Letters have been written to our representatives and the Government asking that it be changed back to the former schedule, and it is most earnestly hoped that the request will be granted.

The entertainment by the A. O. U. W. on last Thursday night was well attended and those participating in the exercises met with well deserved applause. Each and every piece was well rendered and although it occupied over two hours, it was time most pleasantly spent by those who attended. The members of the A. O. U. W. and also those who assisted are to be commended for the interest that is being taken in these entertainments, as it is a diversion these times that is most eagerly looked for and apart from it being most entertaining, it is as well instructive. We hope to see the entertainments more often in the future.

Our representative Denton was unmercifully scored through the columns of the Reno Gazette, by one who signed herself Mrs. Equality, over his speech in the Assembly on the Woman Suffrage. He'll get another scoring of a different kind when he gets home. We wouldn't be in his shoes, after the stand he has taken on the question for the whole State.

A small boy got up to read a composition on "The Tree." He got as far as: "This subject has many branches," when the teacher said: "Stop! You have not made your bough yet." "If you interrupt me again," said the boy, "I'll leave." "You give me any more of your impudence, and I'll take the sap out of you. Do you understand?" said the teacher. "I twig," said the boy, and then the regular order of business proceeded.

At Minersville Utah, on the 10th inst. "Dodd" Burk fatally stabbed Wm. Gressman, inflicting five distinct cuts in Gressman's body. The cause of the killing was family troubles which have existed for the past two years between Gressman and his brother-in-law Burk. Burk committed suicide immediately after the killing by borrowing a rifle and blowing his head nearly off. Mr. Gressman lived here three years ago and was well liked by all who knew him.

The ten stamp mill at Sterling District has been completed and will be in full blast the end of the week. Development work of considerable extent has been done on the mine and has resulted in opening up a large vein of high grade gold quartz. A petition is being circulated to establish a semi-weekly mail route from DeLamar to the above mentioned district via Hiko. The outlook for Sterling District at this time is very favorable, and we wish the company now operating there, the best of success.

A petition should be circulated among the citizens of DeLamar and sent to our representatives in Carson to have a bill introduced for an appropriation for the purpose of building a jail here. It is to be hoped that the citizens will not delay in this matter as time is precious. That we need a jail is very evident. There is no question about the future of our town and every thoughtful citizen should consider this proposition. —Lode.

A terrible accident occurred at the Flagstaff mine last Saturday night in which Peter Greggerson was badly injured. Greggerson was working in a raise and had touched off several blasts, but before reaching the level below, the shots went off, knocking him off the timbers to the level, breaking his right leg in two places between the knee and ankle, and badly cutting his head and shoulders. Dr. Bjornson was summoned and immediately responded and done all he could to alleviate the pain of the sufferer. The Doctor informed us that, although badly hurt, there is nothing dangerous. Greggerson is one of the lessees of the mine. Carelessness in not using fuse long enough, is said to have been the cause of the accident. —Lode.

OUR WASHINGTON LETTER.

Washington, February 14, 1895.

It has been hinted more than once during the present session of Congress that President Cleveland did not want any financial legislation, unless it met his own ideas entirely. Now it isn't hinted, it is plainly spoken that he does not. Since the sending of his special message to Congress, announcing that he had negotiated the sale of $92,400,000 in thirty-year 4 per cent bonds, at a price making the interest 3 and 1/2 per cent and giving Congress the option of authorizing within ten days an issue of 3 per cent gold bonds, which he says the purchasers will take in preference to the 3 and 1/2 per cent coin bonds, there has not been the slightest doubt about his position. He wants gold bonds and nothing else. All talk about the President meeting the Silver men half way in some compromise measure is now ended and the issue squarely made, gold bonds or nothing. It will be nothing, notwithstanding Mr. Cleveland's statement that gold bonds would save the government $16,000,000 in the interest on these thirty-year bonds, no gold bond bill can possibly become a law. The silver men do not regard this as a question of interest, but of principle, involving values besides which $16,000,000 would be a mere bagatelle, and as they absolutely control the Senate, they will kill any gold bond bill, even if the House does not, and besides, they may do some plain talking about the President selling bonds to a private foreign syndicate which bear 3 and 1/2 per cent interest when he could easily have sold a 3 per cent bond at home, thus, as they claim, wasting $16,000,000.

The impossible task of getting a thirty-year 3 per cent gold bond through the House has been assigned to Mr. Wilson, chairman of the Ways and Means committee and he discovered as soon as he called the committee together, if he did not know it before, that it would be no small task to even get such a bill reported to the House. The Republicans and Populists all oppose it and more than half of the Democrats.

Few people knew, until the Senate declined to receive the petition asking for legislation looking towards international arbitration, which was signed by 336 members of the British Parliament and brought to Washington by one of them, Mr. Cremer, that there was a rule against receiving petitions from aliens, except through the minister or other official representative of the country in which the signers reside, and then it must be presented to the Secretary of the State and not directly to Congress. It can readily be seen that it is a good rule too.

Of far more direct interest to the people of the United States than the Nicaragua Canal scheme proposed in a Senate amendment to the Sundry Civil appropriation bill. This amendment authorizes the President to appoint a commission of three persons to confer with a like commission to be named by Great Britain and Canada on the feasibility of building such canals as will enable vessels engaged in the ocean commerce to pass to and fro between the great lakes and the Atlantic ocean with an adequate and controllable supply of water at all times.
