

LOCAL AND OTHERWISE.

Every transfer should have Trib. See the notice of forfeiture which appears in this issue.

BORN—At Bullionville, April 20th, to the wife of E. L. Goilbe, a son.

Sprains and bruises yield to Trib.

A number of Indians have been jailed this week for drunkenness.

Trib does not claim to cure all ills; but does cure all ills it claims to.

Miss Lena Clinton went to DeLamar on Friday last to remain several months.

John Frei has gone down to act as ore sorter at the Magnolia mine.

T. J. Osborne returned Monday after a three months absence in the west.

Henry Kilers was an incoming passenger this morning on the Milford stage.

Boas Webber passed through to DeLamar on Tuesday with Oppenheimer, the drummer.

Matters at Pioche are at too low an ebb to justify the I. O. O. F. in celebrating their anniversary this year.

County Clerk Goodrich received yesterday a new Caligraph typewriter. It is of the latest design and is a beauty.

Trib is only a liniment; but is the best liniment yet discovered by man. Therefore much is said about it.—Herald.

Flour is now the scarcest of articles in our market. A few tons could be readily disposed of without hurting customers.

Tramps on their way from DeLamar northward for White Pine and other sections are more frequent here than for a long time past.

The roads between Milford and Desert Springs are dry and dusty, while from Desert on here it is dry, hard, and rough in only a few places.

N. P. Dooley will close out his business here and move his stock to DeLamar. He hopes to effect the change within the next ninety days.

Ida Deck has been engaged to teach the summer term of the Cave Valley District school and will go out there on Monday next.

J. Nesbitt is rapidly closing out his stock preparatory to moving to DeLamar. He is selling his dry goods, boots and shoes, clothing, groceries, etc., at greatly reduced prices.

Local parties propose to run a stage line between here and DeLamar and begin within a week. Prospective business for the next sitting of court must be the immediate inducement for the venture.

J. G. Brown was up from Panaca on Tuesday. He proposes to tear down the old D. C. Clark house and move it to Panaca where it will form part of a good sized hotel which he proposes to build and operate there.

If the Magnolia mine develops as is generally expected, the Pioche Hotel building on Main Street, an old landmark, will be moved to Helena, erected in substantially its present form and conducted as a first class caravansary.

Thomas Gillan died here on Saturday last after an illness of two weeks. The funeral took place on Sunday afternoon. The children of deceased were present from Panaca and DeLamar and the remains were interred in the Catholic Cemetery.

Send your orders for bill heads, letter heads, statements and all kinds of job printing to the Record office. It is not necessary to send away for anything in this line as we do it as cheap and good right at home here as anywhere.

The recent discharge of men at the DeLamar mine argues that a change of ownership is close at hand and that the present company may turn over possession at almost any time. Doubtless all development work has been stopped in anticipation of the sale.

Two marriage licenses were issued from the County Clerk's office this week; one on the 16th for the marriage of Jos. G. Dorsey and Mrs. Nellie Morris of DeLamar, the other on the 19th for the union of Chas. E. Kelley and Miss Elzada Keele, of Panaca.

The civil docket for disposition at the May term of court embraces seven cases thus far, but others will probably be added before the sitting opens. No criminal business is now before the court and unless some turns up shortly no grand jury will be called.

Jim Scholar and Wm. Harris have leased the Midwinter claim at the Point, from Henry Welland and will continue work on it. This is the claim which opened up so well last December for a time. The lessees propose to ship their ore to the Wheeler mill which is located but a mile or two from the claim.

Again the St. Louis Globe-Democrat comes forward with arguments in favor of Senatorial elections by the people. They are as follows: "The Senatorial scandal in Kentucky and other States which have had long and disgraceful deadlocks recently are doing more to form a public sentiment which will force a change to the popular vote plan of electing Senators than all the arguments originally advanced by the advocates of this plan could accomplish. Those arguments, indeed, had very little weight, and some of them were absurd. The recent discreditable and demoralizing wrangles, however, furnish reasons for a change of election methods which are obvious and urgent. Conventions would not choose better candidates for Senator than Legislatures select, but under the convention and popular election method one day's voting would end the contest."

Now girls, here's something for you. Say, along about 11 or 12 o'clock at night, after your mother has gone to bed and dad has wound up the clock, put the cat in the kitchen turned the dog out doors, yawned a half dozen times and remarked that "you locks as if we'd have a blizzard before morning," then if Charles Augusta refuses to take the hint, approach him with tablet (or the margin of an old newspaper) and pencil, and your sweetest smile, and tell him you have a funny puzzle for him first to make a row of eleven eights; then to make a perpendicular mark downward on the right of the first eight; upwards on the right of fourth; down on the right of the fifth; upward on the right of the seventh and eight; downward on the right of the tenth. The marks should be half an inch long. Ask him to read what he has written. You will be done two minutes thereafter.—E.S.

There is a chance for the officers to do a little detective work and ferret out those who are breaking the law in furnishing whisky to Indians. For a couple of days the fore part of the week some eight or ten bucks and squaws have been drunk and making considerable disturbance in town. Those who furnish the whisky should be caught and cinched, it is getting to be too common an occurrence here and a stop should be put to it. The United States court at Carson makes short work of parties selling whiskey to Indians and a good portion of the inmates of our State Prison, women included, are serving time for this offence. The attention of the U. S. Officers there must be directed to this section. We think one or two examples will abate the evil altogether.

The British War Office has discovered that the volunteer force of the country is not such an effective defense against invasion as the people have believed. In a battalion 800 strong, which was given twelve hours notice to parade, some of the men appeared in slippers, the swords, rifles and accoutrements were in bad condition, the troops could not drill and one officer was found to be ignorant even of the words of command. A force of that kind would make a poor showing if any of the well-drilled armies of the Continent should land on the coast of England, and the government does well in strengthening the navy.—Call.

Last Friday, what looked like a serious accident was narrowly averted. Frank Allen was rounding up some horses below town, when the horse he was riding stumbled and fell breaking its neck; it was instantly killed, never moving after having fallen, the horse pinioning its rider under it. The accident was observed by a number of persons who instantly went to his assistance, he was helped up unhurt in the least.

On Saturday last an Italian while on his way to the post office to get a money order dropped an envelope containing three five dollar bills, but did not miss it till he got there. In the meantime a minor picked it up and proceeded to blow it in immediately down in China town. On discovering he had the money he was made to disgorge but all that he had left was five dollars and six cents.

New York Herald: Protests from Germany, Italy and the Netherlands against the Dingley bill bring us face to face with the grave consequences that may follow its enactment into law. Fortunately they have come in ample time to warn congress of the danger and to enable thoughtful members to secure changes which will avert a disastrous commercial war.

After his notorious escapade with a French actress and his unsavory connection with the Chimay scandal, the King of all the Belgians will not surprise the world by his new idea of establishing a rival Monte Carlo on his private estate in Ardennes. The rulership of a gambling Vanity Fair would seem to be just about King Leopold's measure.—Philadelphia Record.

In Niles, Mich., a seventeen-year-old school girl has eloped with a youth of 17. The Pittsburgh Chronicle-Telegraph thinks that first and second childhood should not be allowed to mate.

In the jubilee procession Queen Victoria will sit in a rocking chair of American design which will enable her to bow constantly with little exertion. Nothing is complete in these times without some contribution from the Yankee inventor.—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

The hoisting works of the Milbiken mine near Nevada City, was burned to the ground last week. The fire was caused by the explosion of a coal oil lamp the fire causing the explosion of 20 boxes of caps, the two completely demolishing the building.

The Commercial Appeal (Memphis) gives some sound advice to the fool reformers with which the whole country is infuriated. It says: "The attention of the reformers who are waging war on the kinetoscope prize-fight is called to the fact that over 250 actual prize-fights were pulled off in the United States during the year 1896, and more than 100 of them took place in the cities of Boston Philadelphia and New York, where culture and refinement are said to reign supreme. When the kinetoscope reformers have succeeded in suppressing the actual brutalities it will be time enough to make war on the illusions."

The New Mining Law.

We have had letters from so many different quarters asking for information regarding the provisions of the mining law passed at the recent session of our Legislature, that we print the full text of the bill. The bill in our opinion is by far the most important one passed at the eighteenth session, affecting as it does our principal industry, and so completely as to almost revolutionize the old practice of locating and holding mining claims.

It is substantially an enactment of the law in this regard as it exists in Colorado, Montana, Idaho and other mining states and territories, and particularizes many points on the manner of locating, performance of annual work and the preservation of proof, closing up the record on advertising out a delinquent owner, etc., and authorizes the location of millsites in connection with mining claims, something that will be appreciated in all new districts.

The law has been in operation since the 16th of March, the day it received the Governor's signature, and all claims located since that date should be located with reference to its provisions by an amended certificate of location, if necessary.

The law will appear on page 103 of the Statutes of 1897 when the statutes are issued, which should happen now within a few weeks.

Wm. Gage a millionaire of San Francisco who made his money on the Comstock and other enterprises in Nevada, died at that place last week.

Mr. Hartman, traveling salesman for the California Wine Co., was soliciting orders here Saturday last. He left that evening for DeLamar.

Promising Outlook for Ely.

If the good times in promise for Ely and the surrounding country there continue to materialize as they have for the past few weeks, many of our exodus to that section, of many of our former White Pine residents.

The Chairman group of mines at Ely are now in possession of the new owners, Messrs Lane and others of San Francisco, and active work has been entered upon.

The waters of Murray Creek will be utilized to generate electrical power for use of both host and mill at the mines. The ditch for this purpose is under construction and the generators will be placed in the canyon at a point nearly behind the Court house building, were a fall of 100 feet is secured. The current will be carried by heavy wires up the canyon to the mines. The machinery necessary for a good start has been ordered and will soon be on the ground.

The manager is W. S. Bliss of Carson, a young man possessed of a level head and much push, and the promoters will lose no time in getting at the merit of their purchase.

Prospective work also for the summer season at Egan Canyon and at Cherry Creek promise a healthy season for all White Pine this year.

FROM DeLAMAR.

To-morrow, Friday, is Arbor Day.

The weather is fair excepting the last few days, which has been quite blustery.

DeLamar can boast of more children of school age than any town in Lincoln county.

Prof. W. D. Frewitt has been engaged to teach the grammar school the remainder of the term.

John Rosevere of White River is in town with a four-horse load of potatoes finding a ready market.

On Easter Sunday religious services were held in both churches with a large attendance at each.

Henry Kahn and Mr. Hartman are paying us a visit in the interest of their respective firms in Salt Lake.

Don't forget the grand ball at Viotta's hall on next Monday night, it is the Old Fellows' anniversary.

The owners of the Magnolia mine will find in the near future 25 tons of very high-grade ore to market.

Let everybody read and observe the ordinances as published in the Lode by the Sheriff, and save trouble.

John Partcher has been laid up for some time with severe sickness; we are pleased to learn that he is improving rapidly.

The new proprietors of the Blue Bell saloon are Clark and Owens instead of Clark and O'Brien, as stated in the last issue.

Charles Millonetti and Joseph Viotta returned on the 19th from White Pine county, where they have been visiting friends for several weeks.

Not since the camp was opened has there been so many teams engaged in hauling wood. Between eighty and ninety are delivering upwards of a hundred cords a day.

Joseph Eisenmann of Pioche has been spending several days in town inspecting a mining property, principally the Magnolia at Helena, which is coming to the front as a high-grade ore producer.

The Easter Sunday service at the Catholic church was accompanied with some of the finest singing and music heard in DeLamar. Prof. Monday presided at the organ.

The Wertheimer Bros. are building a fine residence on Fetterman avenue, for their parents who are expected to return shortly from California, where they have spent the winter.

TRADE MARK. OVERALLS AND SPRING BOTTOM PANTS. EVERY GARMENT GUARANTEED. EMPLOY OVER 350 GIRLS.

We are again called upon to chronicle a very serious accident that occurred in No. 10 tunnel of the DeLamar mine. On Friday night the 16th, Mr. Charles Grunditz employed by Mr. Geo. Paul who has the contract for hauling the ore train to the mill, while driving out water on the front car, saw a drill lying across the track, and jumped to save himself but was caught between the car and the side of the tunnel his right leg being crushed below the knee. He was removed to the hospital soon as possible and Dr. Mayo found it was necessary to amputate the limb. Calling in Dr. Hammond the operation was successfully performed and the patient made as comfortable as possible.

The race came off as announced on Wednesday the 14th, between Hans Olsen's mare, Pippin's Blue Jay and Joseph Price's horse, Pegger, half mile dash. Much interest was taken in the event, and fully 200 people attended; considerable money changed hands on the result, Price's Pegger winning the quarter and also the race. Price's Pegger and Pippin's Blue Jay have been matched to run a quarter dash on May 5th for twenty half of cows and fifty dollars, each horse has plenty of admirers who will back their favorite.

The benefit given on the 19th inst. at Viotta's hall is another proof that DeLamar makes a larger place for amusements. It was for the benefit of the Sunday school of the Catholic church. The building was crowded to excess, and the entertainment was pronounced by all a grand success. An enjoyable dance followed.

The crosshead on the Corlies engine at the April Pool mill broke a few days ago causing a shut down for a short time. Chief Mechanic McAfee soon had it repaired and the mill is again running full blast.
