In the treatment of Consumption and kindred affections.—
The most absurd notions, narrow-minded prejudices, contemptible ignorance, and unidualing quackery, have lone existed in the treatment of Consumption. Men of skill and repetation as physicians, have prescribed maneous compounds to be taken into the stomach, to cure diseases of the lungs, while the brazen-faced quack held up his nostroun as the only star of hope for the consumptive—if only concept of the lungs, while the brazen-faced quack held up his nostroun as the only star of hope for the consumptive—if only concept of the lungs, while the brazen-faced quack held up his nostroun as the only star of hope for the consumptive—if only concept of the lungs, while the brazen-faced quack held up his nostroun as the only star of hope for the consumptive—if only concept of the lungs, while the brazen-faced quack held up his nostroun as the only star of hope for the consumptive—if only concept of the lungs, while the brazen-faced quack held up his nostroun as the only star of hope for the consumptive—if only concept of the lungs, while the brazen-faced quack held up his nostroun as the only star of hope for the consumptive—if only concept of the lungs, while the brazen-faced quack held up his nostroun as the only star of hope for the consumptive—if only concept is functions, and the health faus materially injured.

All must see the absurdity, the positive injury of such a course, the stomach, the positive injury of such a course, the wind of the lungs, not in the stomach; then why, in the name of common sense, day you not apply medicine directly to the lungs? The advantage of Inhaiston in Consumption and Throat Diseases is, that medicines in the form of your possible proporates, up to the lungs, where the disease exists, the stomach is thus left perfectly free to ald in restoring health, by administering to it healthy, life-giving food—Three is no case so hopeless that finalmation will not reach of the lungs and of friendship and affecti

I both wrote in favor of Inhination and practised it 16 years! The apparatus then used, with the medical agents employed, achieved only a partial success; I therefore did not claim for it then the miraculous powers which a long practice has since embled me to give it. Proof of this may be found in my work published in 1840.

Dr. Hastott.—Ser. Having analyses a bottle of your Wormwood Cordial, and tested its various qualities, I take great pleasure in giving my testimony in its favor, as the articles composing it, being entirely vegetable, are perfectly safe, and such as any unprejudiced Physician would not hesitate to prescribe to his patients. I have administered it to my wife, whose health for some time past has been exceeding-ly feeble, and it has strengthened and invigorated ber greatly. I therefore recommend it with perfect confidence to the public in all cases of Drspepsia, Debility, and all other diseases for which it is recommended.

pel8 McCLALLENS & KNOX.

Many and just objections are made to all the ordinary Liniments of the day on account of their offensive smell, and the unsightly stains often left upon the skin. A wonderful fact which has been verified to the astonishment of the most profound chemists, and the delight of fastitious patients is that in addition to its surprising curative effects, it is the most healthful cosmetic and agreeable perfume. To any part of the skin to which it may be applied it limparts a root and natural glow which lasts for many hours, and leaves the velvety softness of healthy skin, instead of the erceled and chapped appearance which is a common result of almost all other articles used for that purpose. Hence, every lady's tollet is supplied with it who knows its excellent qualities in this respect. To realize its agreeable odar you need but open one bottle and try for yourself.
