

OUR CHINESE VISITOR.

Li Hung Chang Arrives and is Quartered at a Swell New York Hotel.

Welcomed by General Ruger, Acting on Behalf of President Cleveland.

White Squadron on Parade to the Delight of the Celestial Statesman.

New York, Aug. 31.—Li Hung Chang, the Chinese statesman, is safely lodged at the Waldorf hotel. When the American line steamer St. Louis arrived off Quarantine at 12:30 she was immediately boarded by General Ruger who extended to Li, in behalf of President Cleveland, a welcome to the United States. The St. Louis then moved slowly up the bay, surrounded by all kinds of gaily decorated craft, and with the Dolphin quite near her, to the music of a tremendous chorus of steam whistles and a continual fusillade of giant firecrackers, etc.

As the St. Louis neared the American fleet the first gun of the salute in honor of the Chinese visitor was fired from the flagship New York, gun by gun, until 21 shots had been fired. The New York was the only warship to fire a salute, but the other ships dipped their colors as the St. Louis passed. They presented a magnificent appearance and were watched with the greatest interest by the Chinese ambassador and his suite from the position which they occupied on the port side of the upper deck of the American liner.

Steps on American Soil.

The St. Louis reached the dock at 1:50 and the Chinese party was met by the guard of honor of the marine infantry and an immense crowd of people. The party entered carriages and the procession left the pier headed by a detachment of the Sixth cavalry, and having another detachment of the same regiment in its rear. The whole was preceded by a detachment of mounted police, and it moved away amid loud cheers.

The route was to West street and Bowling green, up Broadway to Fourth street, thence through Washington square and up Fifth avenue to the Waldorf. The route of the procession was guarded by police and densely packed with spectators. A quantity of bunting was displayed on all sides, and among it the Chinese standard was continuously seen.

A feature of the reception was the presence of the "White Squadron," which sailed up the bay in close proximity to the St. Louis and which greatly interested the Chinese visitor.

Russian Minister Called.

Hardly had Li Hung Chang been settled in his spacious quarters in the Waldorf when an attache of the Russian legation called to arrange a conference between the viceroy and the Russian minister. He was successful, and though the time set was not made known it is believed that the conference will be held during the day. Owing to past and other more recent events in the East the promptness of the Russians caused much speculation about the hotel, but it was stated that the Russian minister would be compelled to leave the city soon, and for that reason sought an early interview.

If ex-Secretary John W. Foster and Colonel Fred Grant, who were at the hotel when Li Hung Chang arrived, be not included, the Russian attache was the first caller upon Li Hung Chang. Later a party of Chinese merchants called and were received. Hon. George F. Edmunds, who was once a minister to China, also called to pay his respects.
