ELDORADO.

RICHMOND CORRESPONDENCE.

Extract of a Letter from A. W. Wade, Esq., to a gentleman in this place, dated Richmond, Feb. 7, 1852.

I have no news of importance to communicate, but having nothing much to do at this time, as the Senate is virtually taking a recess, while the chamber is undergoing some repairs, and there not being a quorum present, we do but little. However, I think the question of districting the counties may be considered as pretty well settled, as three propositions have been discussed at considerable length, viz: 1st. That the Governor appoint; 2d. That the county Courts appoint; 3d. That fifty committees, composed of the Senators and Delegates in each District, and that they report proper persons in each county, not to exceed eleven. The joint resolution that passed the Senate provides that the Committee should fix the number of Districts, as well as appoint the persons to perform the duty of laying them off. The amendment of the House of Delegates is that the number of Districts be determined by the Commissioners. I think there is but little doubt of the above being in substance the plan by which the counties will be districted.

I believe it likewise pretty well settled now that no appropriation bills will be discussed until the new Constitution is set afloat;—so say to the candidates for county offices had better take time by the forelock, for when the spirit once gets up in the Legislature, they may make the day of election roll round too soon for some.

There is some interest manifested at this time on the application of Mr. West, of Wetzel, to make a rail-road from Mannington to Martinsville.

FOR THE MIRROR.

Mountain Sugar Camp, Feb. 9, 1852.

Mr. Editor,—I would inform Mr. "Gold Spec," that we mountaineers can't comprehend his high-faloot phrasology; and he'd better quit writing for our amusement, or use language that we can understand; and besides we can't afford to mix with gold spec, and would prefer that he would keep his riches and knowledge among his equals. Now, Mr. Editor, perhaps you would like to know something about your humble correspondent of the Sugar-Camp. Imagine, then, a person with blue eyes, fair hair, leather specs, and a red wammus, with an iron wedge in each pocket to balance, and you have your humble correspondent. Yours,

LEATHER SPECS.

FOR THE MIRROR.

Mr. Editor—Permit me, through your columns, to suggest to the generous citizens of our town, the propriety of getting up and presenting to the Steamboat Thomas P. Ray, a handsome flag, in token of our appreciation of the honor conferred upon the memory of an old and enterprising citizen of this community in years ago; as well as of the efforts of her owners and crew to accommodate the mercantile and travelling public.

The appropriateness of such a move will strike every one; and I hope hard enough to set on foot right away the thing proposed. She is a nice craft, and the first to hang out her shingle inscribed "Morgantown and Brownsville Packet." CAPTAIN.

What would our Legislators at Richmond think of a trip like the following? If any thing would justify the taking of a holiday at the people's expense, it would be the endurance of such hardships in their service.—

From Minnesota.

Correspondence of the Buffalo Commercial Advertiser.

St. Paul, (Minnesota), Jan. 15, 1852. The territorial legislature convened one week ago yesterday. The delegation from Pembina, in the north-west, came a distance of five hundred miles with dogs and sledges, camping out during fourteen nights on the way, with the mercury, some of the time forty degrees below zero!

A Washington letter-writer informs that Mr. CLAY is constantly receiving boxes, and bottles, and packages of quack medicines, from all parts of the country, recommended for all sorts and descriptions of diseases.

Well, we suppose he has sense enough to keep them out of his throat!

The Sultan of Turkey has issued a firman in favor of Christian Protestants, allowing them to meet together freely, and permitting their marriages and births to be registered.

The cost of the Erie Railroad, and the cost of six months' fighting of the Mexicans, was about the same within a trifle.

If you want to keep your arms out of slugs, keep 'em out of you.

FREAKS OF EUPID.

What an immense edition could be sold of a complete history of runaway catches in which the author going back like a true antiquary to the earliest days of Cupid's plumes and matrimonial engagements, had faithfully described all the lowly paths in which the hegin of lovers had taken place!

A minister who resides in one of our border towns, related to us the story of two affairs that occurred under his own eye lately, in neither of which was the Shakespearean adage fulfilled that "the course of true love never did run smooth." A girl in her teens applied to him to write her to a young fellow who had become reformed in the mirror of her heart. But when the ceremony was about to issue next day, the mirror became disturbed, and the physiognomy of the enamored one was reflected there no longer in unbroken lineaments; in other words, she had changed her mind, and refused to marry him, before the very minister who had called in. Three weeks thereafter she appeared before the same minister with a different chap, and the identical thing occurred. Altar seemed to be transformed into halter in the fancy of the fickle maid, and she declined to put her head in the noose. But the tale is not yet told. Three weeks later, she came before the minister with her third choice, a verdant youth, who allowed the ceremony to proceed until it came to his turn to say "Yes," when he flatly refused, thus turning upon the fair one the same game she had played in two instances before. Whether or not she is still single this dependent saith not.

In the other affair, the lover, on reaching the town in which his expectant Dulcinea was concealed, informed the minister that he had to visit an adjoining village that evening, but would return in the morning. Next day the company assembled, the prospective bride was arrayed in flowing robes of white; the waiters grouped together with fingers imprisoned in spotless kid; the minister stood with open book in hand, but he who was to perform an important part in the hymeneal rite was no where to be found. His case differed slightly from that of Geneva. He was not fastened down in a chest, but had been confined in limbo, and two weeks after the friend who was to wait on him carried off the bride.

WINCHESTER REPUBLICAN.

Singular Fact.—Such is the scarcity of fresh eggs in this city, at present, that a mercantile acquaintance informed us yesterday, he had not vainly attempted to find any, but had so far failed in obtaining two "strictly primo" fresh eggs in the whole city, although he had offered five dollars for two eggs, which had been prescribed by a physician for a sick child. This is most certainly a fool proceeding, calling for immediate action on the part of the lay members of that class which plumes itself on the egg-set performance of its duties. The settings of the members have been unusually fruitless recently.—They must either chalk up, or lay down their abused privileges. We have had enough of mere cattle.—Pitt. Dispatch.

Winter on the Lake Border.—A dispatch from Erie, Pa. dated 15th, runs thus: "Snow preposterously deep. Two hundred passengers waiting to go East, and three hundred between here and Dunkirk to go West. No cars over New York and Erie road in four days. Snow four feet deep on the track!"

The inscription, "Liberty, Equality, Fraternity," is to be erased from the public buildings of France.

The late census shows that the number of Indians in our country is 418,000.

A farmer of New Jersey supplies a large quantity of eggs at the New York markets. He has made a fortune by the business. He owns 1200 Guinea hens, (Pentado) which lay eggs daily. Their flesh is between the turkey and pheasant as to taste and flavor, and they are easily domesticated, live in marshy places, and perch on high trees at night. Our farmers might take a hint from the above facts.

The new Medicinal Herb.

The introduction of Cachalagua from California, has been an incalculable blessing. Its extract, conjointly with Liverwort and Tar, is the basis of Dr. Rogers' Syrup of Liverwort, Tar and Cachalagua, which is working wonders in the cure of coughs and catarrhal affections. Were it used by all who have a predisposition to consumption, there would be few deaths from that disease. See their advertisement in another column. Jan. 15—

DR. ROGERS' SYRUP OF Liverwort, Tar and Cachalagua.

We might logically say why this preparation should cure, but it would be a needless waste of words, since we can summon hosts of witnesses to show that it does cure. The retarded consumptions are the witnesses: ask them. Read their testimony in the pamphlet in the Agents' hands. Read also the advertisement in another column. At January 15.

WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY imparts new vigor to vital action, and relieves the system by opening the pores of the skin, and promoting the secretion of mucous matter. Its action is soothing, sedative and expectorant; by opening the pores, relieving irritation and by rendering the expulsion of mucous matter easy.

Those who take the Balsam will feel immediate relief from the distressing irritations that accompany affections of the respiratory organs. The pores have been closed, the mucus swarms. The Lungs suffer from irritation, the irritation is soothed; the pulse is violent and feverish, they are softened, and the mucous membrane is relieved of its engorgement with mucus and ease—all by the use of this delightful remedy.

See advertisement in another column. (January 3-4)

Another Scientific Wonder! Important to Dyspeptics.—Dr. J. S. HOUVER'S PEPIN, the true Digestive Fluid, or Gastric Juice, prepared from RENNET, or the Fourth Stomach of the Ox, after directions of Baron LIEBIG, the great Physiological Chemist, by J. S. HOUVER, M.D. Philadelphia. This truly wonderful remedy for Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Jaundice, Liver Complaint, Constipation and Debility, curing after Nature's own method, by Nature's own agent, the Gastric Juice. Pamphlets containing Scientific evidence of its value, furnished by agents gratis. See notice among medical advertisements. oct29 1/2

Hundreds of our citizens complain of debility and languor of the system, derangement of the liver and stomach, want of appetite, &c.; they are frequently the result of too close application, and a thousand other causes we cannot here name; but we would say to all so afflicted, do as we have done—get a bottle of Dr. Hoffman's German Bitters, prepared by Dr. Jackson, and our word for it, you will be cured. We recommend this medicine, knowing from experience that it is much superior to the generality of patent medicines. We would say to readers, purchase some unless prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson, Philadelphia. oct29 1/2
