

TISS & McMORRAN

Fancy China

We have the largest and most complete line of Fancy China ever shown in Newport. Hand painted ware of the very best. Our Japanese ware is of the very latest and attractive patterns in Sugar and Creamers, Bread and Butter Plates, Cake Plates, Salts and Peppers, Chocolate Sets, in fact everything in China a wife or sweetheart would wish.

Cut Glass

Received a new line of Cut Glass, Wednesday morning which will make us an elegant display. Come in and look it over. The price will suit the pocket books.

Christmas

Don't forget Tiss & McMorrans Christmas for we'll be there with the goods.

Edison

Phonographs

Columbia

We are agents for the two famous machines, Edison and Columbia. A new invoice of records arrived this morning. Come in and get the cream of the lot. Good records never get old.

TISS & McMORRAN

JUST AMONG OURSELVES

I. & W. N. Railroad Time Table.

Passenger Train No. 2 leaves O. R. & N. depot at Spokane, via Spokane International Railway, daily at 7:00 a. m. Arrives at Newport at 9:20 a. m.

Passenger Train No. 3 leaves Newport daily at 5:15 p. m. Arrives at Spokane at 7:45 p. m. Daily freight from Spokane arrives at Newport at 8:45 a. m. Leaves Newport at 11 a. m.

H. M. Lund went to Spokane Tuesday evening.

Mrs. A. H. Morton and son spent Thanksgiving with friends at Newport. A. W. Earle, of Seattle, who has been visiting Newport friends, returned to his home in the big city Tuesday.

A platform is being built from the tracks to the Idaho & Washington Northern depot, and an electric light has been placed in front of the depot.

FOR SALE—One team of fine brood mares in foal to registered horse, weight 2900 pounds, age 8 and 9; one spring wagon and farm harness. S. McGee.

B. S. Defenbach, of Sandpoint, general manager of the Northern Mercantile Company, was a business visitor in Newport Tuesday.

J. E. Taylor, of the Pacific States Telephone Company of Spokane, came up to Newport Wednesday evening and went down the river Thursday with M. P. Neil on a hunting trip.

The new billiard parlors of Walker & Reynolds, located in the Fredrick building, is now open and ready for business. With new tables and good equipment it provides a pleasant place to pass away the time.

The Great Northern "dinky," due in this city at 7:38 p. m., was delayed nearly two hours Wednesday evening, the engine having jumped the track about two miles east of Hillyard. The wrecker was soon on hand and the derailed engine headed for Newport.

The population has been increasing in Newport and vicinity the past week. A girl was born to the family of Wm. Basham Saturday morning, and the same day a boy was born at Frank Fish's south of town, near the foot of the Hoodoo range. There is also a girl reported at the home of Dallas O'Harra, of Hardscrabble.

Great Northern station agents have received notice that the company has issued tickets, which will be placed on sale at all the offices of the company, providing for transportation from all stations on the Great Northern to all points on the Spokane & Inland Empire. The order goes into effect immediately, and such tickets will be on sale by Great Northern agents as soon as they can be supplied. The tickets will provide for free bus and baggage transfer for the passenger from the Great Northern depot at Spokane to the terminal station of the electric line and vice versa.

STEVE HARRIS

Blacksmith.
Horse Shoeing Wagon Making

ANKERSON'S ADDITION

NORTON'S ADDITION

Sales in these favored additions have been very satisfactory. A large number of lots have been sold to Newport people and outsiders for building purposes and investment. I will continue to sell lots at the same low prices until I dispose of half my holdings, when prices will be raised to something nearer their present value. Buy now in the most sightly place in Newport. City water in front of every lot. Soil free from rocks and level. Terms to suit.

A CORNER—Four lots on Newport Ave. and G. N. right of way for business purposes. Three lots on State Ave., a snap. Several small houses on the installment plan. A few good ranches at bargains. List your bargains with me.

R. T. ANKERSON, Owner. Opp. Postoffice.

Good house and lot for sale. Inquire of W. F. Millard.

Mable Lutz, who has been visiting in Ritzville, is home again.

B. C. Warren, accompanied by Mrs. Warren, came over from La Clede Wednesday.

Clifford, the eldest son of I. W. Harris, has been quite sick the past ten days, but is now recovering.

J. M. McDonald was a down river visitor Monday, visiting the mines of the Parker Mountain Mining Company.

Jerry Desart, the jeweler, has received a fine line of the best makes of fountain pens. Prices from $1.50 to $4.

The work of laying water mains in Cedar Park Gardens has been completed and water is now in front of every lot.

There will be Catholic services at the residence of Paul Gladisch on Sunday, December 1 at 9 a. m. conducted by Father Folchi.

Born—in Spokane last Wednesday, to Mr. and Mrs. Ed Little, an eight-pound girl. Mrs. Little was formerly Miss Button and was a teacher in the Newport schools.

A gentleman named Myers, from Davenport, Wash., was a hunter in the lower river country last week, and came out with a fine deer that weighed in the neighborhood of 300 pounds.

The westbound train on the Idaho & Washington Northern Tuesday afternoon carried out 35 passengers, of whom 24 were ticketed through to Spokane. Not so bad for the second trip of the train.

The firm of Weinkauff & Koch has been badly under the weather of late. Both members of the firm are at present in St. Luke's Hospital at Spokane, but are getting along nicely and will soon be able to return to Newport.

The Idaho & Washington Northern Railroad had a gang of men at work filling in the triangular place at the foot of Washington avenue, where the Antler Hotel formerly stood. Teamsters can now reach the watering trough from either direction.

Work on the trails in the Priest River reserve has been discontinued for the winter on account of the snow, which rangers report is now about a foot deep in the west branch country. A cabin to cost $800 is being built near the lower end of Priest Lake for the accommodation of rangers.

"The Denver Express," at the Opera House Friday evening, was one of the best shows of the season, full of life and action. Al W. Fordyce, as Deadwood Dick, and Harry Rowe, as Lord Tyne-mouth, were particularly good in their parts and won the appreciative attention of the audience. The next big show booked at the Opera House is "Are You Crazy?" a musical farce comedy, which comes on Dec. 6.

A meeting of the stockholders of the Parker Mountain Mining Company was held Monday evening, at which the annual business of the company was transacted. Napoleon Le Clerc was re-elected president and J. M. McDonald secretary. The company has a force of men at work on its claims, and those who have recently viewed the work in progress and seen the character of ore encountered are very enthusiastic about its prospects.

House to rent. Inquire of Branigin. Harry Kemp was a Spokane visitor last.

R. P. Scott was a business visitor at Cusick Monday.

L. P. Hurd and wife have moved into the rooms over the Noble & Hurd store.

WANTED—Relinquishment. Address John Garling, R. R. 1, Hillyard, Wash.

C. P. Teeding, of Spokane, is a new clerk in the office of the Priest River reserve.

FOR SALE—Good milch cows and a litter of well bred pigs. Prices right. A. W. Westfall, Newport.

FOR SALE—Inside corner, 45x100; fine location; 150 feet from Washington avenue sidewalk. Inquire at the Miner office.

Dr. Mintzer, of Colville, presiding elder of this district of the M. E. church, was a visitor with Rev. A. H. Morton Wednesday.

Notice is hereby given that my wife, Charlotte L. Miller, has left my bed and board and I will not be responsible for any debts contracted by her. Henry A. Miller.

Wm. C. Springer and family left Wednesday noon for their former home in Franklin, Indiana. Mr. Springer was formerly manager of Silver Birch Farm for Mr. Talmadge.

Chief Engineer Cassell, of the Great Northern system, arrived in this city from St. Paul Wednesday. He is on a tour of inspection and while here will look over the bridge work near this city.

The general manager's special passed through this city Thursday morning over the Great Northern Railway. On board the train were several high officials of the Great Northern. They paid the local office a call.

A. L. Snow, accompanied by his two oldest sons, returned Wednesday noon from Alaska, and will spend the winter here with his family. Mr. Snow is a railroad contractor and has been engaged in that work in Alaska since spring.

C. E. Cook, senior member of the contracting firm of C. E. Cook & Sons, of Minneapolis and St. Paul, arrived in this city Wednesday morning. While here Mr. Cook will make an inspection of the new bridge which his firm is constructing for the Great Northern just east of this city.

Jas. M. Culberson, general manager of the Snowy Top Mining Company, passed through this city Monday, en route from Spokane to the company's mines in Port Hill, B. C. While in Spokane Manager Culberson purchased about 1100 feet of track and several ore cars and other equipment for his mines.

Miss Wadsworth has resigned her position as teacher in the primary department of the Newport schools, and has gone to Central Washington to take up her residence on her claim. Miss Helen A. Olson, who has been bookkeeper at the Farmers' Co-Operative Store, succeeds her in the primary department.

Captain Avery E. Davidson, of Dalkena, passed through this city Monday, en route to Spokane, where he expects to remain for several days on business. While here the captain left some very fine specimens of Wolf River apples grown on his ranch. The apples are the largest exhibited by the Commercial Club this year.

The teachers returned from Colville Saturday evening and school was resumed Monday morning. They were well pleased with the institute as conducted by County Superintendent Daisy Hard, and thoroughly appreciated the instruction and lectures provided. Some of the ladies had considerable trouble on account of the financial stringency, making it difficult for them to get funds to return to Newport, and had to telegraph to friends to help them out.

Tom Lyons, a lumberjack at the Clark & Saddler camp south of town, was brought to Newport Monday afternoon suffering from a severe cut on the back of the head. While working about a mile and a half from camp he in some manner fell over onto the edge of the ax, receiving a deep cut, which caused a severe hemorrhage. Dr. Boudwin fixed him up and he returned to camp Wednesday.

L. J. Kimmel was at Spokane Tuesday, returning Wednesday morning via the Blackwell route.

R. W. Eaton, a former resident of this city, lately from British Columbia, is visiting friends here.

O. S. Bowen, resident engineer of the Great Northern Railway, arrived in this city Wednesday from Spokane.

Joe Fea, Kenneth Strong, Edgar Vawter and Bessie Coryell, who are attending business college in Spokane, were here for Thanksgiving.

Dow Siscoe and wife will remove to Girard, Kansas, their old home, next week. Mr. and Mrs. Siscoe have been residents of this vicinity for about two years.

Harry Crawford, a former P. P. conductor, has charge of the passenger train on the new railroad, and W. S. Clinton, formerly of the Inland Empire system, is the engineer.

The Farmers' Co-Operative store is this week moving into their new cement building erected by Mr. Vawter. It is a spacious, modern building and will greatly facilitate their business.

H. J. Anderson has let the contract for an attractive home to be built this fall on the lot in Koch's addition which he recently purchased from C. F. Craig. I. W. Harris has the contract.

Miss Edie Kennedy, who has been attending the State Normal School at Cheney, came home Wednesday to eat Thanksgiving dinner at home. Her father, Hugh Kennedy, met her at Spokane and returned with her.

Contractor F. H. Krauter was in Spokane the latter part of last week transacting business. He expects to leave within a few days for the east, where he will join his family, who for several months past have been visiting relatives and friends.

C. L. Gilbert was a business visitor at Spokane Monday. Mr. Gilbert reports that he found business conditions improving in that city, that money is becoming easier, and that the moving of wheat out of the Palouse country is doing considerable to relieve conditions. Spokane wholesalers are confident that business conditions will soon resume their normal state, and lumbermen have faith that the coming year will soon be a good one for their industry. At least such are the indications in the east.

R. H. Reed, of Ione, was in town this week.

Wm. Hugo, of Dalkena, was in this city Wednesday.

Earle McMorrans and wife were here to spend Thanksgiving with his parents.

Mrs. N. Sundby, of Portland, Oregon, arrived in this city Wednesday, and is visiting her husband, Chief Engineer Sundby, of the steamer Newport.

A slight blaze occurred Thursday morning in the roof of the B. T. Foote residence near the chimney. Neighbors who noticed the fire hurried to the scene and a few buckets of water soon put out the blaze.

City election occurs next Tuesday, Dec. 3. Candidates remain as heretofore published, except that E. S. Appel is candidate for mayor on the Citizens' Independent ticket instead of Dr. Phillips, and W. J. Kirkin is candidate for councilman on the People's Progressive ticket in place of John Flynn.

The following proofs were made before United States Commissioner Rogers last week: Homesteads—Ira A. Troyer, Penrith; Owen Barney, William R. Amsbaugh, Charles Cvr, Paul Berendt, all in forest reserve; Ole A. Johnson, Scotia; William L. Morris, Tiger. Timber—George Tiger, Arthur D. Norman, of Tiger; John M. Sachs, of Leavenworth, Wash., formerly of Newport.

Instruments Recorded.

The following is from the daily report of the Stevens County Abstract Company, Colville:

Hugh Kennedy to Jennie Fewins, Lt 14, blk 4, Talmadge's add to Newport, $200.

Chas F Craig to Alice E Anderson, s 50 ft lts 2 and 7, Koch's add to Newport, $1.

The new sidewalk to the river in old town has been completed. All that remains now for a continuous walk from the depots to the docks is a stretch from the intersection of Pine street and Washington avenue east to the state line to connect with the walk constructed by the old town people.

A. RAY WILLIAMS

Furniture and Undertaking

NEWPORT. WASH.

Home Cooking and Baking at the Home Restaurant

Next Door to New Miner Office

NOBLE & HURD

Are now prepared to sell you

FEED

As cheap as anyone

We also have three grades of FLOUR at $1.25 $1.35 $1.50 a sack

Our grocery department is the most complete in the city and prices you will find right considering quality.

Our line of gent's furnishings for winter is complete in every detail. Prices to suit every buyer.

WE HAVE JUST RECEIVED A NEW LINE F FANCY CHINA AND GLASSWARE

and can save you money on these goods. Come in and look over our goods and prices. We are sure you will be suited.

NOBLE AND HURD

Lund Hardware Co.

The only and genuine Charter Oak ranges, cook stoves and heating stoves sold by us at way down prices. We are also headquarters for Lumbermen's and Miner's tools and supplies. We always carry in stock the Minnesota pure boiled linseed oil, the Phonex and Colliers St. Louis white lead and the genuine Phonix Pure Prepared paint, every ounce guaranteed to be strictly pure. Double bitted axes at 50c 75c $1.00 $1.25 $1.50. All kinds and sizes of doors and windows, also builders' hardware.

Yours for business

Lund Hardware Co.