LOCAL ITEMS

YOU CAN'T AFFORD NOT TO ADVERTISE.
 You can't afford to be too poor to advertise. When you cut expenses do it some other way. The people read the paper and use it as an index of what the town is and what the stores and business houses are. If you don't advertise you had just as well put up a sheriff's sale announcement as far as getting ahead is concerned.

Always take Club boat to Tarpon. 7-31-tf.
Crystal White—A perfect family laundry soap. There are many "White Soaps" but no other as good as "Crystal White." Being made entirely from "Vegetable Oils" without any adulterations it can be used on the most delicate fabrics. Lathers freely in hard water and is easy on the hands. "Crystal White Laundry Soap" will save you "Money," "Time" and "Labor." For sale by all dealers. 8-3-4t

Not Corinthian Columns.—For the sake of accuracy, it should be stated that the columns on the new Methodist church were incorrectly described in Monday's Herald as Corinthian columns. The columns come nearer the Doric style, but do not at all approach the Corinthian.

Electric Theater Program Tonight
 "Three Tots in Land of Nod," beautifully colored; "Child of the Regiment," "Martins Leave Home for a Week" (comic), "Every Lass a Queen" (comic). Tomorrow "Napoleon the Great." A grand historical representation of the Napoleonic era. It

More Trachomatous Aliens.—Two Mexicans from Matamoros, Mexico, Basilio Aguilar and Ramon Nilo, who yesterday applied at the local immigration office for admission into this country, were debarred on account of both of them being afflicted with trachoma.

 Mr. Newman III at Dubuque—News is received that D. B. Newman of this city is quite ill at Dubuque, Iowa, where he went last week, with his brother-in-law, E. H. Goodrich, on account of the serious illness of the latter's wife. Mrs. Goodrich, who was at the hospital at Dubuque, having recovered sufficiently to return to the home of her parents in Bloomington, Wis., which is near Dubuque. Mr. Newman was taken ill with fever after arriving at Dubuque.

Airship Trial Flight Tomorrow—Unless there should be a sudden change in plans, the Newman aeroplane will make its first real attempt to fly under its own power tomorrow, the time of day depending upon weather conditions. The stockholders have been notified that all is in readiness and a number of automobile parties have been formed to go out to Mesquite where the trial will take place.

Like Angels' Visits—The visits of the city scavengers are few and far between, and garbage boxes often overflow, spreading their unclean contents over streets and alleys while waiting to be emptied.

Those Dirty Streets—Trash seems to be thrown indiscriminately on the streets, although there is an ordinance prohibiting the practice.

Proved His Case.
 Mr. Pinchpenny stepped aboard the car downtown and paid his fare, but the conductor, who was very busy, forgot that he had received the nickel, and in a little while again held out his hand for the fare.
 "I paid you a mile back," protested Mr. Pinchpenny.
 "I think not," rejoined the conductor.
 "I say I did."
 "I say you didn't."
 Mr. Pinchpenny hesitated a moment, and then said with the air of an injured citizen:
 "Don't you remember a man that got on about five minutes ago and held on to his nickel as if he hated to give it up, and you almost had to pry it out of his hand?"
 "Yes."
 "Well, that was me," said Mr. Pinchpenny.
 "All right," said the conductor with a grin, as he passed on.
