

LOCAL AND OTHERWISE.

Read the tax notice under the head of New-to-day.

Hon. J. J. Manning was in town Wednesday, visiting his constituents.

The fruit crop has about terminated, and very little is now coming to market.

An attempt was made yesterday to get up a horse race but it turned out to be a fizzle.

These are hard times, but they are not as hard as the heads of those who will vote to continue them.

The town is particularly free from sickness and the doctors are indulging in a profligate vacation.

Let reason and not prejudice, influence you on the day of election and you will make no mistake.

The Nesbitt Bros. store is undergoing a thorough renovation and presents quite an attractive appearance.

Mrs. McFadden has recovered from her recent illness and her familiar countenance is once more to be seen among friends.

Silver mining at Frisco, Utah, appears to hold its own. About 100 miners are employed in and around the Horn Silver mine.

Tuesday next will close the silver and the defeated candidates will have an opportunity of considering the mutability of human affairs.

Jack Smith of Panaca, who recently broke his leg is recovering rapidly. The splints have been removed and he will soon be around again.

DEED.—In Panaca, October 30, 1894, Mrs. George Carlow. Mrs. Carlow has been an invalid for several years past and her death was hardly unexpected.

Judge Goodwin may be able to convert Mormons into Gentiles, but he can never convert Silver men into Republicans with such argument as he used last evening.—Silver State.

The appearance of heavy frost every morning for the past week is a warning that winter is approaching, and it behooves our citizens to see that their wood pile does not lack quantity.

Hon. J. Postage, the Republican for District Judge of the fourth district, arrived here last Saturday, to look after his interest of Judgship in Lincoln county. He will remain here until after election.

H. E. Freudenthal and T. J. Osborne, Silver Party nominees respectively for the offices of Sheriff and Assessor, and District Attorney returned yesterday evening from a tour of the southern part of the county.

W. S. Goobe was suddenly taken with an attack of lamboago at Bullionville last Saturday. Dr. Johnson of DeLamar was summoned to attend him and at last accounts Mr. Goobe had greatly improved.

Surprise parties seem to be the order of the day. One was given last Monday night at the residence of John Roeder. A good crowd was in attendance and a sumptuous repast was served after which all retired having spent a very enjoyable evening.

Let us make sure of a safe, stable, trustworthy administration of State affairs during the next two years by electing a Silver Party ticket, and then we can all work together with courage and confidence to accomplish all other purposes designed to benefit the State.

A surprise party was given at the residence of Geo. H. Williams last Thursday evening. The attendance was composed principally of county candidates irrespective of party. The various sides of the political question were fully discussed. A very fine dinner was served by E. W. Dickle the Pioche caterer, and altogether an enjoyable evening was spent.

Bunkerville will put 30,000 pounds of cotton into the Washington county mills this fall. The gin at Bunkerville is now at work cleaning and baling the cotton for market. This valuable product is receiving more attention each year and will very shortly be raised in quantity in the Muddy Valley also, where experiments have demonstrated the soil and climate to be particularly adapted to it.

T. J. Osborne, candidate on the Silver Party ticket for District Attorney, addressed the voters of Bunkerville precinct last Wednesday evening. Every voter in the precinct was present and listened with interest to the presentation of the facts given. The voters of this precinct have obtained a good acquaintance this year with the several candidates and individual action will be the result. The Silver Party stands exceptionally well in this section of our county and a good vote for its representatives may be looked for.

Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder World's Fair Highest Medal and Diploma.

Emma McIntyre, a Virginia problem, took three grains of strychnine. She may recover.—Chronicle.

Eureka had a blaze last week which destroyed two dwelling houses. The origin of the fire is a mystery.

A firm of shoemakers announces in its advertisement: "Our dancing slippers for young ladies are simply immense."

An "inch of rain" means a gallon of water spread over a surface of nearly two square feet or a fall of about 100 tons upon an acre.

Hon. G. S. Sawyer, C. H. Patchen and others leave to-morrow morning for DeLamar and Panaca to hold a grand rally at each place in behalf of the People's Party.

As the time draws near for election our local candidates are becoming unusually active and do not allow the grass to grow beneath their feet in visiting their constituents.

The hand and iron cars for the Sierra Valley Railroad have arrived. The company expects to have the road running from Chat to Beckwith in another month.—Reno Gazette.

So heavy were the recent rains in Florida that it is said that the ocean's surface, fifteen miles off the mouth of St. Johns river, was absolutely fresh water, without the slightest taste of brine.—Ex.

The Silver Party nominees will address the citizens of Panaca on Friday the 2nd, Pioche, Saturday 3rd, and DeLamar, Monday 5th. T. J. Osborne, J. A. Denton and others will speak on the issues of the day.

The Virginia Enterprise, whose English is enough to make Lindlay Murray turn over in his grave, is now indulging in way of variety in Latin, and speaks of the "ignatus fatans" which somebody, probably Bartine, is chasing.

The business men of the country are awaiting the 6th of November with impatience, because they believe on that day the people will speak out so emphatically against the free-trade program that the Democrats will abandon all ideas of further interfering with the tariff.

Altogether Francis G. Newlands did not smell powder in the late unpleasantness between the North and South, as did his opponent, Mr. Bartine, he has done more for the old soldiers during his two-year's service, in the way of pensions, than Bartine did during his two terms. All G. A. R. men should remember this.—Silver State

Henry R. Campbell, a native of Maine, 65 years of age, hung himself recently at the County hospital with a rope which he had tied to a ladder that set against the outside of the building. Five months ago he came here from Nye county for treatment of cancer of his right hand. The cause of the rash act is supposed to have arisen from despondency, consequent upon the loss of his hand and the infirmities of old age.—Eureka Sentinel.

John E. Jones, the Silver Party nominee for Governor, like thousands of old timers, delved in the mines with pick and drill. Having a liberal education he subsequently engaged in other pursuits and was elected Surveyor General by a large majority. Preferring principles and the welfare of the State to political preferment, he joined the Silver Party at the time of its organization and declared for free coinage in the goldbug infested capital of the State. He is free from suspicion of dishonesty and corruption, and fills the office to which he was elected creditably and satisfactorily.

An Eastern preacher gives the following account of a test to which he submitted one of his boys:

I said the other day: "Wife that boy has reached a period where we ought to find out what he is going to be." So we got up an original experiment. We put him in the parlor with a bible, an apple and one dollar and I said: "Wife, we will go and leave him. If when we get back, he is pouring over that bible he will follow my profession, and we will make a minister of him. If he is examining that apple and has got the dollar in his pocket, we will make a lawyer or a banker out of him." When we came back that boy was sitting on the bible, eating the apple out of one hand, holding the dollar tight in the other, and I said: "Wife, that boy is a hog; we will make a politician out of him."
