

More Land Office Regulations

July 1 a new order affecting the testimony to be taken when final proof is offered will go into effect at all United States land offices. Claimant and witnesses will both be required to particularize concerning the absence of the claimant from the land from time to time, giving much more detail than heretofore. Each legal subdivision, together with improvements thereon, will have to be described fully and separately, together with evidence showing how much of the area under the entry was cultivated, with reference to each, and the amount of a crop harvested. The blank for transcribing testimony will consist of three pages instead of one as heretofore.

If You Are Worth $50,000 Don't Read This

This will not interest you if you are worth $50,000, but if you are a man of moderate means and cannot afford to employ a physician when you have an attack of diarrhoea, you will be pleased to know that one or two doses of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy will cure it. This remedy has been in use for many years and is thoroughly reliable. Price 25 cents. For sale by Adam's Pharmacy.

J. M. Prater was in Priest River Monday on business.

He says that the people there are greatly excited over the recent big strike in the Farmer Jones mine near Priest River. The officials of the company are very reticent in regard to the strike, but from the best information obtainable the lead in the main tunnel has been encountered. The width of the lead and the richness of the ore is being kept a secret, although Mr. Prater is convinced from all that he heard that the strike is one of the most important that has ever been made in the Priest lake district.—Sandpoint Review.

EVENTS IN OUR STATE

Interesting Happenings From All Parts of Washington.

Kills Wife, Then Self.

Spokane—Battling with a posse of citizens who surprised him in the house where he had fortified himself, Philip Clemens, wife murderer, shot himself and cut his throat Saturday morning, dying almost immediately.

The double tragedy occurred Saturday at his farm near Deary, Idaho, Clemens secured his wife through a matrimonial bureau and she left him quickly. Saturday morning she drove to the ranch with four men to get her belongings. As they approached the house Clemens fired through a window. His wife fell dead.

Her friends fled. Returning with a posse, they were halted by the murderer, who swore he would shoot the first man who laid hands on him or touched his wife's body. Slipping into the house, unseen, members of the posse attacked Clemens. Seeing the struggle was hopeless he killed himself.

State Sells 3,000,000 Grain Bags.

Walla Walla—The state of Washington has practically sold 3,000,000 grain bags for delivery between now and the first of September. Orders for large shipments are being received daily, and it is expected that by July 1 every bag that can be produced by the prison will have been contracted for by farmers.

Last season the state carried over 1,500,000 bags. The output this year has been in excess of 1,500,000. In the face of this enormous supply the state had to meet competition from importers and prices much lower than had been anticipated. Even with these conditions it was necessary to send out salesmen to dispose of the product of the jute mill to farmers throughout the state.

Graft Charges Fail.

South Bend—In the superior court the case of the state against W. R. Gray, an ex-county commissioner, who was indicted last fall on a charge of larceny, was dismissed. Mr. Gray was accused of taking with him, on his removal to Centralia, a compass belonging to the county valued at $100. The case of the state against A. P. Leonard, against whom informations were filed on a charge of embezzling money paid for hunters' and saloon licenses, was continued. It transpires now that Expert Clark had Leonard charged with $300 in a case where no money was paid in.

Pastor's Wife Fights Case.

Colfax—Mrs. Herbert G. Buss, wife of the pastor of the First Baptist church and who was recently tried before a jury in a justice court and fined $1 and costs on a charge of "sticking up" with a gun several of the deacons and trustees of the church who dragged her husband from the parsonage and assaulted him on the evening of June 6, has appealed the case to the superior court and will make a vigorous fight on the grounds of justification to have the verdict of the lower court reversed.

Fake Fight Victim Out of Jail.

Tacoma—After being in jail nearly a year, F. H. Pilling, the Butte business man who was the victim of a fake prize fight on the banks of the Duwamish river in August of last year, obtained his release Saturday by giving bail. Pilling, at request of three bunco men, borrowed $18,000 from J. R. Thompson, of Tacoma, a personal friend of his. He gave Thompson a check for the money, which was returned from Butte marked "no funds." The fake artists had already carried off the $18,000.

Hughes Going to Seattle.

Seattle—Governor Hughes, of New York, will be one of the speakers on New York day, August 2, at the world's fair. It is expected that he will be in Seattle four days. Governor Hughes will probably meet Governor Johnson, who is to be the chief orator of Minnesota day, August 3.

Haywood Fined for Smoking.

North Yakima—W. D. Haywood, the Socialist leader, who two years ago was tried for the murder of Governor Frank Steunenberg, of Idaho, and who was arrested at Ellensburg and again at North Yakima for smoking cigarettes in violation of the new state criminal code, was fined $2.50 and costs on the charge.

Big Yield Is Estimated.

Walla Walla—Estimates of the grain yield for Walla Walla county being made by Walla Walla dealers place the figure at about 5,000,000 bushels for this season.

Pasco—Seven extensive landowners, representing over 20,000 acres of land adjacent to Pasco, have signed a contract with Robert Strahorn and associates which will result in the irrigation of 20,000 acres of land surrounding this city. The contract provides that the company have water on the Pasco lands by April 1, 1910.

Spokane—Five representative men, all thoroughly conversant with the Columbia river and its obstructions, have been selected by Governor Hay as members of the Columbia River Improvement Commission, provision for which was made by the recent legislature, when a bill carrying an appropriation of $50,000 was passed for the opening up of the Columbia between Bridgeport and Kettle Falls.

Spokane—The jury in the case of Leslie Lamb vs. Dr. C. P. Thomas, found for the plaintiff and assessed her damages at $889. The plaintiff, Mrs. Lamb, who was operated on by Dr. Thomas almost two years ago, introduced testimony to show that a roll of gauze was taken from the wound made, which had been negligently sewed in the incision and left by the defendant.

Bremerton—The Kitsap County Telephone Company, which proposes to cover Kitsap county with telephone exchanges at Bremerton, Port Orchard and Port Blakely, and through submarine cable to Seattle to connect with all points on the Coast, has its local system in working order; and is about ready to install phones. A submarine cable has been laid to Seattle, connecting with the Independent Telephone Company.

North Yakima—The North Yakima land office has receive notice from the interior department of the withdrawal from public entry of 18 sections near Crown Point at the head of the Naches river as a reservoir site in connection with the Yakima irrigation project. This indicates the enlargement of the reclamation work in this valley.

Potatoes—White River, $32 per ton; Yakima, $32 per ton.

Seattle—The Alaska building at the A.-Y.-P. Exposition, has opened its gold exhibit with a display of $400,000 worth of dust, nuggets and bars. Dust and nuggets valued at $500,000, now on the way from Alaska, will be added and the United States Assay office and various Alaska miners have promised enough gold to make the yellow pile worth $1,500,000. In the exhibit already assembled is Jafet Lindeberg's $3000 Nome nugget, the largest ever found in Alaska.
