

STOP, WOMAN!

AND CONSIDER THE ALL-IMPORTANT FACT

That in addressing Mrs. Pinkham you are confiding your private life to a woman—a woman whose experience with women's diseases covers a great many years.

Mrs. Pinkham is the daughter-in-law of Lydia E. Pinkham, and for many years under her direction, and since her decease, she has been advising sick women free of charge.

Many women suffer in silence and drift along from bad to worse, knowing full well, that they ought to have immediate assistance, but a natural modesty impels them to shrink from exposing themselves to the questions and probable examinations of even their family physician. It is unnecessary. Without money or price you can consult a woman whose knowledge from actual experience is great.

Mrs. Pinkham's Standing Invitation. Women suffering from any form of female weakness are invited to promptly communicate with Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass. All letters are received, opened, read and answered by women only. A woman can freely talk of her private illness to a woman; thus has been established the eternal confidence between Mrs. Pinkham and the women of America which has never been broken.

Out of the vast volume of experience which she has to draw from, it is more than possible that she has gained the very knowledge that will help your case. She asks nothing in return except your good-will, and her advice has relieved thousands. Surely any woman, rich or poor, is very foolish if she does not take advantage of this generous offer of assistance.

If you are ill, don't hesitate to get a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound at once, and write Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass., for special advice.

When a medicine has been successful in restoring to health so many women, you cannot well say, without trying it, "I do not believe it will help me."

ARE RULED BY EARTH DOCTORS.

Queer Things About Location of Houses and Graves in China.

The abandonment of cities, town or localities illustrates the peculiar influence among the Chinese of their geomancers, or "earth doctors," as they call them. These fortune tellers, with a great deal of rigmorale, pass upon the luck or unfavorableness of a spot whether it be selected as a place on which to build a house or dig a grave, says the Chautauquan.

The entire city of Pekin was moved by the first emperor of the Mongol dynasty because his "earth doctors" told him that bad luck was associated with the old site and that if he wished to establish his dynasty, he must build a new capital. The modern city of Pekin was the result. And so the cities and towns ravaged by the Taipings over fifty years ago have never recovered because the Chinese believed that their luck had been spoiled and the population has built new towns and new cities rather than tempt fate by rebuilding the old ones. The Chinese will abandon houses almost new if convinced that their geomancy is wrong, and in almost every city you will find some quarter vacated and abandoned because it is said to be unlucky.

BELL AT LLOYD'S IS HISTORIC.

Taken from Sunken Ship, Now Used to Announce Good News.

The bell used to insure silence at Lloyd's when the arrival of an overdue vessel is announced to the anxious underwriters is of naval origin. It belonged to the Lutine, which was wrecked near the Zuyder Zee toward the end of the eighteenth century, when we were at war with Holland. As it was customary in those days to send bullion and specie by men-of-war, the Lutine carried a valuable consignment of specie, and the underwriters at Lloyd's were able to arrange with the Dutch government to salvage the cargo and recoup themselves for their loss on insurance. Over £50,000 sterling was recovered, and amongst other relics brought to shore was the Lutine's bell, to ring out good cheer for anxious underwriters who hear the safe arrival proclaimed by Lloyd's crier as silence follows the ringing of the bell.—London Tit-Bits.

They Stand Alone.

Standing out in bold relief, all alone, and as a conspicuous example of open, frank and honest dealing with the sick and afflicted, are Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription for weak, over-worked, deranged, nervous, "run-down," pained, torpid liver, or biliousness, all catarrhal affections, whether of the stomach, bowels, kidneys, bladder, nasal passages, throat, bronchia, or other mucous passages, also as an effective remedy for all diseases arising from thin, watery or impure blood, as scrofulous and skin affections.

Each bottle of the above medicine bears upon its wrapper a badge of honesty in the full list of ingredients composing it—printed in plain English. This frank and open publicity places these medicines in a class all by themselves, and is the best guaranty of their merits. They cannot be classed as patent or secret medicines for they are neither—being of known composition, and the ingredients are such as are endorsed and most strongly praised by scores of the most eminent medical writers as cures for the diseases for which these medicines are recommended. Therefore, the afflicted do not have to rely alone upon Dr. Pierce's recommendation as to the curative value of his medicines for certain easily recognized diseases.

A glance at the printed formula on each bottle will show that no alcohol and no harmful or habit-forming drugs enter into Dr. Pierce's medicines, they being wholly compounded of glyceric extracts of the roots of native, American forest plants. These are best and safest for the cure of most lingering, chronic diseases. Dr. R. V. Pierce can be consulted, by addressing him at Buffalo, N. Y., and all communications are regarded as sacredly confidential.

It is as easy to be well as ill—and much more comfortable. Constipation is the cause of many forms of illness. Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cure constipation. They are tiny, sugar-coated granules. One little "Pellet" is a gentle laxative, two a mild cathartic. All dealers in medicines sell them.

FINN ARE SIMILAR TO WINGS.

Flying Fish Really Propel Themselves Through the Air.

Does the flying fish really fly, or is the so-called flight a mere extended leap, in which the fins are used on the principle of the aeroplane to float or rest on the air, and so afford support to the body? The question has been much discussed, and many naturalists have denied it the power of true flight. Mr. Frank Bullen, who in his many voyages has had unique opportunities for observing the flying fish, is emphatic in the assertion that it does really fly in the proper sense of the word. He has seen it, for example, change its course at a sharp angle when an obstacle intervened, and when about to re-enter the water he has on seeing and continue its course on a new and entirely new line. Some recent observations contributed by Lieut. Col. Burnford to the London Annals and Magazine of Natural History, confirm this view. The writer contends that the ordinary aeroplane theory involves a mechanical impossibility. The true explanation is an intensely rapid vibration of the winglike fins—a vibration which becomes apparent to the eye as it slows down when the fish reaches the water.—London Globe.

Duel That Wasn't.

What came near being a tragedy but proved to be a comedy, ended one of the bloodiest feuds Dodge has ever known. The two principals, whom we will call Jake and Joe, had been thirsting for each other's blood for some time, so they chose their seconds and decided to meet in a secluded spot and settle the affair of honor. As soon as they saw each other, each reached for his trusty blade, but he held—some peaceful citizen had removed their weapons by stealth, so they shook hands and agreed to be friends. They are both on a still hunt for the aforesaid peaceful citizen now.—Eatacadda (Ore.) News.

Easy Way to Carve.

Freddy lived in a boarding house near where they had been excavating for the subway. One day when he saw his mother struggling with a particularly tough steak the boarders were convulsed to hear him pipe up: "Mama, why don't you blast it!"—New York Press.

A WOMAN DOCTOR

Was Quick to See That Coffee Poison Was Doing the Mischief.

A lady tells of a bad case of coffee poisoning and tells it in a way so simple and straightforward that literary skill could not improve it. "I had neuralgic headaches for 12 years," she says, "and have suffered untold agony. When I first began to have them I weighed 140 pounds, but they brought me down to 110. I went to many doctors and they gave me only temporary relief. So I suffered on, till one day in 1904, a woman doctor told me to drink Postum Food Coffee. She said I looked like I was coffee poisoned.

"So I began to drink Postum and I gained 15 pounds in the first few weeks and am still gaining, but not so fast as at first. My headache began to leave me after I had used Postum about two weeks—long enough I expect to get the coffee poison out of my system.

"Now that a few months have passed since I began to use Postum Food Coffee, I can gladly say that I never know what a neuralgic headache is like any more, and it was nothing but Postum that cured me. Before I used Postum I never went out alone; I would get bewildered and would not know which way to turn. Now I go alone and my head is as clear as a bell. By brain and nerves are stronger than they have been for years." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

There's a reason. Read the little book, "The Road to Wellville," in pigs.

GOVERNOR HAS SUPREME POWER

Colorado Executive Can Suspend Habeas Corpus at His Pleasure.

Justice Gabbert Draws Conclusions in Which Incarceration of Labor Leader by the State Militia During Late Strike is Upheld.

Denver.—Chief Justice Gabbert of the state supreme court has filed a supplemental opinion in the Moyer case. It is generally conceded that this new opinion will take precedence over the former majority opinion as the latest expression of the court.

The chief justice declares that the governor of the state has the power to suspend habeas corpus at his discretion and that the courts cannot review the action.

The body of the new opinion is taken up with excerpts from an opinion of Justice Johnson in a case in the Philippine islands in which the power of the governor-general to suspend the privileges of the writ of habeas corpus during a state of insurrection in the province of Batangas was upheld. The chief justice finds the case analogous to the situation presented in Colorado during the labor troubles, and draws conclusions in which the incarceration of Charles H. Moyer by the military is upheld.

AMERICANS IN CHINA ARE SAFE.

Reports of Recent Disturbances Were Greatly Exaggerated.

San Francisco.—Bishop J. W. Bashford of the Methodist Episcopal church, who has been four years at Shanghai, arrived from the Orient on Friday. Bishop Bashford for fifteen years was president of the Ohio Wesleyan university. He is en route to Chicago to attend the semi-annual meeting of the board of Episcopal bishops. Concerning conditions in China, Bishop Bashford said:

"The reports of disturbances in China have been grossly exaggerated in the United States. There have been three riots in the empire since the inauguration of the American boycott a year ago.

"Each one of these riots was due to local causes, and similar causes would have produced at least two of them in the United States. The Chinese generally are friendly to Americans."

CEASED TO VOMIT FIRE.

Mount Vesuvius No Longer Gives Signs of Life.

Naples.—The period of danger has passed, and only desolation and slowly declining panic remain. Mount Vesuvius has ceased to give any sign of life. The volcano seems to have spent itself in one enormous convulsion. Director Matteucci, who heretofore holds his post in the observatory, believes that the eruption has ended, and every outward indication confirms this view.

No more rumblings come from the bowels of the earth, giving terrifying warning to the inhabitants. The volcano is hidden behind a thick curtain of smoke, which rises from the crater and then spreads and falls, enveloping a vast circle in semi-darkness. Naples is just beyond this circle, and on Friday the city was bathed in sunshine while the ugly black pall hung between Rome and Naples.

President Castro is Merely Resting.

Washington.—President Castro's temporary retirement from the head of the Venezuelan government has no political significance so far as is known, according to a dispatch received by the state department on Friday from W. W. Russell, the United States minister to Venezuela. Mr. Russell's dispatch was dated Caracas, April 10.

The dispatch states President Castro says he is exhausted physically and desires to take a rest.

Clark May Build New Road.

Los Angeles.—An evening paper here says that Senator Clark and associates have decided upon the building of a line of railroad south from a connecting point on the San Pedro, Los Angeles & Salt Lake line into Arizona to connect with Senator Clark's copper mines at Jerome and finally with the Southern Pacific in the southern part of the territory. The proposed line would cross the Grand Canyon at Lee's Ferry.

Six Persons Killed in Cyclone in Texas.

Dallas.—Six persons were killed and several were injured in the tornado that swept over Briggs, Tex., late Friday. A number of buildings in the district were destroyed. At Cleburne the storm blew down the grand stand at the ball park during the progress of a game. Several persons were injured, but none killed. The heaviest rain in years fell in Dallas at night, and a general rain is reported over northern Texas.

Railroad Bill Laid Aside.

Washington.—Owing to the fact that none of its members were prepared to speak on the railroad rate bill, that measure was temporarily laid aside on Friday in the senate, permitting the devotion of the entire time to the consideration of other bills on the calendar. Of those more than 300 were passed, most of them being private pension bills. Among the general bills passed was one increasing the pensions of ex-soldiers who lost limbs in the service.

Spider Lives Long on Light.

Little Miss Muffet's spider was perhaps not so hungry as he looked. M. J. H. Fabre has studied the spider's powers of fasting. He noticed that the mother spider carries its little ones on its back for seven months, and that during that time the young spiders consume absolutely no food.

He concluded from this observation that it is the solar heat and light that for them directly takes the place of nourishment. In other words, the motor heat in these young animals, instead of being released from the food, might be utilized directly as the sun, source of all life, radiates it.

FOR NERVOUS PEOPLE

A Michigan Mother Preserved to Her Family by Dr. Williams' Pink Pills.

When the blood is impoverished the nerves starve and neuralgia or something more serious swiftly follows. Nervous people are generally pale people. By supplying through the blood those vital elements that the nerves need, Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People have performed those remarkable cures that make it impossible for any nervous sufferer to neglect them.

A recent case is that of Mrs. Peter Morrisette, of No. 315 Eleventh street, Alpena, Mich., who writes as follows: "My trouble started with childbirth. After one of my children was born I had a kind of paralysis. I was very weak and my mouth was a little crooked. I was always tired and was so nervous that I could not bear to hear a dog bark or a bill ring—even the little bird in its cage would annoy me. My heart fluttered a great deal and I had dizzy spells. I was not able to get to sleep."

"My doctor gave me different kinds of medicine, changing it several times. When it was evident that he could not help me he said he did not understand my case. This was three years ago and I was very much discouraged, when my brother, who had taken Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, recommended them to me. I tried them and noticed a change for the better when I was taking the second box. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills cured me and I have been well ever since. I now do all my own housework, sewing and washing for seven of us."

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills have also cured diseases caused by impure or impoverished blood such as rheumatism, anemia and after-effects of the grip.

All druggists sell Dr. Williams' Pink Pills or the remedy will be mailed, postpaid, on receipt of price, 50 cents per box, six boxes for $3.00, by the Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y.

Discouraging.

"As I watched you dancing," he said, "the thought suddenly came to me that you were a poem set to music." With a hopeless sigh she turned her back on him, for she knew something about poetry and had made a study of the kinds that are usually set to music.

What We Need.

Something that will insure a natural action of the liver, kidneys, stomach and bowels, cure constipation and sick headache, something that will purify the blood, cleanse the system and bring good health. Garfield Tea, the mild herb laxative, does all this.

Well-Known Tune Very Ancient.

Few who have heard the ditty are probably aware of the history and antiquity of "For he's a jolly good fellow," sung at countless banquets and social functions. Mr. Benjamin Sulte, a Canadian poet and historian, has been lecturing in Toronto on the old folk-songs of the Dominion, and he incidentally mentioned that the air of "For he's a jolly good fellow" came into France from Spain, but Spain got it from the Persians thousands of years ago.

Nature's Method.

Deep breathing, if persistently practiced in season and out of season, in the street and at the office, in a few minutes at a time, would soon bring the roses back to the faded cheeks, and dissipate the sallow complexion. Lung diseases especially the dreaded scourge of consumption, would become less prevalent if people would carry out this simple exercise, which is merely an imitation of nature's method with primitive man who in running and leaping, unconfined by clothing, develops excellent lung capacity, and uses it to the full. Well, remarks the Westminster Gazette, we can breathe deeply if we try. The pity is that we are so far in every way from nature's method with primitive man!

Steadfastness.

The women whom you could not frighten, the men whom you could not move to say the false or do the wrong—have they not been pre-eminently steadfast to face with the living Judge of right, and in their own incorruptible perception heard his voice, "Stand fast! for I am with you!"—Martineau.
