THE DAILY HERALD

MONDAY, JANUARY 18, 1909.

PERSONALS.

G. R. Falligant visited the city Saturday night.

Gordon Miles of San Benito spent today in town.

S. J. Schorenberg spent today in Santa Maria.

C. P. Dawson left this morning for McAllen on business.

A. J. Biggio was a business visitor in Mercedes today.

Miss M. M. Philpott of San Benito is spending the day in town.

Dr. S. K. Hallam spent today in Donna with a party of prospectors.

J. R. Park and W. Ryler of McAllen are business visitors in the city.

Editor I. Moritz of the Mercedes Enterprise spent Sunday in the city.

Rev. C. E. W. Smith made a business trip up the branch this morning.

A. F. Batz and Miss Florence Batz of San Benito spent yesterday in the city.

Rev. L. R. Burreas spent today in Harlingen, the guest of his son, Jesse D. Burreas.

Mrs. J. F. Mossberg of Santa Maria is among the visitors in the city, registered at the San Carlos Hotel.

Will S. Dunn, right of way agent for the S. A. & R. G. railroad, after spending Sunday in the city, left this morning for San Benito.

Judge A. W. Cunningham expects to leave tomorrow on a short business visit to his old home at Waco. He will be absent about a week.

P. S. Champion, the genial Hidalgo County ranchman, came down yesterday to spend several days in town.

Misses Dora and Nellie Kimball of Raymondville are spending a few days in the city, being guests of the Riverside Hotel.

H. L. Foster and I. Bartholomew of Lyford are among the many visitors in the city.

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Kerchner and grandson, Harry Burns of Kiowa, Kans., are visiting the city, on a prospecting tour.

B. V. Ray of Kiowa, Kan., who is spending the winter at Corpus Christi, came down yesterday for a short visit to Brownsville.

Mrs. W. H. Clay left last week for Corsicana, Texas, where she will spend several weeks with her mother, Mrs. C. D. McDavitt.

Thos. L. Jones of Harlingen came down on the branch yesterday afternoon and is spending a few days with his many friends in the city.

C. W. Robards of Kingsville, assistant attorney for the St. L., B. & M. railroad, is in the city on legal business for the company.

Hon. A. M. McFaddin of Victoria, accompanied by Mrs. McFaddin, arrived Saturday night, to spend a few days seeing Brownsville and the Valley. Mr. McFaddin is one of the largest cattle owners of South Texas.

Chas. B. Mullaly of San Antonio, ex-president of the San Antonio Business Men's Club, arrived in the city

Saturday night to look after property in the Valley in which he is interested. Mr. Mullaly left this morning for San Benito, near which place he owns some land.

Maj. Eugene Gordon of Amarillo, Texas, who is a brother of Gen. J. B. Gordon, the late Confederate leader, has been visiting the Valley for the past week, looking over the country with a possible view to making investments. Maj. Gordon, like his distinguished brother, is a native of Georgia, and he too was an officer in the Confederate army in the great struggle of the Civil war. He is now a well seasoned Texan, however, and evidently likes our great state well enough to acquire more interests here, if he can find just what he wants.

FARMERS' INSTITUTE AT SAN BENITO TODAY

Other Points in Valley Will Follow Throughout the Week With Institutes.

Secretary R. N. Magill of the Lower Rio Grande Valley Commercial Club, Sam H. Dixon, state inspector of nurseries and editor of the agricultural department of the Houston Semi-Weekly Post, Prof. Wellborn of the A. and M. College, Geo. Onderdonk of Victoria, special agent for the department of agriculture and B. M. Anderson of Palestine, secretary of the Texas Home Canners' Association, and editor of the truck and fruit department of the National Cooperative and Farm Journal, left this morning for San Benito, where they go to hold the second of the series of farmers' institutes in the Valley, today.

Tomorrow an institute will be held at Harlingen, Wednesday at Mercedes, Thursday at Donna, Friday at McAllen and Saturday at Mission. It is the purpose of these gentlemen to organize these institutes at each place named and have them hold a meeting once a month in their own community, and an annual meeting, which will be presided over by the commissioner of agriculture, at Brownsville.
