208 GROSS of the celebrated "708" Steel Pens" just re

These Pens were made in Europe expressly for our own traile, and are deemed the most desirable Steel Pens in the market by those who have used them.

We are permitted to refer to Paor, Jso. Stewart, Superintendent of July's Commercial College of this city, as to their excellence—he pronounces them to be superior to any Steel Pens heretofore used by him.

One Remedy for one Disease. Truxal is a regular physician, and stands high (in Wash, Co. Pa.) in his profession and as a man, Hi Dill. Truxal is a regular paysician, and stands high (in Wash, Co. Pa.) in his profession and as a man. His medicine is a valuable one.

Mr. Robert McKilley, of West Brownsyille, Pa., aged 31, sent to Masontown in the fall of 1851 for a bottle of Sacred Elizir, which performed a permanent cure, as will appear from the annexed certificate:

This is to certify that I was for several years afflicted with Dyspepsia, the prominent symptoms of which were, Obstinate Corliveness, Sourcess of the Stomach, Pain in the back, hips and legs, spells of Extreme weakness, Loss of desh, Langour, Debility and Gnawing at the stomach. I tried a great many remedies—went to Baldimore to consult some very eminent physicians—spent not less than one hundred dollars, but was never benefitted until I used Dr. Truxal's Sacred Elixer, one bottle of which effectnally cured me.
