

THE FAIR PLAY.

SATURDAY, DECEMBER 1, 1877.

S. HENRY SMITH, Publisher.

ST. L., M. & S. R. R. TIME TABLE.

Passenger trains pass at De Lassus:

GOING NORTH:

Mail (except Sunday).....1:44 P. M.

Express (daily).....3:52 A. M.

GOING SOUTH:

Mail (except Sunday).....1:57 P. M.

Express (daily).....11:55 P. M.

St. Genevieve Lodge, No. 55, I. O. O. F.

meets at 7 o'clock, in J. Baker's building, every Sunday, at 7 o'clock P. M. Visiting brothers cordially invited.

H. S. SHAW, N. G.

GENEVOLE NATIVES, Dec. 1, 1877.

Professional Cards.

W. T. BURKS,

Attorney and Counsellor at Law

(Southern Hotel, Room No. 8.)

Ste. Genevieve, Mo.

Specialties a Specialty.

77

KOSSUTH W. A. WEBER,

Att'y Counsellor at Law,

FARMINGTON, MISSOURI.

Careful and prompt attention given to all business entrusted to him.

5-2y

FIRMIN A. ROZIER,

Attorney at Law,

(Office in Bank Building.)

Ste. Genevieve, Mo.

CHAS. C. ROZIER,

Attorney at Law,

Real Estate Agent,

Conveyancer and Notary Public,

STE. GENEVIEVE, MO.

Will promptly and faithfully attend to all business entrusted to him, and will be assisted by

Martin L. Clardy, of Farmington, in all circuit and Supreme court cases.

Specialties a specialty.

77

BOGOT & GIGNON,

REAL ESTATE AGENTS,

Conveyancers,

STE. GENEVIEVE, MO.

Will pay and will land on commission; pay taxes;

procure leases and mortgages; pay taxes; have deeds recorded; have lands properly assessed; have abstracts of titles; write deeds, deeds of trust, leases, agreements, etc. for subscribers' estates.

77

J. FRANK JOHNSON,

Attorney at Law,

STE. GENEVIEVE, MO.

Will practice in the courts of the twentieth judicial circuit, make collections, pay taxes for non-residents, and faithfully attend to any and all business entrusted to his care.

77

PAUL L. LEMPKE,

County Surveyor and Real Estate

AGENT,

STE. GENEVIEVE, MO.

DR. J. W. BBAHAM,

Resident Dentist,

STE. GENEVIEVE.

Office on Main street, one block north of Dr. C. S. Hertzich's office. Retires by permission of Dr. C. S. Hertzich.

77

DR. C. S. HERTICH & SON,

Physicians and Surgeons,

Ste. Genevieve, Missouri.

DR. C. S. CARSSOW, M. D.,

Physician, Surgeon,

AND

ACCOCHEUR,

Ste. Genevieve, Mo.

Drs. GUBOURD & ANDRE,

Physicians and Surgeons,

STE. GENEVIEVE, MO.

Offer their professional services to the people of

Ste. Genevieve and vicinity. Office at the Third street, southwest corner Main and Merchant streets.

77

HOTELS.

Southern Hotel,

JOSEPH FORST, Prop'r.

Lingering Local Lightning

NOTICE.

The editor of this paper will be absent for a few months, on a trip for health, and the business of the office will be conducted by Frank

Watson. He is authorized to collect and receipt all bills, and settle accounts. S. HENRY SMITH.

Ste. Genevieve, Mo., Nov. 29, '77.

—Winter.

—The roads are bad.

—Overcoats in demand.

—Hail Tuesday morning.

—Whoopee! Isn't it cold!

—Pay up your subscription.

—Cold every day this week.

—Christmas will soon be here.

—Rain, rain, rain, last Sunday.

—A good blacksmith is wanted at

Van Buren.

—Have you seen the giant at Mopard's building?

—Thanksgiving day passed off very quietly in this city.

—Wild turkeys are very plentiful in Capo Girardeau county.

—Deer are being killed in large numbers in Reynolds county.

—A postage stamp is just big enough to borrow, but too small to pay back.

—Ask your friends to become paying instead of borrowing readers of this paper.

—Over one thousand hales of cotton have been shipped from Dexter

this season.

—The festive con is being tormented a good deal these nights, by our hunters.

—Thursday was Thanksgiving

day. The public school was closed on that day.

—A baby near St. Joe Lead Mines

fell into the fire lately, and was burned to death.

—A large number of the farmers of Mississippi county have in 500 acres wheat crops.

—Help the poor—that's us. Send us a dollar-and-a-half and get this paper for one year.

—For all Wool Casimere Suits

Latest Styles, Extraordinary Low

go to Crosson & Fink's.

—Now is the time to plant your advertisements for the holidays'

trade, hand 'em in early.

—Edward Seyasler went to St.

Louis Wednesday night, to lay in a supply of Christmas tricks.

—C. A. Smith, of Jefferson county, killed a worthless horse of his and boiled it up for chicken food.

—The boys have had fine fun this week, skating. The ice on some of the ponds near town is over an inch thick.

Predictions are being made that there will not be much snow this winter but that it will be much colder than usual.

—The Cash Book says about one hundred wagons come to Jackson every day, loaded with wheat, corn, vegetables, &c.

—John L. Fitts, who was charged with the murder of Dr. Rich in Bat-ler county, on May 10, 1860, was tried last week and acquitted.

—A party was given at Cip. Lal-umendier's residence Thursday night. We understand that all who attended had a jolly time.

—The gas thrown off from coal stoves produces diphtheria, physicians say, unless rooms are well ventilated. This is something to bear in mind.

—Between the first of November and the holidays," says an exchange,

"there is no law against catching

—An exchange says that when wheat goes up ten cent a bushel

flour gets the news in a half minute by telegraph. But when wheat goes down flour gets news by slow mail.

—The missing Farmington merchant, whose disappearance in St.

Louis a few weeks ago was supposed to be attended with foul play, is now thought to have left for England, his native home.

—The Chester Tribune says work

on the railroad, between the Renault

Hotel and Beare's saw mill, was begun last week. The laying of the ties and iron has progressed as far as Holmes

Mill.

—The saloon of E. A. Luken, at Kaskaskia, was again burglarized

on Saturday night last, the thieves securing a small amount of money and a considerable quantity of barroom goods. No clue to the perpetrators.

—Joe Fitzkam has had his shop

fixed up in fine style, and it now looks as neat and bright as a new pin. If you want a good shave, or your hair cut in the latest style, give him a call. He understands his business.

—We are told that the road between here and St. Mary is in a wretched condition. Mud in places is six inches deep, and four and six mule teams are required to draw a small load through some places.—

Forum.

—The Chester Guards last week

received fifty-seven stand of arms,

Enfield rifles, being those of the defunct Logan Guards at Murphyboro. The company expect to have their uniforms in a short time, when they will be fully equipped.

—There was a man in town Monday wishing to employ counsel in a suit to recover the land upon which the village of Baldwin is situated.

He claims to have found an old will which gives him the title to the property.—Red Bull Courier.

—Piedmont has green peas. The peas were planted early in the spring and gathered and used. A few were left on the vines, and these fell to the ground, sprouted, and grew a second crop of peas, which are just ripening.

—The ka klux troubles are over,

in Ripley county, and no longer will the editor of the Prospect have to jump into the ink keg while he sends his devil to the door to tell the

"masked gentlemen" standing there that "the boss has just stepped out."

—A new counterfeit $5 note on the Farmers' National Bank of Virginia, Illinois, has made its appearance. The back of the bill is finely executed, but the counterfeit can be discovered by the vignette in the left side of the face of the bill, which is not well finished. Look out for them.

—While tearing down an old chimney on the Miles building, in Perryville, last week, two bags of money

were found, one containing $220.00 in gold coin, and the other $16.80 in silver coin. It is supposed to have been placed there by the late Francis

Miles, Sr., and will be divided among his twelve heirs.

—J. M. Lynch, Esq., has been in the city selling Citherns (small musical instruments). He guarantees to learn anybody who buys one of his instruments, to play a tune in five minutes. He sells them at the low price of three dollars. If you want

—We see in the FAIR PLAY that our esteemed friend, L. Valle Harold, was admitted to the bar at the last term of the Ste. Genevieve Circuit court. His studies were under

Judge Carter and Hon. Martin L.

Clardy, at Farmington, where he has been studiously engaged poring over Blackstone, Kent, Goenleaf, and other law writers, for the past year.

The FAIR PLAY says, "From the ordeal through which he passed, and the alacrity with which he answered the numerous questions propounded

during examination, we are satisfied he will take a prominent place in the profession." Valle is now a partner in the law firm of Carter, Clardy &

Co., and will locate at Piedmont about the first of January next, where he will conduct the business of this firm. We are confident the citizens of Piedmont will be proud of the acquisition, as Valle will not only be found a shining