ALLIES DEMAND GREEKS' DECISION

THRONE OF GREEK KING MAY BE LOST AS RESULT OF ATTITUDE OF GREEKS.

King Constantine Will be Reminded That His Retention of Throne Depends Upon Continuance of Friendly Neutrality.

London.—The intimation of the Greek government that any attempt to force Greece to accept an allied army would be regarded as an act of war.

According to related dispatches received from Athens, Greece bases her decision on international law, while the entente ministers contend that the right accorded troops to enter the country through Saloniki permits them to retire by the same route.

The ministers are demanding that the Greek government define the attitude she will observe should such a contingency present itself.

Besides the claim to hospitality which the entente allies declare they have on Greece, in view of Premier Venizelos' invitation to them to send a force to Saloniki to enable Greece to fulfill her treaty obligations to Serbia.

This, it is contended, binds the Greek people to the entente allies, and should King Constantine overrule the constitution, which the followers of M. Venizelos insist he did when he dissolved the chamber, it is suggested in some quarters that King Constantine would be reminded that his retention of the throne of Greece depends on the continuance of friendly neutrality toward the entente powers.

OLDER BUT STRONGER

To be healthy at seventy, prepare at forty, is sound advice, because in the strength of middle life we too often forget that neglected colds, or careless treatment of slight aches and pains, simply undermine strength and bring chronic weakness for later years.

VILLA WOULD SHAVE GENERAL CARRANZA

SHORN OF HIS WHISKERS, FIRST CHIEF WOULD LOSE FALSE FRONT, SAYS VILLA.

Lays Claim to An Army of Seventeen Thousand Men and Declares That He Can Easily Get Ammunition and Provisions.

Douglas, Ark.—General Francisco Villa has given out a written statement in which he says: "You ask me to tell you my strength. I will not lie to you, for I never lie.

"The American government may believe itself very smart, but it has not been able to stop me from getting all the ammunition and provisions I want. The materials for war have been paid for out of my own money and I have crossed the border under the noses of American soldiers.

"The fact that I am spending my own money to buy ammunition and provisions should satisfy the people of the world that I am standing by my men and that I have no immediate intention of quitting in my fight for the liberty of my people.

"Should I have Carranza in my power, instead of killing him I would have him. This would do him greater harm, because then he would be shorn of that false front, which, to the ignorant, indicates intelligence.

"Carranza cannot be president. Alvaro Obregon, however, is of another type. He is strong and I admire strong men. And he admires me. But since he has cast in his lot with Carranza I shall continue to fight him until either he or I have been swept off of Mexican soil.

BOOKER T. WASHINGTON DEAD

Noted Leader of Negro Race Suffers Nervous Breakdown.

Tuskegee, Ala.—Booker T. Washington, foremost teacher and leader of the negro race, died early Sunday at his home here, near the Tuskegee institute, of which he was founder and president.

Doctor Washington was born in slavery near Halesford, Va., in 1857 or 1858. After the emancipation of his race, he moved with his family to West Virginia. When he was able to scrape together sufficient money to pay his stage coach fare to Hampton, Va., he entered General Armstrong's school for negroes and worked his way through an academic course, graduating in 1875.

Later he became a teacher in the Hampton institute, where he remained until 1881, when he organized the Industrial School for Negroes at Tuskegee, to which he devoted most of his attention during the remaining years of his life.

The institute started in a rented shanty church. Today it owns 3,500 acres of land in Alabama and has nearly 100 buildings valued at $500,000.

TEUTONS SLOWLY DRIVING SERBIANS

DEFENDERS FALLING BACK BEFORE AUSTRO-GERMANS, BUT HOLDING BULGARIANS.

Russians Take Offensive in East Against Von Hindenburg, But With Indifferent Success, Owing to Marshy Ground.

London.—The Serbians are falling back from mountain range to mountain range before the advance of the Austro-German forces, whose official reports enumerate the capture of a thousand or more prisoners daily, a few guns and quantities of stores.

Along the eastern front, the Serbians appear to be holding their own against the Bulgarians and are making a stand on the western river bank. So stubborn has been their resistance the Bulgarians have had to call for assistance from the Austro-German artillery in their effort to drive the defenders out of Katchanik pass.

The British and French troops, which are receiving reinforcements, are meeting with some success, and besides repulsing the Bulgarian attacks, have undertaken small offensive movements with good results. The Austro-Germans and Bulgarians, however, made such progress from the beginning of the campaign that it will now take serious work to check them.

For the moment, the political situation is graver than the military situation. The central powers have again protested to Greece against the landing of allied troops at Saloniki. King Constantine is reported to have replied that as Saloniki is an open port, there has been no infringement of Greek rights in the landing, and that Greece will remain neutral until one of the belligerents has transgressed against these rights. Italy has now joined her allies by sending a warship to Saloniki, which on Friday bombarded the railway station at Dodegatch, Bulgaria.

The Russians have definitely repelled Field Marshal Von Hindenburg's drive toward Riga and Dvinsk and along the Dvina river and have themselves taken the offensive, but apparently, owing to the state of the ground, have been able to make only slow progress in the marsh region west of Riga.

Along the Sty river, in the south, the Austro-Germans, by a counter stroke, have pierced the Russian lines and captured 1,500 prisoners, according to the Berlin official statement. These strokes are about all that can be expected on the eastern front while the soft weather continues.

POLICE RAZE LAKE RESORT.

One of Chicago's Landmarks Has Been Demolished.

Chicago.—"Streeterville" was invaded, its ruler captured and its citadel demolished Sunday, after a pistol battle on filled-in land on the shores of Lake Michigan, almost in the heart of Chicago. The land, which is claimed by Captain George Wellington Streeter, is north of the harbor and in the center of the fashionable lake shore residence district. Streeter and his wife came three years ago, when their vessel was wrecked on a bar. The sand filled in between the wreck and the shore until their claim comprised property said to be worth millions of dollars.
