HALSE-GREIS.

Marriage of Two Popular Young People of Sheridan.

SHERIDAN, March 10.—[Special Correspondence.]—At seven o'clock, p. m., this evening about fifty guests met at the residence of Mr. Alfred J. Halse where the Rev. Sidney Hooker of Dillon was in waiting and baptized the infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Bruggeman and the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. H. Schove, after which he joined together in the holy bonds of matrimony, Mr. Alfred J. Halse and Miss Emelia Greis, Miss Mae Foreman acting as bridesmaid and Mr. George Boyd, best man. After the ceremony they all sat down to a supper prepared for the occasion and did justice to the spread, the way the good things disappeared. After supper the tables were cleared away and the young folks enjoyed themselves by dancing till 12:30 o'clock, after which they returned to their several homes wishing the newly wedded couple bon voyage. The groom is to be congratulated on having secured so estimable a young lady as a helpmate. She has resided in Sheridan for the last four or five years where she is held in high esteem by our citizens. The groom is also well known around Sheridan having resided here for the past 24 or 25 years. He is a model young man. He has erected a comfortable residence in which the wedding took place. Mr Halse is a brother to the wife of our county assessor, Wm. J. Foreman.

Following is a partial list of presents: Dinner set, 100 pieces, Adam Bruggeman; parlor lamp, Geo. Halse; table set, water set and tray, Geo. Boyd; water set, Wm. Halse; parlor lamp, H. Bruggeman; salt and pepper set, H. and Louis Hermesmeier; set silver tea spoons, Fred Hermesmeier; chenille table cover, Mr. and Mrs. Hermanson; table cloth, Mr. and Mrs. Whisman; set silver knives and forks, Mr. and Mrs. W. Bruggeman; butter dish, Alice Halse; table cloth, Fred Dudley; glass table set, Mr. and Mrs. A. Kennedy; toilet set, Mr. John Boyd; paper and salt set, W. and A. Foreman; pair of towels, Mr. and Mrs. R. Vickers; bureau scarf, M. Foreman; wall pocket, Minnie Hermesmeier; water set, Mr. and Mrs. H. Hermesmeier; pair of towels, Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Vickers; fancy table set, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Foreman; paper and salt set, Alice and M. Halse; sewing machine, Mrs. M. Halse; neck tie, Mr. J. Bothwell and hat but not least, a live pig and sack of flour, Mr. and Mrs. D. Whisman. I.

SHERIDAN BRIEFS.

Ernest Faulkner spent a few days of last week and this in bed, but is up and around again.

Drummers have been plentiful the last few days. Among the more familiar faces was that of S. H. Greenwood, of St. Louis.

A surveying party from Virginia City passed through town Wednesday. In the company were Chas. Mead, Dean Vickers, Ed Hart and Henry Gilbert. It is understood the boundaries of some mining property on Mill creek are to be located.

Rev. S. D. Hooker held divine service at Good Templars' hall last Sunday morning and evening. Mr. Hooker has already secured pews and other furniture for the new church which is to be built this summer.

Last Saturday evening members of Sheridan Lodge, I. O. G. T., gave a banquet and literary entertainment at their hall on Water street. Friends of the members were invited and a general good time was enjoyed by all present.

Miss Gertrude Kirby, of Iron Rod, spent Saturday and Sunday in Sheridan as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Cornforth.

Mrs. Jessie Gunn, Grand Recorder of the Degree of Honor is making a tour of the county in the interest of the order. Tuesday night she addressed the lodge at this place. The services of the band were called into requisition after the regular work, and an informal reception held, at which some of the brethren of the A. O. U. W. assisted.

ADOBETOWN MATTERS.

The Suburb Furnishes an Interesting Batch of News.

ADOBETOWN, March 12.—[Special Correspondence.]—Oscar Fenner is taking in the sights at Butte this week.

David Kenealy was home on a visit Saturday. He is working in the Pedro mine on Rams Horn.

Wright, Gilbert and Fenner made a shipment of ore to Butte this week. The ore is a product of their lease on the Mapleton.

Miss Melissa Williams, who has been absent as Glendale for the past two years arrived home Tuesday.

The entertainment given by the school, Friday evening, was well attended. The program was well rendered.

Frank Carey wears the belt again as the champion speller here; he having floored all contestants at the last spelling match.

The McGovern boys, Phil and Ed, expect to strike the lead in the tunnel which they are driving up on Granite, by the last of the month. They are in about 230 feet. The boys have worked faithfully and have been at quite an expense. We hope they strike it rich.

Potter and Hopper have struck rich ore in their lead on the Mapleton. The Mapleton, undoubtedly, has a rich body of ore, if one could only strike the right lead. Is it not probable that some day the x rays may be turned on these mountains and reveal their hidden treasures?

Adam Fueling and Oscar Sedman are doing some stripping on the north side of the gulch near here and have paying dirt.

The following is the report of our school for the month of February. Mr. Bothwell's room, number enrolled, 35; average attendance 30. Roll of honor for the month, Mattie May, Maggie, Hannah and Mary Kenealy, Edith and Luke Williams, Emsley, Rennie and Zella Cox, Frank Richard, Ralph Wynne. Report of Miss Hunter's room: number enrolled for month, 20; average attendance 17; honor roll, Esther Potter, Nickie Carey, Kate Dulea, John Jones, Reta Lynch, Katie, Lottie and Bessie Bryant.

P. J. May is at home this week nursing a bad cold.

Cleveland thinks some of these western states needs regeneration. We opine that if Grover runs for a third term this fall, that by the time the election returns are all in he will have made up his mind that these are about 45 states of the union, hopelessly lost.

The war cloud which has been hovering along the shores of both sides of the Atlantic has spread along the shores of the Mediterranean sea. But above the mists still floats the banner of peace. The war whoop is all very nice for college students, whose dads are able to hire for them substitutes, but when war comes it is the farmer, the miner, the mechanic, etc., that does the fighting, and of this class of men, no nation has a surplus to spare. It takes men and money to carry on war, and it is a bad thing at the best. But when war comes, the men who are capable of a good sober second thought, stand up and do the fighting while the boasters break for the brush.

CENTENNIAL VALLEY.

The Leap Year Dance—About Cattle and Cattle Buyers.

MAGDALEN, March 3.—[Special Correspondence.]—The leap year dance was a grand success, about forty being present. The basket supper was all that the most fastidious appetite could desire. Miss Scollard was floor manager and filled that place with a grace and ease that showed she had been there before. The men made lovely wall flowers, so much so that the ladies wish leap year would last always. But alas! not another leap year for eight years.

We were glad to hear from Mr. W. W. Cheely this week, and learn that he never received the January items which were unusually long and new. We do not want the readers of the MADISONIAN to think we are snowed in or froze up, up here, but some in this valley were wondering why our valley was not represented in the paper any more. Now for the benefit of some of the Centennial subscribers, I will put in a few of the aforesaid items if they are old:

Ed Blake is the proud father of a son born on the 3d of January. Weight five pounds. They have christened the young heir, Earl Rodnum and he is a wonderfully good baby and behaved well at the dance.

On the 5th of January, Wilt Bean's wife presented him with a 12 pound boy, an exceedingly pretty boy.

The coldest blizzard for a long time visited us the past week, accompanied with considerable snow.

Archie has gone to Silver Star to see his mother who is sick.

Miss Florence Miller of Deer Lodge is visiting her sister, Mrs. Fitch, and brothers, the Miller boys. She is thinking of keeping house for her brothers this summer.

Harry Winslow has some fine beef steers that he is taking the best of care of.

Ed Blake sold his calves to Mr. Lewis of Butte Butchering Co. Ed had a nice bunch and got a good price for them.

Hank Wetmore bought up a car load of calves for Mr. Wings of Silver Bow meat market. They were delivered to Mr. Wings this week.

There is still a number of car loads of good calves in the valley for sale to the right buyer.

Jim Sparrow of Anaconda is visiting his brother, Frank. Madame Rumor says Frank is about to get married to one of Twin Bridges fair daughters.

Bob Boatman is the most popular young man in our valley, (and we have lots of nice single men) at least he can persuade stern parents to let their daughters go with him to dances, when all others fail to make even an impression on said parents. Well Bob is a nice fellow and his friends are legion, I am told, wherever he goes.

We dined with Mr. James Nye the other day and was surprised at the nice cozy cabin, with rocking chairs and other conveniences like a woman keeping house. Plenty of good reading, also a good dinner cooked on short order and enjoyed by his hungry guests.

Levi Shambow is feeding his steers all they can eat and will have them in good shape for spring market.
