Robert Graham, editor of the Prospector of Callente, was in the city Monday on a brief business trip and the Pioche Record acknowledges a pleasant call from him. Mr. Graham is making a good paper out of the Prospector, and is deserving of the patronage of the people of his home town.

Goes To Beaver.
Fred Levy left Thursday morning on a brief trip to Beaver, Utah, taking his son, Monto, with him. Mrs. Levy has sent word that the stork has left a baby girl with her. Naturally, Fred went away with his face wreathed in smiles when he departed.

If you want what you want, when you want it, you want to go to the Alamo.

Pioche Tinsmith Dies.
T. Russell, who formerly conducted a tin shop here, died at the Duckworth hospital late Wednesday night after a brief illness. The remains were shipped to Emmett, Idaho, for interment. T. Russell Jr., a son, arrived in the city just a few hours before his father breathed his last.

The best is the cheapest. It costs less to get the best Whiskeys in Pioche at the Alamo.

A Pleasant Affair.
The free dance given in the store rooms of the Pioche Mercantile company last Monday evening was largely attended and altogether the function turned out to be a very pleasant one. Refreshments were served and everyone went home with expressions of good will for the owners of the new store. Messrs. Caffey and Scher ginzer proved themselves to be good entertainers. The stock of goods has begun to arrive and the store is being put in order for business.

John T. Hodson, secretary of the Pioche King Mining company arrived from Salt Lake Thursday evening and is looking over interests here.

MARRIAGE OF A POPULAR COUPLE.

The marriage of Miss Ethel Bowling, daughter of Henry Lee Bowling and Robert Roy Orr, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alex Orr, eclipsed all other society doing in Pioche this week. The ceremony was performed at the home of the groom's parents Wednesday evening at eight o'clock, by Justice of the Peace Charles W. Garrison, following which friends of the contracting parties, to the number of more than a hundred, made things interesting around the Orr residence. Roy and his charming bride "came through" all right, and after satisfying the youth with a few dollars, the older folk were generously supplied with refreshments.

This part of the program had scarcely been concluded when it was announced that there would be a dance at Thompson's Opera House, to which the crowd soon repaired. The festivities were kept up until a late hour when all departed for their homes, after having heaped congratulations and best wishes upon the bridal pair.

The groom has been a resident of Pioche all his life and at the present time is the employ of the Pioche King Mining company as engineer. The bride has resided here during the past two years and is highly esteemed by a host of friends. Mr. and Mrs. Orr are spending their honeymoon in Spring valley, expecting to go as far north as Cleveland's ranch.

BRIEF NEWS ITEMS FROM ATLANTA CAMP

(Special Correspondence.)

Atlanta, August 3.—Main street is fast taking on the appearance of an up to date mining town. Several new dwelling, also business houses are under construction.

Paul Cherry from Ely, is in camp for a few days, and he purchased a block of five city lots, which he intends to hold for speculation.

That enterprising merchant, Elias Kahn, also Dr. Stockham of Pioche, have each purchased choice corner lots in the North Addition of Atlanta townsite and expect soon to erect substantial business blocks on same.

Mr. Potter and associates have lumber on their Main street property and have started the erection of a saloon building 18x36.

Quite a good deal of excitement has been caused by new discoveries at Rosencrant. Parties from there have brought in rock showing considerable gold. The scene of the strike is about three miles southwest of Atlanta and on a continuation of the gold bearing zone running through the Atlanta group. Mr. Isaac Garrison and sons are interested in this new find.
