WAS SENTENCED.
 Walter Flum Given Three Years in Penitentiary by Judge Mason.
 MORGANTOWN, Nov. 23.—Walter Flum, who was tried at the present term of the court on the charge of murdering Clyde Pixler on July 1, 1906, and was convicted of manslaughter, was sentenced late Wednesday afternoon by Judge John W. Mason to serve three years in the penitentiary at Moundsville.

Started for California.
 Dr. and Mrs. P. E. Ogden left yesterday for California where they will spend a part of the winter in hopes that the change will benefit the condition of Mrs. Ogden, who has been in poor health for several months. They will stop at Wheeling to visit their son, Herschel Ogden and family, and will later visit in Chicago, where they will be the guests of another son, Howard N. Ogden and family. They will also spend some time at Colorado Springs, Col., with their son, Dr. Will Ogden. Their daughter, Mrs. W. H. Spragg, of Waynesburg, Pa., has been their guest for the past week.

For that party you are giving, see Comuntzis for ice cream, salted almonds, cream wafers and everything in that line, you know we make them for you at any time.
 All Orders for Hand Painted China for Christmas must be in by December 1st.

 113 Main St., Adjoining Shaver Studio. 23-54

Will Take Subscriptions.
 The Isabella Davis Circle of King's Daughters have arranged with the Curtis Publishing Company to solicit subscriptions for the Ladies' Home Journal and the Saturday Evening Post. The subscriptions will be taken at their Christmas Bazaar which will be held during the first week of December in the Sunday school room of the M. E. Church on Main street. Save your subscriptions for them.

 Fish and oysters at Robb's.
 Price's "Is the candy" boys—get it at Hall's Flower Store.

GRAND LODGE I. O. O. F.
 Will Meet at Clarksburg Next Year—We'll All Go.
 Fairmont Odd Fellows learn with pleasure that the I. O. O. F. Grand Lodge of West Virginia will meet at Clarksburg next year. Trolley cars will be running to that city then and it will be almost like having the meeting at home.

 Comuntzis' candies and ice cream are made by them especially for you, also their delicious hot drinks.
