POLITICS IN LONDON.

Seems as Though the Stock Market There Depended on American Election—The S. P. Presidency.

New York, Nov. 5.—The Herald's London special says:

All eyes have been turned on the United States for the last few days, and it almost seems from the talk with city brokers that the fate of London markets hangs as much on the result of the American elections as do the New York markets.
New York has become such a factor in the financial world that any serious disturbance of the monetary conditions there would be viewed with great alarm in European capitals. Everybody in England believes that Mr. Bryan has no chance of defeating McKinley, but the American section of the market is a bit nervous for all that.

One of the features of the American market has been the enormous buying of calls on Southern Pacific. The selection of Mr. Hay as successor to Mr. Collis P. Huntington was made, it is thought here, through the advice of President Callaway of the New York Central.

Mr. Hay's resignation as the general manager of the Grand Trunk took the British shareholders by surprise, and Sir Charles Rivers Wilson, president of the Grand Trunk, left for America yesterday, to look the ground over.

HOBSON MAY LOSE HIS SIGHT.

There is said to be grave danger of Lieut. Hobson's going blind.
While in Manila and Hong Kong he contracted a disease of the eyes, aggravated by overwork, which is regarded as serious. The young constructor consulted an oculist here, who advised him to take a long rest. It is said he is preparing to spend six months in Europe under the care of eminent specialists.

BIG PEARL DISCOVERY.

Great Rush Is Now On For Upper Mississippi River.

Prairie du Chien, Wis. Nov. 4.
—Discovery of pearls in the upper Mississippi river has caused a tremendous rush to the river and more than 1000 persons are encamped along the river bank.

One of the pearls recently found weighed 400 grains and is said to be largest perfect pearl yet taken from the river. It sold for $3000.

PUNISHMENT TO FIT THE CRIME.

Client (angrily)—I say, this bill of yours is a downright robbery!
Great criminal lawyer (who has won his client's case)—So was your crime.—Stray Stories.

WANTED TO SEE JONES.

Curious People Trying to Get a Peep at Rice's Valet.

New York, Nov. 4.—Many curious people went to the Bellevue hospital this afternoon in the hope of seeing Charles F. Jones, valet of the dead millionaire, William M. Rice. The curious persons walked up to the prison yard where Jones lies behind a big screen, and tried to peer in at him, but he was effectually hidden from view. He objects to visitors, and in fear that the screen will not prove effective enough to keep him from sight he uses a newspaper to hide behind.
He has a hole cut in the middle of this about the size of a silver dollar, and peeped through the hole at those outside. Two young women, arrayed in gorgeous apparel as to color, were admitted to the prison ward by passes during the afternoon and asked for Jones.
Their names could not be learned, and Jones was simply told that two women wanted to see him. He did not even inquire who they were, but sent word that he did not want to see them. They seemed, or affected to be, indignant, and hurriedly went away.

Jones read the Sunday papers all day, and was in very good spirits and seemingly not depressed at all.

It is expected he will be in a condition to go back to the Tombs in a day or two.

FIGHTING ELECTION FRAUDS.

John Wanamaker Has Made a Handsome Deposit.

Philadelphia, Penn., Nov. 4.— Ex Postmaster General Wanamaker forwarded a communication today to the Business Men's Republican League committee of 100.
Municipal League, Trades League and the Law and Order Society in which he announces he has deposited with a trust company $50,000 in marketable railway bonds to secure payment of that amount in cash to a committee representing the various organizations, to be used as a fund for defraying the necessary expenses for the investigation of frauds against the ballots in the coming election and the municipal one next February.

AMERICANS ARE MEAT EATERS.

Ladies' Home Journal.

The people of the United States use more meat than the people of any other nation. England ranks second, and the other countries come far below. A person may eat meat perhaps to advantage once a day. It is not necessary, however, that meat should be on the table three times a day; in fact, it is an objectionable custom.

The United States supplies the largest proportion of visitors from abroad to Carlyle's birthplace at Ecclefechan, in Dumfriesshire.

NEW PROCESS FOR PAPER.]

Pulp Can Be Made from Cotton Seed Hulls.

New York, November 1.—The Thomas Fiber company, recently organized in Trenton, N. J., may cut the cost of paper in two.
The fiber company was formed to thoroughly test the discovery of Robert Thomas that pulp can be made from cotton seed hulls at one half the cost of the manufacture from wood pulp.

Robert Thomas, discoverer of the new use of cotton seed hulls, was for thirty years in the paper making business in the South, and a few months ago, while operating a small mill in Florida, he learned the chemical action which will reduce the hulls to pulp.

Seeing the big fortune in his discovery, Mr. Thomas sold his mill and spent all his time and money making machinery. He came to this city a short time ago to get capitalists interested in his invention.

Officers of the National Salt company took up Mr. Thomas' invention and organized the fiber company, with A. S. White, president of the salt company, as its chief director.

ROAD TO BE ABANDONED.

Hermosilla, Mexico, November 4.—The construction of the branch line of the Sonora road, which is a part of the Southern Pacific, to the San Marcial coal fields in this State has been stopped and it is reported that the project is to be abandoned. The building of this road was one of the principal projects of C. P. Huntington during the late years of his life.

Land thickly covered with timber indicates good land; where the trees are scattering and not very tall indicates poor land.

There have been 154,852 children enrolled in the public schools of Brooklyn, N. Y., and admission had to be refused to 2316 others.

Monogrammed Gloves.

The monogrammed glove is the very latest thing, and, of course, it is worn only by the extremist of fashion. To make the monogrammed gloves you get a pair of plain kid gloves, with as little stitching upon the back as possible.
Black and white are the best colors.
Now mark upon the back of the gloves your monogram, or get it stamped there. With silk the color of your walking dress you now embroider the monogram, making it about the size of a quarter. You will find that it is very becoming to the hand, and the custom of wearing the embroidered glove will grow upon you until you will want no other.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

Bread Pancakes.

Take stale bread and soak over night in sour milk; in the morning rub through a colander, and to one quart add the yolks of two eggs and a teaspoonful of salt, one tablespoonful of baking powder, two tablespoonfuls of sugar and flour enough to make a batter a little thicker than for fried cakes; add last the well-beaten whites of the eggs and bake.—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

Makes Him Crazy.

Mrs. Nextdore—Does your husband like music.
Mrs. Peppery—Yes, he's quite fond of it.
"I suppose he has heard my daughter playing."
"Yes, and he just raves over her playing."
