

BIG JOB TO COUNT

THREE THOUSAND CLERKS TO HELP COMPILE CENSUS STATISTICS.

Washington, May 31.—Like a vast warship, the census bureau here "has cleared its decks for action." In addition to the main building of the bureau, two others have been leased giving a total floor space of 150,000 square feet, which is enough to accommodate the permanent census clerks and the temporary force of 3,000 employes whose services will be required during the coming summer only.

The enumerator's schedules have begun to arrive, but it will be several weeks before official announcement is made of the total population of any city in the country. The population of the cities will be the first tabulated, after which the states and minor civil divisions will be completed. C. Dana Durant, director of the bureau, announced today that "no preliminary official statement will be issued by the bureau until the 'established areas' for each of the different areas has been made. 'There will be no rough counts' or approximations," he added, "and no sacrifice of accuracy for haste."

Work will be carried on night as well as by day. The punching machine, semiautomatic and electrical, 300 in number, will operate night and day. Each machine can complete 3,000 cards in a 7 hours day, which means that all the machines at this rate can dispose of 45,000,000 cards in a month, by working fourteen hours a day. Semiautomatic electrical tabulating machines also will be used.

Legrand Powers, chief statistician of the census division of agriculture does not expect to publish any information regarding the farm census of 1909 until September 15, when he may issue the first preliminary bulletin giving for each state and territory the totals derived from the tabulation separately of general farm data, the principal crops and the live stock on farm and ranges.

William M. Stewart, chief statistician of the census division of manufacturers, has received about 150,000 of the 340,000 schedules involved in the census of manufacturers, mines and quarries. It is likely that an announcement of the totals for the District of Columbia will be made sometime in June. Publication will be made of the complete returns for other areas as fast as they are received and tabulated. Procrastination in furnishing information on the part of the few manufacturers in some of the areas, will occasion delays, it is announced, which the census bureau cannot avoid.

JACKSON STATUE

Charleston, W. Va., May 31.—In a few days ground will be broken in the Capitol lawn for the foundation of the pedestal upon which will rest the statue of General Stonewall Jackson, which will be erected by the Daughters of the Confederacy.

Already the big bronze statue of General Jackson, which is nine feet in height, has been shipped from Italy, where it was cast.

The monument will be built on the sight front of the lawn in Capitol square and the base will be constructed of Italian marble. Upon a shaft will be placed the statue of the confederate general whose home was in West Virginia and whose fame as a military man is known and his ability recognized the world over.

MEMORIAL DAY OBSERVED.

Appropriate exercises were held Decoration Day, at Tu-Endie-Wie Park under the auspices of the "Daughters of the American Revolution." Mayor J. L. Whitten delivered a very touching address, after which the graves were decorated with flowers and flags. Owing to the inclement weather only a small crowd was in attendance.

HUGHES

HAS ENOUGH DELEGATES NOW TO INSURE HIS NOMINATION.

Unofficial returns received by the Herald-Dispatch last night from conventions held, Saturday in Logan, Boone and Putnam counties to select delegates to the nominating convention of the Fifth Congressional district indicate that Lilly made his first showing of the campaign yesterday and shared honors with Congressman James A. Hughes in the spoils of victory—but at the same time Hughes got enough delegates to assure his nomination at the convention at Welch on June 23. If Hughes gets the solid delegation from Mingo county as it is acknowledged he will do, his nomination is assured without any delegates from Mason, Mercer, Wyoming or Lincoln, which are yet to select their delegates.

In Putnam county, Hughes got twelve delegates instructed for him, while Lilly received nine. In this county, the vote was divided geographically, Hughes taking all the delegates from the districts on the north side of the Kanawha, while Lilly received all from the districts on the south side of the Kanawha. A rump convention was held in Buffalo district, but the regular faction of the party was for Hughes and he will no doubt receive the three delegates from that district.—Huntington Herald-Dispatch.

ALMA KELLNER'S BODY FOUND.

Louisville, Ky., May 30.—With the finding today of her mutilated and decomposed body in an old cistern under one of parish houses of St. John's Catholic church, Clay and Walnut streets, part of the mystery surrounding the disappearance of Alma Kellner, the eight-year-old daughter of Fred L. Kellner, on December 8, has been solved. Frank Fehr, the millionaire brewer, an uncle of the child, who since her disappearance has spared neither time nor money in search for her, has positively identified the body.

The body was found only a few yards from the entrance to St. John's church, where Alma had gone to attend services the morning of her disappearance.

The police are looking for Joseph Wendling, former janitor at St. John's church, who since January 14, over a month after the disappearance of the Kellner girl, has been missing Mrs. Lena Wendling, wife of the missing man and housekeeper for Father Schumann, pastor of St. John's church, is under surveillance.

We now have four games with Catlettsburg on their grounds, returning here Sunday and Monday for two games with the same team. After Catlettsburg games the Montgomery team comes here for a series of three games, starting next Monday.

An effort is being made to have the steamer Greenwood run an excursion every Sunday out of the Pomeroy Bend in order that the fans from that vicinity may have a chance of seeing the games. HARMON IN 1912

SO SAYS MELVIN E. INGALLS, CHAIRMAN OF THE BIG FOUR RAILROAD.

New York, May 25—The New York Evening Post to night published the following:

"That Judson Harmon, Governor of Ohio, would be nominated for President in 1912 by the Democrats, and would be elected, was a prophecy made today by Melville E. Ingalls, Chairman of the Big Four Railroad system, and the Democrat most prominently mentioned to succeed Senator Dick, of Ohio in case that state should go Democratic next fall.

"The situation in Ohio" he said today, is really very simple. There will be a state convention next month but it will be practically unanimous.

"Harmon has made a splendid Governor, and he has the confidence of the people. He has more friends today than when he took office, and even the Republicans admire him. Then, of course, the Republicans are hopelessly disorganized, and are still looking for a candidate.

I hardly think that a very great effort will be made to elect the Republican candidate.

"Would that mean that Ohio will be unanimous for him for President in 1912?" was asked.

"Decidedly. And I think that he will be nominated and elected. The country wants a man like Harmon, a man who is calm and safe, and who will give our tired nerves a rest."

"I know many Republicans active members of the party for 40 years—who are saying that their party ought to be defeated, just as a lesson."

"They think that it needs a spanking, and when that feeling is rampant there is every ground for the belief that the party is disintegrating."

Owing to the absence of the Rector as a delegate to the Diocesan Council at Fairmont, there will be no services in Christ Church next Sunday, June 5th. Mr. Davidson will return to the Parish on Monday, June 6th.

The Lay delegates to the Council are: C. K. Blackwood, J. W. C. Heslop, and W. G. Tyler.

VICIOUS DOG.

Tuesday while unloading freight at the wharf, one of the mules drawing the wagon of the Equity Mills, was badly bitten by a bull dog belonging to Mr. Gus Butler. The wagon from the Wholesale grocery was at the river at the same time and accidentally dropped a box, which scared the mules, making them jump. The dog seized one of the mules in the leg, and when finally released brought a huge piece of flesh with it. The teams both backed into the river and would have been drowned, no doubt, if the wharfbat had been sparred out for that day.
