ELECTION DATE IN ENGLAND IN DOUBT

Composition of New Ministry May Not Be Announced Until Thursday.

LONDON, Oct. 23.—(By the Associated Press.)—Unless some unforeseen, unimagined development occurs Andrew Bonar Law will, before today ends, be Prime Minister of Great Britain.

Announcement of the composition of the new ministry and declaration of the government's program may, according to late information, be deferred until Thursday when also the dissolution of Parliament is likely to be announced.

There is much perturbation in several quarters over the report that the elections are to be held on the 14th or 15th of November, instead of the 18th, which falls on Saturday.

Dissatisfaction on this point is particularly strong in labor circles, where it is maintained that if the polling is held on any day but Saturday many labor voters will be prevented from exercising their franchise.

The Conservatives who favor a mid-week date contend November 15 and that if it is possibly postponed until Saturday there will not be time to pass the Irish legislation before the stipulated date.

Moreover, they maintain that as the polls everywhere will be open until 9 o'clock in the evening there will be plenty of time for the labor people to record their votes. This week will be crowded with party conventions and public meetings. There was what is described as an "emergency" meeting of the Conservative Liberals (often called Free Liberals) called last evening, at which Mr. Asquith and other leaders were present.

It is believed this meeting was called to frame a manifesto which will be issued shortly.

The executive committee of the Labor party meets in London tomorrow to arrange its program, which will be issued as a manifesto immediately afterward. This announcement that Ramsay MacDonald will appear for the Conservative platform has stirred remarkable interest everywhere. The possibility of his appointment as chancellor of the exchequer is generally discussed.

To Support Lloyd George. LONDON, Oct. 23.—There is a strong probability, declares a Central News dispatch from Edinburgh today, that the Scottish temperance vote which in 1918 was cast against the Coalition will be cast at the forthcoming election for candidates supporting Lloyd George.

Leading temperance organizations are meeting to discuss the situation and many minor conferences have already passed resolutions in support of Lloyd George.

It was pointed out by an official of the United Kingdom that such an attitude would mark a departure from previous stands of the Scottish temperance organization which heretofore had always supported individuals declaring themselves in favor of temperance voters would amount to approximately 400,000 votes, judging from the anti-license vote at the last election.

BELLVIEW

Price-Putnam. A pretty ceremony was celebrated at the home of the Rev. and Mrs. T. G. Meredith Thursday evening when Miss Nellie Merle Price became the bride of Leonard Putnam.

Witnesses to the marriage were Miss Ola Cunningham and Fred Price, the latter of whom is a brother of the bride. Mrs. Putnam was gown in a traveling costume of blue with hat and accessories to match. Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Putnam left for Wheeling and other western cities where they will spend a few days.

Mrs. Putnam is the daughter of Mrs. Zana B. Price of 496 Bellview Avenue. Mr. Putnam was formerly a resident of Petroleum, W. Va. for the past few years he has resided in Fairmont and is employed at the B. and O. R. R. shops. For the past two years Mrs. Putnam has taught in the Montana schools. On their return here they will reside temporarily with the bride's mother on Bellview Avenue.

Bible Class. The Worth While Bible Class held a meeting Thursday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Marlowe of Meredith Springs. The meeting for this week will also be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred A. Bradley on Naomi street, Hallowen Party.

Friday evening a number of young people were entertained at a masquerade party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Sapp of 310 Murray Avenue honoring the former's sister, Miss Agnes Sapp. The home was decorated for the occasion, autumn flowers being effectively used. Games and music were the diversions of the evening and refreshments were served. The guests present were the Misses Shining Stars Entertain. Honoring the parents of the members of the Shining Stars Sunday School Class of the Highland Avenue M. E. Church, Mrs. J. C. Hupp, teacher of the class, gave a program last Thursday evening. Autumn flowers were used as decorations. Every member of the class had a part in the program; each pupil representing a character from the lesson stories they have had in the past year, and each one told a story of the hero whom they represented.

The following was the character: Ruth Carroll, Mrs. Hardy, foster-mother of Nasina, Japanese boy; Josephine Dots, Indian chief, story of Indian's search for white man; "Book of Heaven"; Gretchen Mahaffey, New York tenement girl, story of Jacob Riss; Maxine Russell, physician, story of Walter Reed; Dolly Pitzer, cannibal chief, story of John G. Paine; Grace Toothman, Indian maid, story of James Evans; Catherine Smith, servant girl of Burma, story of Adronim Judson; Edith Martin, man from Africa, story of David Livingston; Laura Murray, Paul, story Paul's conversation and missionary journey; Eugenia Reynolds, Red Cross nurse, story of Clara Barton; Edna Riggs, Chinaman, story of Robert Morrison; Thelma Stevens, missionary, story of George McKay; Collier, story of William Carey.

Ruth Carroll and Josephine Dots sang a duet, Gretchen Mahaffey, Maxine Russell and Eugenia Reynolds each gave a piano solo. There were two songs by the entire class. Prizes were given for the best stories. The first prize was given to Dolly Pitzer, the second prize to Laura Murray and the third prize to Maxine Russell. Each of the three received a book. The judges were Mrs. Lawrence Hightinbotham, Mrs. Fred Bradley and Miss Eleanor Durrett. Following the program the guests were served with ice cream.

New Home. Mr. and Mrs. Ross Price, whose marriage was an event of a few months ago and who have since been residing on Bellview Avenue, have moved to a new home on the East Side which they recently purchased.

EAST SIDE NEWS

First M. P. Service. The first quarterly conference of the conference year will be held this evening at 7:30 o'clock at the First M. P. Church.

The ladies of the church will meet at the church this evening to make arrangements for the reception which will be given for the new pastor and his wife the Rev. and Mrs. J. J. Phillips, Thursday evening.

Attend Funeral. A large crowd of relatives, neighbors and friends of Mrs. Emma Dowdy gathered at Mount Zion Church Sunday at 12:50 o'clock for her funeral, which was conducted by the Rev. Frank Morgan, assisted by the Rev. A. E. Michael. A choir from the Mount Zion Church sang favorite hymns of the deceased.

Among those in attendance from Fairmont were Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Cox, Mrs. David Rogers, Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Vandilder, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Satterfield, Brooks Nuzum, Mr. and Mrs. Will Moran, Miss Jettie Moran, Mrs. Bruce Morgan, and daughter, Mrs. Wayne Meredith, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Little and children and Alpha Vandilder, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh McDaniel, Fred Swisher, Miss Blanche Swisher, of Granton, Mr. and Mrs. James Rogus of Morgantown and Mrs. John Kiser of Trifune. A sister, Mrs. Camden Swisher of Granton, had been at her bedside at Colfax for the past four weeks.

Family Social. Wednesday evening a family social will be held at the Palatine Baptist church in connection with the regular prayer meeting. The social committee has made special plans for the meeting and is anxious that as many whole families as possible be present.

To New Martinsburg. Mrs. S. C. Watkins of East Park Avenue and Mrs. L. O. Shingleton and children of Maryland Avenue motored to New Martinsburg Friday and spent the weekend with relatives. S. C. Watkins and L. O. Shingleton went down Sunday and accompanied them home.

Visiting Sister. Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Oldaker of Mount Vernon, Ohio, were recent guests of the latter's sister Mrs. W. K. Brown, at the home of her son, Lute Brown on Diamond street. George Rinehart of Shinnston a brother of Mrs. Brown was her guest also.

FOREIGN WAR VETS TO MEET TOMORROW

The Fairmont post of Veterans of Foreign Wars will hold a regular meeting tomorrow night at 7:45 o'clock in the K. of P. Hall in the American Building. In addition to important business, State Commander Callahan of the West Virginia department will be present to address the local members, who are being urged to attend in large numbers. Post Commander Schwarm will officiate.

Action will be taken on the change to be made in the time and place of the local meetings at tomorrow night's session. The business of discussing the class for admission to membership will also be held at this time in addition to adopting the new ritual, to be used for the first time in West Virginia, recently adopted by the national headquarters. Other matters of importance will also be discussed and acted upon.

TWO INQUIRIES INTO FIRE STARTED TODAY. NEW YORK, Oct. 23.—Two separate inquiries were launched today into the origin of the fire early Sunday morning in which fifteen lives were lost, seventeen injured and one hundred and fifty persons made homeless. Fire Marshal Thomas Brophy was in charge of one investigation and Assistant District Attorney John Hennis of the other.

The fire was thought to have started under the main stairway in the hall of a five story double tenement structure at 110th street and Lexington Avenue. Six baby carriages had been parked there the evening before. In many aspects the fire was similar to one on the same street but on the West Side a month ago in which seven lives were lost.

Six members of the family of Abraham Sugarman were burned to death and five or six members of the Silver family lost their lives in the flames. Several of the dead were killed in jumping from the burning structure.

Two bodies, those of a man and woman, were charred so badly as to render identification difficult if not impossible.

PERMANENT INJUNCTION FOR VESSELS REFUSED. NEW YORK, Oct. 23.—Federal Judge Learned Hand today handed down a decision dismissing the motion of foreign and American shipping companies for a permanent injunction restraining federal prohibition agents from putting into effect the bone dry ruling of Attorney General Daugherty. He extended the stay temporarily, however, providing that the steamship companies file an immediate appeal to the United States Supreme Court.

Those Little Things

"Little things, ah, little things make up the sum of life" and the Want ads, although they may be classed as little things, wield great influence in the affairs of this work-a-day world.

The Wants are little things that accomplish big results in many ways; they are close to the heart needs of the public and radiant with opportunities for those who take advantage of them.

This Date in History

LIFE AND CHARACTER HEADLINE. OCTOBER 23. People born on this date come under the sign of Libra-Scorpio. This is a peculiarly hard couple. Libra is said to rule the abdominal organs, and Scorpio the genital organs, and the focusing of these influences upon one part of the body is very difficult for the ordinary unawakened soul to bear.

Teachers should see that education of this date have an open mind and are illuminated through their own natural bent of genius and originality of producing things. They should always be permitted to have their own way when not entirely wrong.

The governing planet of this date is still Venus, the goddess of love. The birthstone is a diamond or opal, although the opal is to be preferred. The astral colors are black, crimson and light blue.
