

ANNOUNCEMENT

THE POINT PLEASANT TELEPHONE CO.,

has completed its new Copper Toll Line Circuit to Charleston, W. Va. On Monday, Oct. 31, 1910, all calls for Charleston will be handled free in order to demonstrate the efficiency of our direct service.

Call up your friend or business acquaintance and see how easily you hear them.

We are connected with over 2200 Telephones in Charleston alone and can reach your party without any delay.

Your Future Telephone Business Solicited.—Entirely on its merits.

POINT PLEASANT TELEPHONE CO., POINT PLEASANT, WEST VIRGINIA.

INTERESTING NEWS LETTERS

FROM OUR COUNTRY CORRESPONDENTS

GAP.

Grant Sayre, wife and three children were the guests of George Grady and wife, Sunday.

G. B. Rayburn, of Bee, was calling on H. V. Badgley, Sunday.

Henry Badgley was at Redhouse, Monday, on business, and also at Point Pleasant.

Harve Warner purchased a fine young team of horses, last week, from his brother, Jasper Warner. Price paid, $300.

A large crowd attended the sale of Sam Smith, Saturday.

James Marshal was a business visitor at Buffalo, last Thursday.

Politics are getting a little bit warm at present, in this section.

Orville Jividen was calling on Eighteen, last Sunday.

Frank Martin, brakeman on H. V. Ry., is at home on a visit this week.

BEALE

There was services at Bruce Chapel Sunday night.

Mrs. R. J. Bechtle, Miss Mary Wallace, Mrs. Ella Van Meter and daughter, Francis, Mrs. Martha Blaine, Mrs. Mary Henry and Mr. and Mrs. John Bechtle, attended a birthday dinner at Wyoma, Saturday. The dinner was given in honor of Mrs. Peggy Bechtle. "Aunt Peggy" as she is familiarly known, was 97 years old and quite spry for one of her age. About 40 people were present.

Rex Boice, Grover Bechtle, Misses Rilla Wallace and Esther King drove down to the Locks, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Miller, of Pt. Pleasant, are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Smith Neville, for a few days.

Truant Officer, T. C. Steele, of Pliny, was in this vicinity on business recently.

Rev. and Mrs. Friend Dye and daughter, Ruth, spent Sunday with E. Withers and family, of Ben Lomond.

Dr. Gautiere bought a fine cow from Jesse Wallace.

Sowing wheat is a thing of the past and husking corn will soon be the order of the day.

Geo. Fisher will move on the Beale farm this week.

Alvin Wallace went to Huntington on the excursion, Sunday.

Harry Morton was the guest of Grover and Chas. Bechtle, last week.

Mary Nibert spent Saturday and Sunday with her sister, Clara, in your city.

ARLEE.

Miss Ruby Lanier, who has been suffering severely from blood poisoning, is rapidly improving.

Mr. and Mrs. Alex Swisher returned home to Kiger, O., last week.

Miss Bessie Hereford was the guest of her parents at Ben Lomond, Saturday and Sunday.

Mrs. Robert Fadley and daughter, Plumy, were the guests of Mrs. Annie Fadley, Sunday.

Mrs. J. Bechtle, of Beale, were the guest of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Johnson, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Green Sydenstricker, of Columbus, is at present the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Young Shively.

Mrs. Maggie Wilker, who has been spending the week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Plants, returned home Friday.

Miss Lillie King spent Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jos. King, of Mercer's Bottom.

Mrs. Nancy Lanier, of Beech Hill, is at present the guest of Jas. Lanier and family.

Master Earnest King is very ill at this writing.

Miss Virgia Terry was the guest of Miss Tola Potts, Sunday.

Mrs. Lucila Dabney was the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Brown, of Mill Stone, Sunday.

Mrs. Zach Plants spent Thursday with her daughter, Mrs. Ella Bate-man, of Mercer's Bottom.

Mr. and Mrs. James Lanier were business visitors in Point Pleasant, Wednesday.

ECKARD CHAPEL.

Master Leslie Rawson is quite ill at this writing.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Eads, of Sebrill, were visiting his parents, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Will See were the guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Casto, of Ripley, Saturday and Sunday.

Mrs. Jessie Bumgarner and Mrs. Will Steward, of Pleasant Flats, were the guests of Mrs. J. M. Jones, Tuesday.

Mrs. Frank Rawson, of Rayburn, and Mrs. Kate Purnelle, of Dickenson, were visiting Mrs. Lillian Rawson, one day last week.

E. McKinney, the photographer, was in this vicinity last week, taking pictures.

YORK.

Mr. and Mrs. John Rice and baby of Beech Hill, spent a few days here last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Fowler spent Sunday with Wm. Fowler.

Miss Mary Hawkins spent a few days last week with friends at Gallipolis.

Those that spent Sunday with Mrs. W. C. Byrd, were Mr. and Mrs. Edward Humphrey and baby, Mrs. Cynthia Fowler and grandchild.

Alex Sands was the guest of his daughter, Mrs. Geo. Kerns, last week.

Harry Fowler is home from Columbus this week.

GUYAN.

Oscar Holley, of this place, was quietly united in marriage with Miss Nellie Macabey. We wish them a long and happy journey through life.

Our School is progressing nicely, 51 pupils were present the first week, Mr. Stevens teacher.

The frost has taken everything that is green.

Our grist mill will grind of Saturdays, now.

Rabbit hunting is the order of the days.

Those that attended the teachers district institute reported a good time.

Quarterly meeting at this place, next Sunday, Oct. 30. All are invited to attend.

The tobacco raisers claim that tobacco will run from 3 to 12c a pound, this year.

GLENWOOD.

Starkey Literary Society met Oct. 21st with good attendance, the best behavior, and the following program was rendered: Scripture reading, E. E. Meadows; Song by Society, "West Virginia Hills;" Recitation, Miss Ethel Meadows; Reading, Myrtle McCoy; Song by Society, Battle Hymn Republic; Recitation, Arthur Perry; Question for Debate Resolved that women has a right to vote," decision in favor of the affirmative.

Mrs. Eva Clarke, who has been visiting friends and relatives here, returned to her home at Huntington, Sunday.

C. A. Green, County Supt., visited Starkey School last week.

Elza McCoy and sister, Fannie, of Spurlock Creek, spent Saturday and Sunday here, as the guests of relatives.

Miss Bertha Camp, of Town Hall, spent Sunday with her uncle, Wm. Camp, of Feas Branch.

Alta Keister was at home Sunday, from Union Ridge, where she is teaching School. She was accompanied by Blanche Smith.

Miss Essie Meadows spent Saturday and Sunday with her parents, of this place.

Mr. and Mrs. Lambert Holley and son, of Guyan, visited the latter's parents, Sunday.

Mrs. Mary Ball returned home from Huntington, where she has been the week end guest of her daughter, Mrs. Essie Wallace.

Verna Meadows spent Saturday and Sunday with her uncle, S. A. Meadows, of Ashton.

Mrs. Rosa Starkey was shopping in Huntington, last week.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. M. Camp, a girl, October 20.

Those attending Teachers' Institute at Mount Zion, Saturday, from here were E. E. Meadows, Ray Campbell, Pete Wallace and Miss Iva Keister.

NEW HAVEN.

Otto Oliver, of Black Betsey, is here spending a few days with his grandmother, aunt Deb Oliver.

H. Eber Roush and C. Ray Wolfe were business callers at Graham, Monday evening.

Ned Turnbull, R. P. C. is here spending a few days with his parents.

Katie Woods, of East Liverpool, Ohio, is visiting her aunt, Mrs. Geo. F. Bumgarner.

W. W. Grimm, the truant-officer of Graham District has been very busy the past few days. Result: Better attendance in our schools.

Little Charles Miller, who has been threatened with typhoid fever is greatly improved.

Hazel McMillan spent Sunday with her parents at Board.

Quite a number from this place attended the ball game at Hartford last Thursday.

Dr. C. F. Savre of Mason called at the home of his parents, Dr. and Mrs. D. A. Sayre Sunday.

Frank Layne of Parkersburg is here spending a few weeks with his grandmother, Mrs. Geo. Chester.

Wirt Roush of Charleston is spending this week in our town.

Charles Tripp, of Gallipolis, spent Sunday with friends at this place.

GLENWOOD R. F. D. 1.

These golden autumnal days will soon be past, let's stamp improvement on every one.

The school at Starkey has a No. 1 teacher this winter. We are glad to be so lucky.

Miss Alta Keister began her school at Pine Grove, in Cabell county, last Monday.

Mrs. Blanch Meadows and Miss Alta Keister were visiting the latter's parents last Sunday.

Several people gathered at the Christian Valley church Saturday evening expecting there would be preaching but were disappointed. The preacher failed to come.

L. W. McCoy, wife and son Paul, were the guests of T. J. McCoy, Sunday.

WATERLOO.

Mr. and Mrs. B. P. Williams spent Sunday with Uncle Samuel Riffe and wife, of Capehart.

Orval Riffe visited relatives at Charleston a few days last week.

Earlie Wolfe has been having some painting done.

Mrs. Enoch Jeffers and baby, of Leon, visited her mother, Mrs. Harriet Boles, last week.

Maryland Thornton is on the sick list.

Miss Ethel Greenlee was at home from Capehart Saturday and Sunday.

(continued on page five.)