

THE PIOCHE WEEKLY RECORD.

VOL. XLVIII.

PIOCHE, NEVADA, THURSDAY, JUNE 30, 1898

THREE HAPPY WOMEN

of Periodic Pain and Backache, using Lydia E. Pinkham's Compound, my health was fully undermined. I suffered from painful menstrual pain on top of my trouble. The compound cured me.—Mrs.
C. C. Clark, Cincinnati.

Ex-Senator John J. Ingalls, of Kansas, whose fame as a brilliant, of a man of remarkable scholarship and literary attainments, is even greater than that of the distinguished senator, announces a new book on the subject of the American-Spanish Cuban War. It is entitled "America's War For Humanity in Picture and Story." It is published by the N. D. Thompson Publishing Co., of St. Louis, Mo., and is an exhaustive discussion of the causes of the war, and an equally exhaustive history of its incidents, and a brilliant analysis of the famous characters conducting it. It promises to be the one great and popular work called forth by this wonderfully interesting national episode. Whatever Senator Ingalls touches he burns; and this book shines and sparkles in the light of his genius. The present work is worthy of his genius, and will be a monument of his fame. The subject now so engrosses the popular mind as to forecast for this book a sale that will be universal. It will be sold by subscription only, and the canvassing samples are now ready for agents. We advertise it in another column.

War news all over the state excludes talk of politics. As soon as the Silver Party State Central Committee determines next month the dates for its primaries and state convention, politics both state and county will begin to assume some definiteness; other parties will come forward and candidates will begin to push along. There promises to be no shortage of candidates for positions both state and county. All along the western part of the state quiet work has been going on for some time and every present state official is said to be a candidate for re-election.

Through the blunder of a train dispatcher at Wadsworth, a freight train and light engine came in collision at Thisbie, five miles east of Wadsworth last Wednesday night. Both engines were badly smashed and one engineer hurt. The dispatcher whose carelessness caused the wreck did not wait to be discharged, but skipped on the first train.

Fighting Bob Evans' Way.
"Fighting Bob" Evans who was consulted by Secretary Long as to Seward's action in steaming to Key West after the report of the blowing up of the Maine said that Seward certainly acted in the line of duty but there are other naval officers who would have headed their fleet for Havana and held the city for indemnity.

Being informed by the Secretary that such unauthorized action would have called forth severe censure from the Administration, Evans replied: "No doubt the administration would have been very angry but the commander of the fleet would have been next President."

State Militia.
Under call of Adjutant General Galusha, three National guard companies are to be selected from this state. The northern and western part of the state will probably furnish them all. Virginia wants to supply two, Carson one and Reno one. Humboldt county thinks it is in position to supply one of the companies at least and should be given a chance.
The farther south we go in the state the fewer the volunteers have been in number. White Pine county supplied a very fair proportion of the boys who have already gone to the front.

The proposition to give passengers from Milford to DeLamar, a rest of several hours here in the afternoon, running from here to Bennett while the mail should go round by Panaca, will not be carried out for the present as the amount of local travel promises to be small on account of stoppage of work here.

The new tariff takes effect tomorrow. All checks, deeds, bonds, agreements relating to real estate, etc. etc. must have internal revenue stamps attached, or the signers and acceptors will be guilty of misdemeanors. No full copy of the law has been received by anybody hereabouts as yet.

Notice.
The undersigned has been appointed agent of A. Mandich and all persons knowing themselves indebted to said A. Mandich will arrange to pay their claims to the undersigned and save costs.
M. Church.
Pioche, April 12 1898.

Ironical Ifs.
If a man is in the right he doesn't have to get mad about it.
If a woman lacks a graceful form there are ways of making up for it.
If a man is sentenced to the guillotine he is very apt to lose his head.
If everyone could have his own way this world wouldn't be worth living in.
If a man has plenty of gold he can put a gilt edge on almost anything.
If you have a man's past record you can predict his future with reasonable accuracy.
If the patient has faith in the doctor, the doctor should reciprocate by trusting the patient.
If ghosts haunt churches it is probably for the purpose of finding out from the epitaphs how good they were during life.—Chicago Evening News.

Fresh meat is becoming a delicacy almost hereabouts now.
Mrs. E. D. Turner and daughter Sabra returned to DeLamar this morning after a week's visit.
Dr. J. D. Campbell is expected to return this evening from a five week's absence at Carson and other points in the state.
Today's wind foretells a storm and is probably part of the storm wave announced by Prof. Foster in his forecast of the 23rd. inst.
These are the days that make one long for cool drinks. You can get 'em at Thompson's; sodas, beer, etc. right from the ice, delivered to any part of town.
A Colorado contemporary says: "There will be no issue of this paper next week. We are going out to collect a little money that has been due us for some time. Editors must live as well as human beings."
L. Guggenheim of Virginia City who was found short in his accounts with several Orders, etc. has been charged with embezzlement and is under $1500.00 bonds. His total defalcations reach about $7000.00 it is now ascertained.
Sheriff Freudenthal is expected in tomorrow evening. He will be accompanied by the Misses Annie and Laura Shier who will go on to DeLamar to visit with their father until the opening of the State University at Reno, in August, which institution they expect to attend this fall.
As the details of last Friday's engagement with Spaniards in South-eastern Cuba come to hand, it is found the rough rider cavalrymen from the west are all they were put up to be. They walked into an ambush, yet while nearly surrounded and almost unable to see the enemy, fought their way to speedy victory. Their knowledge of Indian and guerilla warfare seemed to have stood them in good hand. We expect to hear nothing but good reports of them whenever they are put to the test.

THE NEWSPAPER LAW.
All Subscribers Should Read the Following Law and Avoid Trouble.
1. All subscribers who do not give express notice to the contrary are considered wishing to continue their subscriptions.
2. If subscribers order the discontinuance of their periodical the publisher may continue to send it until all arrearages are paid.
3. If subscribers refuse or neglect to take their periodicals from the office to which they are directed, they are responsible until they have settled their bills and ordered them discontinued.
4. Subscriber moving to other places without informing the publisher, and the papers are sent to the former address, they are held responsible.
5. The courts have decided that refusing to take periodicals from the office or removing and leaving them uncollected for, is prima facie evidence of intended fraud.
6. If subscribers pay in advance they are bound to give notice at the end of the time they do not wish to continue taking it, and the subscriber will be responsible until an express notice with all arrearages are sent to the publisher.
7. The latest postal laws are such that newspaper publishers can arrest anyone for fraud who take a paper and refuses to pay for it.
Under the law the man who allows his subscription to run along some time unpaid, and then orders the postmaster to mark it "refused" and have a postal card sent notifying the publisher, leaves himself liable to arrest and fine, the same as for theft.

The Orphan's Home muddle and mess at Carson is still unsettled. Several of the participants sent affidavits, etc. to the Appeal Office for publication to square themselves, and Sam Davis announces through the columns of the paper that there was no room for them except at the regular rate of $1.00 a line.
To Cure Constipation Forever. Take Cascarets Candy Cathartic 10 or 25c. If C. C. C. fails to cure, druggists refund money.
The War Correspondent. The evolution of the war correspondent is traced by a writer. When Russell went to the Crimea his position was unrecognized by the military authorities. From that condition to the present, when the war correspondent is regularly attached to the army and draws rations like any officer, the change is a great one. It is not, however, wholly to the advantage of the mere news-gatherer. His dispatches are subject to a military censorship, for the sake of preventing both the publication of news that might be of aid to the enemy and the sending of information that might not read well in the papers at home. Thus the Egyptian correspondent of the London Daily News in the campaign of 1882 was not allowed to telegraph that there was no morphia among the medical stores, and that the sufferings of the mortally wounded were unnecessarily intensified thereby. "We can't have statements like this sent home, you know," said the chief of staff, Sir John A. Lord Wolsey has a very poor opinion of war correspondents, whom he calls, in his book on "Field Service," "those newly-invented curses to armies." Sir Herbert Kitchener, it is well known, has not allowed a single correspondent with his army in its advance up the Nile; but this measure was doubtless adopted more for diplomatic than military reasons.—Fortnightly.

Our Cosmopolitan Capital.
"I am just finding out the charm of Washington society, which lies in the great variety of people one meets, and the interesting topics discussed when there is time to talk. At home everybody had known everybody else in society from the cradle, and we did not have much but each other to talk about, but as I get to know people here, and go to entertainments outside of the official round of duties, I begin to understand why so many come to Washington for residence who have no business, official or domestic ties in the place. It's rather nice not to have people know just how much you pay your servants, and when you bought your last piece of furniture."—Cabinet Member's Wife, in Ladies' Home Journal.
The White House.
The white house is an exact copy of the duke of Leinster's palace, Dublin, Ireland. In March, 1792, the commissioners on building advertised for "a plan for a president's house to be erected in the city of Washington." The prize offered was $300, and that of James Hoban, a young Irish mechanic, was accepted.—Chicago Inter Ocean.

Teachers Examinations.
Notice is hereby given that the regular examination of applicants for teacher's certificate in and for Lincoln County Nevada will be held at a school house at Panaca Nevada, on the 11th, 12th, and 13th of July 1898. Any persons desiring to take such examination should notify the County Superintendent on or before July 11th, 1898.

The Trans-Mississippi and International Congress is composed of delegates from every State and Territory West of the Mississippi river. The idea of this exposition originated in that Congress at its session at Omaha in 1895, and the project has become a national enterprise and the National Commission has been organized and is in active service, there being one commissioner for each of the several departments of the Government. Most of the Trans-Mississippi States are well along in a way of gathering exhibits from their respective States and many of them have made liberal appropriations, while others are preparing exhibits through private enterprise.
Vice-President H. B. Maxson of Reno, has made arrangements whereby he can get Nevada exhibits, shipped from any point State along the line of the C. P. R. to Omaha and return, requests all persons who wish the interests of the State advertised, co-operate with the Exposition County Commissioner of his county, whose name is shown above, and prepare some product of his county and send it to the nearest point on the C. P. R. from which place it will be sent to Omaha and exhibited, and returned to the same point at the close of the exposition, free of expense to the exhibitor. Full information should accompany everything sent for exhibition. Before sending anything to the line of the railroad a full description should be given to the Exposition Commissioner of the county, who in turn will notify the Vice-President, who will notify him what action to take, otherwise there might be many duplications. Apply to your County Representative for further information, and don't let this opportunity of advertising the resources of Nevada be lost.
