CHARLES A. BOUTELLE.

The Demented Congressman's Life and His Daughter's Gentle Uare.

Waverly, Mass.—Mad but not forsaken is Congressman Charles A. Boutelle of Maine. By no means forsaken, since his sentimental constituents of Bangor have re-elected him to his seat in the House of Representatives in the hope of thereby aiding in the recovery of his reason—and incident almost if not quite unique in the history of politics.

But this generosity brings no comfort to the afflicted statesman.
The very news of it can not penetrate the clouds that darken his once vigorous mind. All that he cares about, all that he has to lighten his distress, is the companionship of his daughter.

Miss Grace Boutelle drives every day from her lodging to the Mc Lean insane asylum, intent on devoting all her waking hours to her afflicted father.

If it is fine they start for a long drive and the patient skips to the carrage, clapping his hands and laughing aloud. If it is showery they watch their opportunity for cautious excursions into the garden.

Again and again she repeats a few simple words expressing one simple idea. If he is in a docile mood—and that is most often his condition when he is allowed to go out with her—he repeats the words after her, sometimes haltingly, sometimes fluently, with a flash of the old oratorical effect.

But the idea it is impossible always to tell whether it fastens itself on his consciousness or not.
Sometimes it does, but only to be detached the next moment. Sometimes he seeks to reply rationally, but weeps to find himself uttering the reverse of what he wants to say.

Through all trials and failures and fleeting successes his daughter exhibits the protecting care of a mother striving to develop the intelligence of her child.

One idea he stubbornly refuses to entertain. He can not be made to understand that he is still a Congressman—that his constituents have re-elected him in spite of his mental affliction. Such a triumph of sentiment in the harsh world of politics is beyond his comprehension. And so the purpose of that amazing act of generosity on the part of the people of Bangor is defeated.

Congressman Boutelle became insane in Washington ten months ago. He has been in the asylum ever since. False reports have been circulated to the effect that he was recovering and would soon be able to resume his seat in Congress.
The truth is that there has been no improvement in his condition.—

THE POLITICAL ISSUES IN HAWAII.

Race Question Had Nothing to do With the Recent Result.

Chicago, Ill., Nov. 25.—"Much misconception has gone abroad as to the objects of the native party of Hawaii and the victory they achieved in the recent election," said H. T. Marsh, a business man from Honolulu, who was in Chicago today.

The impression has gone abroad that the victory of the natives in electing Wilcox, a native, to Congress, and in electing a majority of the members of both houses of the Territorial Legislature makes the race issue the predominating issue in the politics of Hawaii.

"The sugar planters have expressed fears that the natives would use their power in the Legislature by passing measures injurious to their interests, and many forebodings have been expressed in correspondence from the islands.

"The race question had no more to do with the last election for President than to influence the natives to vote together in order to get their proper representation.
There is none of the feeling between the whites and the natives in Hawaii such as causes a race problem. The average Hawaiian compares well in intelligence and morality with the average American.

"The leaders of their party are men of intelligence and education, and I consider that the result of the election, placing the natives in power as it does, is as satisfactory as could be expected, and it will not be surprising to many if the action of the Hawaiian legislative bodies shall be such as will class the Hawaiian people higher in the opinion of Americans than at present.

"I do not believe they will take advantage of their power to pass class legislation. Their sole object in forming the party is to gain the representation which was denied them under the old republic, and the future existence of the party depends on the attitude of the Democratic and Republican parties toward the natives, who are in the largest majority in the islands."

DALY WEALTH AT CLARK'S MERCY.

Chicago Chronicle.

Butte, Mont.—Senator William A. Clark of Montana has the power to force the great Amalgamated Copper company into bankruptcy and squeeze the fat of the Standard trust's molster sponge. Oddly enough, the senators' old enemy, Marcus Daly, furnished the power that gives Clark the mighty hold he claims he can topple the Amalgamated smelters into his own baili-wick. The lever is hewn from the millions of feet of lumber that the Anaconda company is charge with taking from United States land in Montana. In ten years past, Clark contends, $1,000,000,000 worth of timber has been cut off to supply the Anaconda-Amalgamated demand, in defiance of Federal laws.

For the first time in his life Clark has absolute control of State politics and his re-election to the United States senate is assured. He is pledged by his own words and the utterances of his paper, the Butte Miner, to prosecute the Federal claims against the Amalgamated. Clark has said the case is clear. He points to mountain sides shorn of their forests, to the great saw mills owned by the Amalgamated mines at Butte, the smelters at Anaconda the vast tract of coal mines at Belt where the lumber is used, as evidence to base his charges. His complaint before the senate will charge the Amalgamated Copper company with purloining young growth, thus precipitating drought, injuring sheep raising and making placer mining impossible. Damages accruing from the alleged depredations will be set at $100,- 000,000.

AFFAIRS IN PORTO RICO.

Some Crying Needs of the Island Pointed Out In Report.

Washington, D. C., Nov. 25.— The commissioner of the interior for Porto Rico, William H. Elliott, in his annual report to the Secretary of the interior says that most expert manipulation as well as detective ingenuity will be needed to untangle the mass of cross titles, duplication and tapping of grants and concessions and unauthorized occupation of the public lands that have grown with the centuries of rule in the interest of the favored few.

The first crying need of Porto Rico, the report says, is good roads.

The productiveness of the soil is so great and the necessities for existence so inexpensive that people can and do live and multiply in mountain districts, but remain forever poor and ignorant. Permanent roads, it is predicted, will work out the sadly needed reforms in education. The commissioner proposes to suggest to the Legislature that a loan be floated large enough for building the most needed roads at once.

CUBANS REJECT SBARETTI.

Havana, Nov. 25.—At a meeting held in Havana to-day by the opponents of Mgr. Sbaretti, bishop of Havana, General Gomez presented a resolution that all the municipalities should send the bishop telegrams informing him that he was not wanted by the Cubans and asking him to retire in favor of a Cuban ecclesiastic.

All the speakers accused Mgr.
Sbaretti of being too much of an American in his Point of view and of favoring annexation to the United States.
