

THE CITY IN BRIEF.

An $80 nugget was picked up in Geo Henderson's Summit placer mine one day this week.

Colonel Callaway of Virginia City addressed a large and appreciative audience at Good Templars' hall Tuesday evening on "The Currency and the Campaign." President Jones of the Bryan and Hartman club introduced the speaker and there was a large and attentive delegation from the club present.—Sheridan Paper.

The MADISONIAN is one day late this week owing to the rush of election work. The power press has been working night and day, printing election ballots, etc.

A. N. Canaday will leave for Houston, Idaho, tomorrow.

Phil Ward left for California this afternoon where he expects to spend the winter.

George B. Jordan, of Chicago, who visits Virginia at regular intervals, was in the city this week.

The MADISONIAN job department absorbed our head letter this week, in consequence the usual head lines of this great expounder of silver doctrine are conspicuous by their absence.

Arch'd McGown is out doing campaign work for his party.

Hon. O. F. Goddard, gold candidate for congress, has cancelled his Madison engagements. It will be hard, but we will endeavor to save the country without the advantage of his counsel and advice.

Miss Edna Thomas, who made many friends during her sojourn here last year, arrived in the city last evening from Des Moines, Iowa. She was accompanied by her brother, Orville Thomas. They are the guests of their aunt, Mrs. Anna Hall.

Mrs. Sarah A. Jones, mother of the late lamented Barclay Jones, is suffering from a stroke of paralysis and is very low.

Miss Ella Orr of Butte, is visiting at the home of Mrs. Barclay Jones.

Frank Napton has sold out his interest in the Sheridan Paper to Louis P. Bowen. Under the editorial supervision of the versatile Lulu, the Paper will in future herald to the world the greatness of Madison county mineral wealth. If anybody takes Lulu for a "come on" they err. He gets gay occasionally, Pulitzer-like, but he needs no fixin'.

Rev. Bowker will hold services at St. Paul's church Sunday evening.

Rev. Mountjoy will hold services tomorrow morning at 10:30 and in the evening at 7:30 o'clock. Young people meet at 6:30.

The annual institute of the teachers of Madison county will convene at the school house Monday, and Mrs. D. H. Wilcomb, county superintendent, and her deputy, Miss Grace Herndon, are making every effort to see that the week of the teachers in Virginia is both pleasant and profitable. Prof. F. W. McFarland, well known as an educator, will be in charge as chief instructor. Every teacher in the county will be present. An entertainment will be given Thursday evening, probably at the Methodist church, at which such well known soloists as W. C. George of Butte, (not the "professor," who recently visited Virginia), Miss Isabel Mahaffy, of Sheridan, who possesses a soprano voice of uncommon sweetness, Miss Gertrude Kirby, of Ennis, who delighted those who heard her sing on a similar occasion about a year ago, and Miss Grace Herndon, whose reputation as an amateur is well established, will appear. Mr. J. M. Little, Miss Carrie Raymond and Mr. Fred Gibson will recite; and there are others. It will be one of the treats of the season, to which the public is cordially invited.

Bob Boatman was in the city yesterday in a very happy frame of mind. He says that in future the boys in the Boatman family will stand some show, matrimonially, the last daughter of the house having been married recently. Mr. Boatman was accompanied by his brother, W. H. Boatman, who recently embarked in the livery business in Dillon.

Among the arrivals at the Madison house, this week, were: Geo. B. Jordan, W. H. Eldridge, Chicago; J. B. Rank, Eason; L. F. Stalford, S. B. Page, Laurin; E. H. Marr, St. Louis; J. W. Purdum, Thos. McCulla, Ed Adams, F. Nelson, Sheridan; Al Smith, Missoula; G. W. Merrick, Grand Junction, Ia.; C. W. Fuller, Kennett; Mrs. Barclay, F. H. Cooney, H. Sleshenger, N. Kroeger, Geo. H. Savage, Antoine George, Butte; R. Carpenter, O. F.

Wright, M. W. Thompson, Sheridan; B. Millard, Helena; G. Beckenham, San Francisco; Jas. Christensen, Home Park; J. F. H. B. Bott, J. H. Murray, W. Brookman, Boston; E. D. Weed, Helena; F. S. Metzler, Puller Springs; A. Oppenheimer, San Francisco; A. Metzler, York Ranch; J. Rosenberger, Sam Ogden, Summit; Frank Foster, Waterloo; J. Thorse, Emmett, Idaho.

A sacred concert, (classical) will be given at the Episcopal church Monday evening, which will be well worth attending. It is given under the auspices of the Episcopal choir. The program is as follows: Selection by choir, "The Earth Is the Lord's."

Duet, "He Giveth His Beloved Sleep," Mr. Powell and Mrs. Buford. Chorus by choir.

Solo, Mrs. Mead. Quartette chorus. Recitation, Miss Nellie Cole.

Tenor solo, Mr. Powell. Chorus by choir.

Solo, Miss Mahaffy. Selection by Ladies' Orchestra.

Bass Solo, "Monarch of the Woods," T. J. Lowman.

Duet, Mrs. Carruthers and Miss Wiles. Chorus by choir.

Recitation, Lyman Bennett. Solo, Nellie Cole. Quintette chorus.

Selection by Ladies' Orchestra. Solo, Miss Herndon.

Selection by choir, "O, That I Had Wings."

The Episcopal choir includes the best vocalists in the city and those who fail to go will miss a treat. A nominal admission of 25 cents will be charged.

A cream of tartar baking powder. Highest of all in leavening strength.—Largest U. S. Government Food Report. ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO., 106 Wall Street, New York.

Notice to Teachers. The regular Teacher's Institute of Madison county, will be held at Virginia City, beginning Monday, Oct. 26 and closing Friday, Oct. 30.

"Every teacher employed in the public school in the county must attend the Institute."—Political Code.

Half fare on all stage lines will be given teachers. Reduced rates to teachers, have also been secured at the Madison house.

DELLA H. WILCOMB, County Superintendent of Schools, Madison county, Montana.
