

We Carry a Complete Line of School Supplies

School Days are Here

and Tiss & McMORRAN have the largest and most complete stock of school supplies in the city
Tablets, lead pencils, pencil boxes, slates, slate pencils, rules, pens and holders, fountain pens and crayons

Also carry everything in the school line

Wall Paper Wall Paper

Ask your paper hanger who sells the wall paper in Newport, if he is honest with you he'll tell you TISS & McMORRAN. Why is it? Because our prices are 15 per cent. lower.

Our paper is of standard quality. Every roll has seventy two feet.

EDISON and

COLUMBIA

PHONOGRAPHS

TISS & McMORRAN

JUST AMONG OURSELVES

For acre tracts see Archie J. Slusser. Good house and lot for sale. Inquire of W. F. Millard.

Charley O'Hara, who has been quite ill, is up and hustling again.

J. E. Williams, of Ruby, was transacting business in this city Monday.

R. R. Russell, of Breckenridge, Idaho, was a Newport visitor last Saturday.

Joe Berneck is preparing for the commencement of his new livery and sale stables on the south side.

Mrs. L. R. Flynn left Thursday noon for Breckenridge, Minn., where she will spend the winter visiting friends.

John Fredreck, the jeweler, came up from his ranch on the lower river Thursday to transact business in this city for a day or two.

It will save you money to place your orders for baled wheat hay, baled oat straw and good dry oats with Geo. H. Jones, of Usk, Wash. 11-24

M. Fox & Co., the hay and grain merchants, have recently installed a heavy platform scale in front of their feed warehouse on the south side.

Harry Saddler, the drayman, was out to his logging camp at Colburn Tuesday, and reports work progressing favorably. About thirty men are now employed.

M. C. Kelley, a prominent capitalist and mining man of Denver, Col., left Thursday morning for the Metalines, where he goes to make an examination of properties in that vicinity.

Nels Peter Hanson and Clifford A. Roys, of Usk, and Paul C. Roth, of Cusick, have given notice of intention to make final proof on their homesteads before U. S. Commissioner Rogers at Newport.

A part of the McInnis planer machinery was moved to Spirit Lake Monday by the Panhandle Lumber Co., which has purchased the McInnis interests and will use the planer at Spirit Lake.

The surveyors' camp of the Idaho & Washington Northern Railroad, which has been located down the river at Indian Creek for several months, has been abandoned, but the crew will be kept in service for some time longer.

Managers Wolf & Harris take pleasure in announcing the engagement of Clarence Bennett's majestic biblical drama, taken from that most sacred book, "The Holy City," dealing with the life of "John the Baptist." This is the strongest and most instructive work known to humanity—a study for the masses. This great drama is beautifully staged, interpreted by a capable company and indorsed by press, public and clergy. At the Opera House on Tuesday evening, Nov. 12.

STEVE HARRIS

Blacksmith.
Horse Shoeing Wagon Making

ANKERSON'S ADDITION

NORTON'S ADDITION

Sales in these favored additions have been very satisfactory. A large number of lots have been sold to Newport people and outsiders for building purposes and investment. I will continue to sell lots at the same low prices until I dispose of half my holdings, when prices will be raised to something nearer their present value. Buy now in the most sightly place in Newport. City water in front of every lot. Soil free from rocks and level. Terms to suit.

A CORNER—Four lots on Newport Ave. and G. N. right of way for business purposes. Three lots on State Ave., a snap. Several small houses on the installment plan. A few good ranches at bargains. List your bargains with me.

R. T. ANKERSON, Owner. Opp. Postoffice.

J. Keener, of Cusick, was in this city Wednesday.

Mayor Vawter was transacting business in Spokane Friday.

Capt. Lanneau, of Metaline, was in this city last Saturday.

Sam Hauser, of Bluesday, was transacting business in this city Monday.

A. Foiles, the heavy batter of the Newport ball nine, has returned to our city.

N. C. Fassett, a prominent mining man of Tonopah, was in this city last Sunday.

Lineman Kirlin, of the Pacific States Telephone Company, made a trip to Colburn, Idaho, Tuesday.

W. S. Beckwith, of Spokane, passed through here last Tuesday on a hunting trip to the Metaline country.

Dr. G. B. Mann moved his office outfit up from Spokane this week and is now a permanent resident of Newport.

Mrs. Emma Parker spent Monday and Tuesday of this week visiting at the home of her sister, Mrs. J. B. Froome.

FOR SALE—Inside corner, 45x100; fine location; 150 feet from Washington avenue sidewalk. Inquire at the Miner office.

M. L. Scranton and wife, of Deer Park, have moved to our city. Mr. Scranton has secured a position with the Lund Hardware Co.

W. L. Wakeley, the well known mining expert and capitalist, passed through this city Tuesday, en route from the Metalines to Spokane.

The Silver Birch Dairy wagon, which was smashed in a runaway about three weeks ago, has been rebuilt and painted and is in commission again.

Locating Engineer Russell, of the Idaho & Washington Northern Railroad, was in town Wednesday looking after the business of his company.

Postmaster R. I. Towle is confined to his residence by sickness, and M. M. Sammons is assisting in the postoffice during Mr. Towle's absence.

Ralph Kennedy says that the gun that held him up the other night was of a new-sized calibre. He would judge it to be about the size of a stove pipe.

Capt. Clarence Sample has filed a timber claim on the headwaters of Small Creek, but has not stated whether he intends to run a steamboat or balloon line up there.

The Blackwell road is reported to be getting rid of the Greeks and Montenegrans who have been working on the construction gangs, and will put American laborers on instead. About forty new men arrived from Spokane on No. 4 Thursday and went out to the railroad's camp west of town.

E. R. Ross, of Spokane, the well known mining man, passed through this city Wednesday, en route to the Metalines, where he has extensive interests. Mr. Ross informs THE MINER that in his opinion there will be a rush to the camp in the spring. The building of the concentrator will, of course, be the most potent factor in the future success of the Metaline camp.

For acre tracts see Archie J. Slusser. FOR SALE—My span of ponies, cheap. E. W. Stevens.

E. J. Kichemaster was a Bluesday visitor this week.

Chilt Turnbull was a visitor at Bonners Ferry Tuesday evening.

Joe Williams, of Ruby, was transacting business in our city last Monday.

Mrs. F. E. Braddock left Wednesday evening for Spokane and returned Thursday.

W. N. Rogers, of the Northern Mercantile Co., was at Spokane the first of the week.

Captain Stewart, of the Spokane, is confined to his bed with a severe attack of rheumatism.

FOR SALE—21-room hotel and fixtures; will be sold cheap. Address J. W. Cusick, Cusick, Wash. 22-14

Joe Fea went to Spokane Saturday morning, where he will attend the Northwestern Business College.

W. A. Chrysler, of Mullan, Idaho, is visiting his father and other relatives in this city. He will remain here for several days.

C. Streidt, of Bates City, Missouri, is the guest of F. W. Vawter, and likes Newport so well that he is thinking of locating here.

Mr. Evans and Mr. Ralsbach, of Spokane, who are interested in the Idaho Lime Co.'s plant at Albeni Falls, were Newport visitors Tuesday.

Simon L. Shubert relinquished his homestead this week, and Mary M. Humphrey filed on the same land before U. S. Commissioner Rogers.

FOR SALE—One team of fine brood mares in foal to registered horse, weight 2900 pounds, age 8 and 9; one spring wagon and farm harness. S. McGee.

Mrs. Walter Rogers, wife of the manager of the Northern Mercantile Co., returned from Spokane Thursday, where she has been visiting friends for a few days.

Iver Handseth, of Newport, has given notice of his intention to make final proof on the homestead claim of his deceased uncle, Christian Handseth, for the benefit of the heirs before Commissioner Rogers.

Twin girls were born to Mr. and Mrs. William Krause, of this city, Friday morning, Nov. 8. They weighed 6-7-8 and 6-3-8 pounds respectively. All are getting along nicely under the care of Dr. Boudwin, and will wear the smile that won't come off.

Mrs. Joseph Burns, who with her family left this city some months ago for Joplin, Mo., where she expected to make her home, returned to Newport Thursday noon, and has decided that this city beats Joplin—or, in fact, any Missouri point—for making a home.

The home talent production of "A Texas Steer" at the Opera House Monday evening was enjoyed by a large crowd and was repeated on Thursday evening. The home talent, under the direction of Louis Hull Dence, gave a very good production of this clever comedy, and every member of the cast is entitled to praise and congratulation on the success of their efforts.

In reporting the fire which destroyed the property of George Geandrea several weeks ago a mistake was made in stating that the loss to Mr. Geandrea was fully covered by insurance. On the contrary, Mr. Geandrea had no insurance at all, and the loss comes very heavily on him, entitling him to the sympathy and assistance of his neighbors.

The management of "The Holy City" wishes sincerely that every minister, Sunday school teacher, Bible student, public school teacher and literator of this city, as well as the youth and children, will witness this heart-stirring drama—the deepest and darkest, as well as the highest and holiest in the world. Such plays touch tender chords and trend lives Godward. "The Holy City" will be produced at the Opera House on Tuesday, Nov. 12.

More Good Produce Coming In

Interest in the fruit and agricultural display at the Commercial Club continues and more produce is coming in to be shown. Among recent contributors are the following:

Le Clerc Bros., box of six varieties of apples, turnips 36 inches in circumference and weighing 18 pounds, bronze Hubbard squash, onions weighing one pound each and one dozen potatoes weighing 24 pounds.

A. R. Poskey, Sullivan, potatoes, beets, celery, parsley and artichokes.

R. D. Anderson, Deer Valley, basket Italian prunes.

Robt. B. Campbell, California fall pears.

J. B. Renshaw, Tiger, hill of potatoes weighing 21 pounds.

J. W. Wooding, Tiger, ten potatoes, weight 21 1/2 pounds.

Frank Baker, Deer Valley, one hill of potatoes weighing 20 pounds, and one beet that "beats" them all for shape, resenbling a huge misshapen hand.

J. R. Patterson, freak squash.

Geo. W. Campbell, Sec. 8-31-45, a six-foot tomato vine laden with rich yellow plum tomatoes.

Ernest Dienhardt, one hill potatoes weighing 23 pounds.

L. S. Trowbridge, three potatoes weighing 15 pounds.

Henry Bolli, Calispel Valley, four spuds of four pounds each and a display of very fine apples. Mr. Bolli has a 500-tree orchard only partly bearing as yet.

TO VOTERS

The registration books are now open at the office of W. A. Prialux, city clerk, Newport Miner office. Register early. The books close November 13, 1907.

NOTICE

On and after Nov. 11th, 1907, the post-office will close at 6 p. m. Money order and registration window at 5 p. m. R. I. TOWLE, P. M.

Acre tract for sale cheap, two blocks from school house. H. J. Anderson.

Mr. and Mrs. Lynn P. Hurd returned Sunday from a short trip to Spokane.

FOR SALE—One twenty-foot, six-foot beam family launch, cheap. E. W. Stevens. 22-4

A. W. Bronson has just received some oak fittings for his popular wine room on Washington avenue.

W. F. Millard is reaching out for further business. He shipped a lot of goods to Bonners Ferry this week.

J. C. McDonald, of the McDonald Mercantile Co., has been a down river visitor on a business trip this week.

NOTICE

A special meeting of the stockholders of the Parker Mountain Mining Company for the election of trustees and such other business as may be properly transacted, will be held at the company's office in Newport, Wash., on Monday, Nov. 25, 1907. Jas. M. McDonald, secretary.

FOR SALE—A 11-3 acre tract in Halford's addition; fine timber, good location, price reasonable. Mrs. A. Rice, Steamer Newport.

DR. G. B. MANN

and DR. H. F. HUGHES

DENTISTS

Office Hours 9 a. m. to 12 p. m.

1:30 p. m. to 5 p. m.

Newport, Wash.

DO NOT HOARD YOUR MONEY

Will pay two and one half per cent. premium on First State and First National Bank Personal Checks, Cashier's Checks and Certificates of Deposit in payment of real estate purchases from me this week

A. M. HARRIS

NOBLE & HURD

Arc now prepared to sell you

FEED

As cheap as anyone

We also have three grades of FLOUR at $1.25 $1.35 $1.50 a sack

Our grocery department is the most complete in the city and prices you will find right considering quality. Our line of gent's furnishings for winter is complete in every detail. Prices to suit every buyer.

WE HAVE JUST RECEIVED A NEW LINE OF FANCY CHINA AND GLASSWARE and can save you money on these goods. Come in and look over our goods and prices. We are sure you will be suited.

NOBLE AND HURD

Lund Hardware Co.

The only and genuine Charter Oak ranges, cook stoves and heating stoves sold by us at way down prices. We are also headquarters for Lumbermen's and Miner's tools and supplies. We always carry in stock the Minnesota pure boiled linseed oil, the Phonex and Colliers St. Louis white lead and the genuine Phonix Pure Prepared yaint, every ounce guaranteed to be strictly pure. Double bitted axes at 50c 75c $1.00 $1.25 $1.50. All kinds and sizes of doors and windows, also builders' hardware.

Yours for business

Lund Hardware Co.