open during the past week, but no business of importance has come up for attention. This evening the motion for a new trial in the case of I. C. Stamp vs. D. L. Wertheimer & Co. will be decided and other matters closed, which will end the present sitting. The next sitting will probably not occur until April next.

of charge, but personal grievances will find no place in them.

President Cleveland has signed the bill restoring the escheated Mormon church property. The Journal says it is estimated that there are over one hundred cases of la grippe in Reno.

Justice of the Peace Reed, who is also interested in the Reed Mining Co. at Helene, is in town, on court business.

Mining Location Notices for sale at this office. An English lady cured herself of somnambulism, after trying every known remedy in vain, by sewing up her night dress at the bottom and at the sleeves.

R. Sadler, of the Nevada Stage and Transportation Co., came in from Eureka Saturday and left Monday, after arranging the mail route between here and Geyser, which has been in charge of a special carrier for the past month.

It is well to remember, for use in cases of illness where the burning thirst of the patient cannot be assuaged by cracked ice or water, that a teaspoonful of glycerine will afford prompt and comparatively long relief.

J. B. Wheeler and family left this morning bound for San Francisco, Cal. Mr. Wheeler will join C. E. Goodrich there in manufacturing the G-O automatic ventilating window shade. Joe's invention is well thought of hereabouts and many are anxious to begin using the new device.

Northern—"How is it that there are no blacks among your prisoners? Are they less criminal than the whites?" Southern penitentiary warden—"Well, no. You see, we generally lynch the niggers."—Ex.

A. W. Geer of Pahranagat is said to have found wire gold, and plenty of it, in a claim on which he has recently begun work, situated a half mile northeast of the Little Emma. It is interesting from the fact that it shows the gold bearing zone of Ferguson district to be very much larger than heretofore understood.

Office Boy (to the editor)—"There's a man outside who says he hasn't a mouthful to eat in six days." Editor—"Bring him in; if he can just tell us how he keeps up on it, we can run the paper one week longer."—Atlanta Constitution.

It is reasonable to suppose that as Ayer's Sarsaparilla has benefited others it will benefit you. No other medicine is so effective in producing a radical change in the blood and imparting renewed life and energy to the whole system, both nervous and physical.

Russ Allen, who has suffered from a sore throat for some time, was pronounced a victim of diphtheria by Dr. Bjornson on Monday. Steps were at once taken to keep the disease from entering the school if possible, and it is understood that should the disease become at all prevalent here this winter, vigorous measures will be taken to exclude from the schools all who are at all to come in contact with it. This is a much better course than to close the schools entirely, as was done two years ago. Allen in the meantime is improving.

N. Dupont's Death. The telegraphic news of last Thursday concerning the death at Walla Walla, Wash., of N. Dupont, was confirmed by letter during the week. The unfortunate man was sleeping in an office partitioned off in a warehouse in which was stored a large quantity of wheat. The warehouse was regarded as perfectly safe, but had settled considerably during recent rains. Shortly after midnight a pile of grain fell, and striking against the office partition, crushed it in, a plank striking Mr. Dupont on the head, causing instant death. The accident occurred on the night of October 25th. Deceased was a native of Canada and aged 38 years. He was engaged here in the stock business and was a hard working, honest man, well thought of by all who knew him. His bereaved family have the sympathy of the community in their affliction.

The Mines of Southern Lincoln. The Mohave Miner contains the following items about the mines in the southern portion of our county: The ten stamp mill, recently erected in Yellow Pine district, to work the Key-stone ore, has been pounding away for some weeks. Returns from the first batch of bullion was received by the Needles National Bank Thursday from the Denver mint. The bullion was nearly 1000 fine. The Keystone is said to be a valuable property and is owned by I. E. Blake and S. T. Godbe.

Lead mines in and around Good Springs are starting up and some have already commenced to ship ore to Colorado over the Nevada Southern road. There is said to be more lead in and around Good Springs than can be found in any other camp in the west. The ore is low in silver but runs well in lead. With the advent of the new road the mines will become valuable.

All damage done by the big flood at El Dorado Canyon has been repaired and now the mill of the Southwestern mining company is pounding away on good ore. The Canyon has been one of the best producing camps on the Pacific Coast and will undoubtedly be producing bullion when more recent camps have passed in their checks.

A. G. Campbell, one of the best known mining men in Utah, is having a five-stamp mill shipped from Milford, Utah, to Vanderbilt, where it will be erected to work ores from some of his valuable gold properties.

HICO HAPPENINGS.

Hiko, Nevada, Oct. 25, 1893. U. R. A. Brick has returned from his mines at Helene and is now breaking some young horses.

Mrs. John Castle is visiting her parents in Salt Lake City. Her daughter Mollie accompanies her. John E. Ferguson and wife are in Salt Lake City. They are expected home soon.

Joseph Sharp and wife have been sojourning at the county seat several months. We are looking for their return with the little baby girl.

Mr. Richards made a flying trip to Pioche last week to see his wife and daughter and granddaughter, the new arrival, little Miss Mary Sharp.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Geer are at their home. They are always busy, very industrious, good neighbors. The party or parties who cracked Mr. Geer's safe would meet a warm reception had it not been done in so cowardly a way. The hangman's knot is fastening firmer and firmer around the necks of the culprits interested in the deed. The chain of evidence is very strong. There may be a surprise for Lincoln county ere long.

Mrs. Gordon returned from Meadow Valley recently. She has been visiting her parents for a week or more.

Mrs. Webber has spent a month visiting friends in the valley. Pahranagat Valley will have about two carloads of apples for sale this season. It should be borne in mind that Southern Nevada is the banner county for choice apples.

Mrs. Emeline Ferguson is at her home in Hiko, busily engaged preparing fruit for the winter.

Will someone take the pains to get a good assortment of Southern Nevada's choicest fruit to the San Francisco Mid-winter Fair? That's a very important matter. I will donate my part of the expense, whatever it may be. Southern Nevada has as good apples as any State in the Union, if not in the world, considering size, flavor, beauty, etc.

The Sharp sisters still retain their maiden name. We have come to the conclusion that no argument sufficiently strong can induce them to change their present tactics.

Mr. Steras, the postmaster of many years standing, is always found at his post of duty in Hiko. Duke and Will Ferguson are hauling their crop of hay to Helene, where they find a ready market for it. They have charged Stera's ranch, a portion of which embraces the Stern Lake, which is a living mass of fish of immense size. Some have been caught fully two feet long.

Mr. Morketson, formerly of Bennett Springs fame, came in town with a load of supplies for his mining enterprises near Tom Pahute, just west of here. He will remain with us for a few days awaiting the pleasure of his party, Jack Baxter. Dave Service is doing his assessment work on some mines on Irish Mountain.

The stockmen of the valley contemplate a round-up in a few days. The valley cattle are quite fat, and as there are many hundred head on the valley range, we contemplate a jolly time for the boys and a hard time for the calves.

Wm. Colburn has been quite sick with malaria fever, but is able to be up once more and expects soon to be able to attend to business. CHAS. LITTLE.

THE BRIGHAM YOUNG ACADEMY. PROVO CITY, Utah, Oct. 25, 1893. EDITOR PIOCHE RECORD.—Thinking that a few items from the Brigham Young Academy might interest your readers, I take the privilege of sending the following:

This institution has been organized eighteen years. Besides all the grades from the kindergarten up to the academy, it has a Normal Training School and Commercial College, also an exquisite Art Department, where the students are doing excellent work.

Through courses are offered in music, physical culture, military drill, mechanism and chemistry. Two papers are published by the school; one "The Business Journal," by the students of the Commercial College, and "The Normal," by the Normal Association. Both have a wide circulation and are doing a good work in behalf of the Academy.

The principal, B. Cluff, jr., is a graduate of the Michigan University. The Academy celebrated the eighteenth anniversary of its birth October 16th by forming a parade, which consisted of the teachers and students, arranged according to the grades, the kindergarten leading. The procession extended about four blocks and marched to music down J street to the bank corner, from there down Center street as far as the "Old Ruins," where, at the signal of a gun, three cheers were given, and the parade counter-marched up Center and down J street to temporary quarters, where a salute and cheers were again given. The procession then marched back to the Academy, where a pleasing and appropriate programme was carried out, consisting of an oration, music, sentiments and toasts. In the evening a grand ball was given in the Opera House.

Our esteemed principal, Prof. Cluff, has just finished his visit at the World's Fair and is now at Ann Arbor. He is determined that our academy shall have the benefit of every educational improvement possible. He will return in time for the commencement of the next semester. During the absence of the principal, Prof. G. H. Brimhall and J. B. Keeler will act in his place. This institution furnishes all necessary advantages for those desiring an education. PANACA.

Last night was the coldest of the season, the thermometer being down to 30.

Special Dispatches to The Record. NEW YORK, Nov. 2.—Silver, 68; Copper, $9.75; Lead, $3.30.

SALT LAKE, Oct. 31.—A private dispatch from Washington last evening states that at 7:20 last night, by a vote of forty-three to thirty-two, the Senate, after one of the most remarkable parliamentary battles of the generation, passed the bill unconditionally repealing the purchasing clause of the Sherman silver law. The end was reached at the conclusion of a continuous session of fourteen days, after sixty-one days of debate, during which five volumes of the Congressional Record had been filled with speeches amounting in the aggregate to about 200,000 words.

A private special gives the following particulars of the passage of the repeal bill. Before eleven o'clock the galleries were blocked with people and a number of foreign representatives looked down from the diplomatic galleries. The scene on the floor was impressive. Nearly every seat was occupied, a hundred representatives from the lower House were lounging against the walls. The Senate and galleries seemed awe-stricken, everyone seemed to feel deeply that the result of this great parliamentary struggle was fought with momentous importance to the country.

Voorhees announced Saturday that he would call for a final vote on the repeal bill at 2 p. m. yesterday, but as it was known that the bill was still open to amendment, there was much speculation as to what propositions might be launched at the last moment by the silver men, who had nothing to lose and everything to gain by opposing the repeal force.

The opening indications were not promising for a vote as early as Voorhees had anticipated. Several western Senators had expressed a desire to speak and so the time to be consumed by each was rather indefinite, the final vote seemed more likely to be delayed till four or five o'clock yesterday afternoon.

There was a manifest determination on the part of the repeal men to force the vote as soon as possible without violating Senatorial courtesy. The closing words of Senator Jones' great speech, delivered at a quarter to seven Saturday evening, were: "We may be few in number; I doubt it, however. But we propose to go before the American people, men, women and children, and challenge the action of the Senate in to-day's business." Senator Jones closed his masterly effort with a solemnity of utterance and impressiveness of manner befitting the occasion.

Senators Vest and Cockrell spoke for the Southern silver Democrats. Senator Dubois made a brilliant speech for the far West.

NEW YORK, Oct. 31.—Yesterday afternoon a crazy man, said to be Thomas Bradley, shot and probably fatally wounded Frederick Matthias, Superintendent of Construction of the new Postal Telegraph building on Broadway. Bradley claimed that Matthias was trying to murder him for stealing $5,000. He was looked up in the City Hall Police Station.

CHICAGO, Nov. 1.—The World's Fair is still open, but the attendance is greatly diminished and the exhibitors are preparing to leave.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 1.—A cablegram from Rio de Janeiro yesterday states that the Brazilian rebel war ship Republic rammed a Government transport loaded with troops and 500 of them were drowned.

The conference committee of the House and Senate have agreed upon the bill to suspend for one year assessment work upon all mining claims.

Under the House rules, the repeal bill, which was not received from the Senate until yesterday, could not be called up until to-day. The repealers may meet with some difficulty in rushing the measure through. The silver men in the House will insist that the repeal bill be put through by force and without any agreement on their part as to when the debate shall end, or anything else. They say they mean to be forced into submission. If filibustering is attempted, a cloture rule will be adopted and the vote taken this afternoon. The friends of silver will die in the last ditch.

LONDON, Nov. 1.—It is now stated that 100 Spaniards were killed, 300 wounded and 100 captured in the battle before Melilla last Saturday.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 2.—The repeal bill was rushed through the House yesterday and passed by a vote of 193 to 94. It was immediately sent to the President, who signed it, and silver purchases have therefore ceased.

The scenes in the House attending the passage of the measure were not of more than usual interest. There was an abortive attempt at filibustering, which failed because a sufficient number of Representatives refused to vote for the calling of the yeas and nays.

Ex-Speaker Reed in his remarks again warned Congress that the Sherman law was not the cause of the present depression, and that a hard winter was before the country, largely due to the appearance of Democratic legislation and tariff reform.

The Treasury Department yesterday declined the last offers of silver under the Sherman act on the ground that the price asked, 70 cents, was too high. The Senate occupied the time yesterday in discussing the Chinese exclusion act.

WEIGHING THE BARY.

There were Papa Grove and his mother-in-law, And Doctor Bryant and Mistress C., And little Miss Ruth and the nurse maid, And Thurston, the private secretary.

Then says Grove, "Let each one guess the weight." And Thurston'll mark it on the slate, So they give an empty champagne basket And put a feather pillow in it.

Then the Doctor fastened suspender strings, It didn't take him half a minute, And they tucked the baby snugly in. Then Grove shouted, "I beat 'em all win."

And then the Doctor announced the weight, Which exactly agreed with his estimate.

Nine pounds and a half, just to a T, If any one doubts, come here and see. So the Doctor won, as of course he ought. Grove's guess was nine and a quarter.

Next day "The Washington Morning Post" Reported the scene, a column almost, And people who read the whole proceeding Condemned the matter as vulgar brooding.

That night some wag, with wit well stored, Constructed a handsome Bulletin Board, And painted thereon, "WAZZED, A BOY!" "Inquires within for its reason why."

And he called it up on the White House gate, Where it hung next morning till half-past 8; And Washington people, when they awoke, Declared the act a capital joke.

MORAL—FROM BURNS. "Oh wait the power some giftie gie us To see ourselves as others see us, It wad frae mony a blunder free us."

Moapa, Nevada, Oct. 15, 1893. THE MAYOR OF CHICAGO ARRIVES. Carter H. Harrison, Mayor of Chicago, was shot and fatally wounded at his residence Saturday evening by a man named Prendegast, a newspaper carrier, supposed to be insane. He gave as his only reason that Mayor Harrison had promised to appoint him Corporation Counsel, and failed. Mr. Harrison lived about twenty minutes after being shot. The tragedy has startled the whole country. The funeral took place yesterday. Owing to the death of the Mayor the elaborate programme of closing exercises at the World's Fair was not carried out. Mr. Harrison was elected five times Mayor of Chicago, and was probably the most popular man in public life in the city.

Republican Senate vs. Arraigned. In the debate on the repeal bill Friday, Senator Teller spoke with great bitterness of the desertion of the cause of silver by the Republican Senators. "To me this is the most terrible moment of my legislative life," said Teller with much feeling. "To me it brings more fear than any other since I entered public life. I fear we are entering a financial system from which there is absolutely no escape. I know there will be no favorable legislation for silver until the American people are heard from at the ballot box, and heard from in a way that will compel attention to their desires."

Here Teller's voice choked and tears came to his eyes. He spoke most impressively and was accorded the undivided attention of every Senator and the large audience in the galleries. "I cannot contemplate this condition of things without absolute terror. It strikes to my very soul, and I want to enter this as a warning to the American people that if they do not resist they will enter upon a system of industrial slavery that will be the worst known to the human race."
