[No. 234.]

IN the District Court of the Fifth Judicial District of the State of Montana, in and for the County of Madison, J. B. Laurin, plaintiff, vs. John Casper and Leola Casper, defendants, Summons.

Action brought in the district court of the Fifth judicial district of the State of Montana, in and for the county of Madison, and the complaint filed in said county of Madison in the office of the clerk of said district court.

The State of Montana sends greeting to the above named defendants: You are hereby summoned to answer the complaint in this action which is filed in the office of the clerk of this court, a copy of which is herewith served upon you, and to file your answer and serve a copy thereof upon the plaintiff's attorney within 20 days after the service of this summons, exclusive of the day of service; and in case of your failure to appear or answer, judgment will be taken against you by default for the relief demanded in the complaint.

The said action is brought to recover a judgment against you for the sum of one hundred dollars, together with interest thereon at the rate of one per cent, per month from the eighth day of October, 1891, less the sum of $2 paid thereon on December 16, 1891, and the sum of $9.27 paid thereon on November 23, 1892, according to the terms of a certain promissory note made, executed and delivered by the defendant, John Casper, to the plaintiff on the said eighth day of October, 1891, which said note is long past due and save the payments above alleged, wholly unpaid; and to obtain a decree of this court for the foreclosure of a certain mortgage given by the defendants, John Casper and Leola Casper, who was then the wife of the said John Casper) to the plaintiff on the eighth day of October, 1891, to secure the payment of said above mentioned note, which said mortgage was on the twelfth day of October, 1891, recorded in the office of the clerk and recorder of the county of Madison, Montana, in volume 49 of mortgages, at page 133, records of said Madison County, and that the premises conveyed by said mortgage be sold and the proceeds arising from the sale of said mortgaged premises be applied to the payment of the amount found due the plaintiff, together with all costs and an attorney's fee as provided in said mortgage, and in case such proceeds are not sufficient to pay the same, then to obtain execution against the defendant, John Casper for the balance remaining due and that the defendants, all persons claiming by or under them, or either of them, be barred and foreclosed of all right, title, claim, equity of redemption, and interest in and to the said mortgaged premises, and for such other and further relief as to the court shall seem meet and equitable.

Witness my hand and the seal of said court, this sixteenth day of September, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ninety-five.
