Arbor Day Proclamation. STATE OF NEVADA, EXECUTIVE CHAMBER.

For the past seven years the beautiful custom of holding an annual spring festival for the planting of trees both useful and ornamental, has been observed. This holiday is set apart in accordance with our Statutes and in conformity with the sentiment of the people. Therefore, I do hereby designate and appoint Friday, April 20, 1894, as Arbor Day.

I earnestly advise that the day be observed with the spirit and wisdom that the framers of the law contemplated. Let our people manifest an increasing interest and lend willing hands to aid in adorning and beautifying all public parks and places, the roadways and the grounds around the home, thereby enabling transmission to our children of an heritage garnered by our efforts. Especially urge that they be regarded in our schools with appropriate ceremonies and instruction fitting the character and purposes of the occasion.

Nothing in this proclamation shall be so construed as to make the day a legal holiday so far as courts and civil contracts are concerned.

Given under my hand and the Great Seal of the State at the city of Carson, this 10th day of March, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-four, and the Independence of the United States of America, the one hundredth and sixtieth.

ROSWELL K. COLCORD, By the Governor. O. H. GREY, Secretary of State.

Flagstaff Assessment. The first meeting of the Board of Trustees of the Flagstaff Mining Company was held last Saturday, at which an assessment of one cent per share was levied on the capital stock of the company. This will furnish funds to continue present work on the claim for several months by which time the property will no doubt be self supporting, and more so.

At the mine work progresses nicely. The north drift or crosscut, now in about 130 feet, is expected to cut the Apex vein this week. This vein has by far the best outcrop of those on the claim, and much is expected when it is properly opened up. As soon as the Apex vein is reached, the lasses will begin stopping ore on the Ross vein, the first one reached, where there is a good showing, and ore shipments are looked for shortly thereafter.

Timothy Henry Sullivan, known more commonly by the name of Humphrey, died in his cabin on lower Main street. He was a man well known in this vicinity for years, and has for the last few years been prospecting in Highland district. The deceased was sixty-seven years of age. The body was buried at 3 p. m.

Politeness in offering a seat is not necessary in public conveyances in London and Paris, as the laws of both cities forbid passengers to stand.

The following story was told about an Irishman who was out of work and made the following comparison: "Abe Lincoln and Grover Cleveland are the greatest men that ever breathed. A bystander admitted the greatness of Mr. Lincoln but wanted to know what Cleveland ever did to be classed with Lincoln. "Be jabers," said the Irishman, "Lincoln freed all the niggers and Cleveland has freed all the workmen—I haven't had a day's work since he was elected."

The House Judiciary Committee will almost certainly make a favorable report on the bill introduced by Representative Barthold, of Mo., making Lincoln's birthday a legal holiday, although the point has been raised that Congress cannot do more than recommend to the states that it be so observed. Mr. Barthold, however, thinks Congress has full authority to declare the day a legal holiday and will endeavor to get his bill through.

Some newspaper men are terrible liars. One of them writes about a cyclone, saying that it turned a well worn end up in the State of Mississippi, turned a cellar upside down in Wisconsin, moved a township line in Nebraska, blew all the staves out of a whiskey barrel in Iowa and left nothing but the hunchbone, changed the day of the week in Ohio, killed an honest Indian agent in the West, blew the hair off of a bald headed man in Texas, killed a truthful lawyer in Illinois, blew the mortgage off a farm in Kansas, scoured a red haired woman in Michigan, blew all the cracks out of a fence in Dakota, and took all of the wind out of a politician in Missouri.

There is no city in the United States which might be called the city of churches with more appropriateness than Washington. They are not particularly large or imposing, these Washington churches, but there are an immense number of them. As a matter of fact, the capital contains nearly 200 churches—most of these belonging to the Methodist denomination, with claims fifty-two. The Baptists come next with forty-five, then the Episcopalians with twenty-six, and the Presbyterians with twenty-one. The Roman Catholics have thirteen, the Lutherans ten, the Congregationalists four, the Hebrews and the Christians two each, and the Universalists and the Swedenborgians one each. Besides these there are half a dozen non-sectarian bodies.
