

It is expected that the delivery to the World's fair directors of the 5,000,000 Columbian exposition souvenir half-dollars will begin about the 15th.

STENOGRAPHER GENERAL WYMAN in his annual report will favor the suspension of immigration during war time as a means of preventing the introduction of cholera into this country.

The affairs of the Lima (Peru) national bank, which failed last March, were wound up on the 29th, and taken out of the hands of the receiver for the payment of a second and final dividend of 50 per cent.

PRESIDENT PALMER of the World's fair national commission is preparing estimates to submit to the next session of congress in connection with the appropriation to be made for the national commission.

A DISASTER FROM HONG KONG says that seventy-four lives were lost by the wreck of the Japanese steamer, the Christendom, which was sunk in the Japan sea in a collision with the English steamer Ravenna.

M. BRISSON confessed, on the 2d, his inability to form a cabinet, and the announcement increased apprehension of danger to the French republic in the prolongation of the crisis.

ZIMMERMAN, the American bicycle champion, is confined to his home in Massachusetts, N. Y., from a weak knee. He is in no condition to race or even to get himself into shape, and will not race again until next season.

Mrs. CATHERINE HENDERICKS, mother of Mrs. Thomas Hendricks, of Rochester, N. Y.; Rev. J. W. Hendricks, of Livonia, N. Y.; and Peter Hendricks, a Baptist of New York city, died at the home of her son at Livonia on the 1st.

The announcement of the death of Jay Gould was received in London a few minutes after it occurred. It had no effect on the London stock market. Union Pacific shares sustained a fractional decline, but recovered immediately afterwards.

On the 29th Sub-Secretary of Foreign Affairs Aspirador, of Mexico, delivered to President Diaz the collection of the annual meeting of the South African Co. in London, on the 29th, said that hostile tariffs virtually compelled England to secure free markets such as those of Uganda and other countries in Africa.

Dr. H. C. COOK, RICHMOND, the venerable father-in-law of President Harrison, died at 129 o'clock on the annual meeting of the South African Co. in London, on the 29th, said that hostile tariffs virtually compelled England to secure free markets such as those of Uganda and other countries in Africa.

REV. DR. JOHN WILDERSON, SECRETARY of the venerable father-in-law of President Harrison, died at 129 o'clock on the annual meeting of the South African Co. in London, on the 29th, said that hostile tariffs virtually compelled England to secure free markets such as those of Uganda and other countries in Africa.

The remains of the late Rev. Dr. Scott, father-in-law of President Harrison, were interred in the Washington (Pa.) cemetery on the 2d. The casket remained for forty-five minutes at the house of Joshua Wright, where the face of the dead man was viewed by many of his old friends.

The delegates of the powers forming the Latin union, composed of France, Italy, Belgium and Switzerland, met at the Belgian foreign office, in Brussels, on the 2d, to agree upon a concert of action in respect to the proposals of Mr. Alfred Rothchild, and also the Morris and Levy propositions.

The discovery of the rotting and noxious parts of human bodies in and around an old building in the rear of Taylor university, at Fort Wayne, Ind., formerly used as a dissecting room led to filling, on the 29th, of affidavits against the officials of the university, charging them with maintaining a nuisance.

The church of St. Michael, one of the finest in the city of Vienna, and which has been visited by tourists from all parts of the world, was destroyed by fire on the night of the 29th. It was originally erected in the Romanesque style in 1219-21. The loss to the city is irreparable, and causes much regret among all classes.

At 2 a. m. on the 29th, fire was discovered in a grocery store in Cincinnati by Mrs. Solomon Levi. The department responded promptly and succeeded, after much difficulty, in taking from the building sixty people who were sleeping when the fire was discovered. There was every evidence that the fire was of incendiary origin, and Mrs. Levi's daughter is suspected.

ROBERT OLSEN, otherwise "Buck," was hanged in the jail yard at Dorchester, N. B., on the 1st, for the murder of Policeman Joseph Steadman, in Monroe, August 1. As the black cap was being adjusted, "Buck" said to the hangman: "Here I go. I left a confession with his lawyer which will reveal his true name and a history of his life."

In the French chamber of deputies, on the 29th, M. Brisson, chairman of the committee on the Panama canal investigation, demanded of the government that an autopsy be held on the body of the late Baron Reinach. M. Huard, minister of justice, replied that the law did not permit it. A division was taken as to sustaining M. Huard and the government was defeated. The resignation of the ministry was at once announced.

The special committee chosen by the minority conference in Brussels to consider the plans of Alfred Rothchild, Aloph Seltzer and Moritz Levy for the rehabilitation of silver, closed their work without having come to any definite conclusion.

CURRENT TOPICS.

THE NEWS IN BRIEF.

PERSONAL AND GENERAL.

Mrs. ARISTIDES GREGG, an eccentric woman of Dover, Wis., recently left her home on a trip to Milwaukee. On the way she was taken sick, carried to a farm house and died. An examination of her premises brought to light large sums of money hidden in all sorts of improbable places, the aggregate proving her to have been quite wealthy.

The final count of the Carbon county (Wyo.) vote makes the legislature republican on joint ballot, which will insure the election of a republican to the United States senate unless the democrats and populists, who will control the lower house, unseat a republican of the republicans.

STURGEON-GENERAL PORTER in his annual report to the secretary of the interior again recommends that the census office be made a permanent bureau.

HEAVY snowfalls were reported in the mountain districts of Greece on the 29th.

SENATOR JONES, of the American delegation to the Brussels conference, submitted, on the 29th, for the use of the committee on the Rothchild and other plans a special statement on the production and consumption of silver.

The relatives of Baron Reinach, the rich Parisian, while opposing the championing of his body, will, it is said, not offer any cash resistance to the authorities, should an autopsy be determined upon.

The Hamilton Woolen Co. of Amesbury, Mass., controlling sixteen mills, has increased the wages of all employes, except spinners 7 per cent. The spinners were recently given an increase of 10 per cent.

A FRANCHISE of Biele's cement must have passed through New Castle, Col., on the evening of the 29th, from the fact that it left one of its mementoes in the shape of an immense bowlder. The bowlder is buried in the earth, how deep no one knows, but the earth is said to be three to five feet and broken from three to five feet around it.

The board of state or mouse color, and very warm.

R. E. RYAN, of the Allegheny (Pa.) lumber merchant, who recently failed for over $100,000, and who is charged with having committed forgeries aggregating $20,000, which is said by some will, when all the returns are in, amount to over $50,000, has not fled to Canada as alleged, but is confined in an eastern asylum, suffering from serious and probably incurable case of paresis.

The experts who have been examining the accounts of W. F. Snyder, confidential bookkeeper in the Cincinnati, Hamilton & Dayton freight office, at Hamilton, Ind., up to the 25th discovered a shortage aggregating $7,000, and the inquiry was not half concluded. The company's money was lost in the gambling houses of the city.

Fire on the evening of the 29th destroyed the Electric Machine Co. Water Power Co's electric plant, causing a loss of probably $50,000. The building was full of valuable electric machinery, which is practically a total loss.

EX-Secretary BLAINE is gradually recovering from his recent illness. He is up and about the house every day and is rapidly regaining his strength.

The unseating of Mr. Nathaniel George Clayton, conservative member of the British parliament, by the court was because he provided hat cards or covers to his adherents, and also money used in getting up a picnic.

GRAND ARMY posts in Hendricks, Morgan, Putnam and other counties in Indiana where the gravestones of Union soldiers were recently painted red, have passed resolutions of condemnation and employed legal talent to prosecute the vandals if captured.

The steamer vessel, Chelidmarukian, from France for Japan, was sunk in a collision with the British steamer Ravenna. The Ravenna was badly injured and her passengers were transferred to the British steamer Empress of Japan, bound for Shanghai.

The supreme court of California rendered an opinion, on the 29th, affirming the decision of Probate Judge Coffey in the matter of the estate of Thos. H. Rhythe, that Florence Rhythe was the legitimate daughter of the deceased millionaire, and entitled to inherit his estate, valued at $1,000,000.

GEORGE A. MOORE, of Minneapolis, Minn., a well-known real-estate dealer and loan agent for eastern capitalists, has confessed that he has forged his father's signature to paper aggregating $125,000, all of which has been negotiated with local banks and money lenders.

The emperor of Germany has consented to send to the World's fair what will be one of the most remarkable and attractive features to be seen in Chicago next year. It will consist of a collection of presents received by his grandfather, the first William, his father, Emperor Frederick, and himself from their fellow sovereigns in Europe. The collection will consist of jewels and other personal ornaments, silver plate, decorations and an infinite variety of other articles, and is worth millions of dollars.

PRESIDENT DIAZ of Mexico, who was inaugurated on the 1st, for the fourth term, wrote to Sub-Secretary of Foreign Affairs Alvarez declining to accept the resignation of the members of the cabinet, and requesting the secretary to thank the members for their past services, and request them to remain in office. All of the members consented to do so.

The committee of investigation regarding the Panama canal corruption fund has succeeded in tracing two checks, each for $100,000, as far as the Rothchilds, but for what uses they were drawn have not been ascertained. They also traced a check for $1,500 to the steamer builder.

The steamer Haytian Republic, from Portland, Ore., on arrival at Seattle, Wash., on the night of the 30th, ran into Baker's wharf, entirely destroying it, together with a large warehouse and contents, valued at $20,000. The steamer was not damaged.

A DISASTER FROM TURIN, dated the 4th, reported Louis Koschitzky to be dead.

Blow-Grey, W. W. Bruce, retired, died in Washington, on the 8th, aged 83.

MISSOURI STATE NEWS.

Population Weather Signs.

Signal Service Observer W. H. Hamilton, of St. Louis, recently made a week's trip through the state.

The steamer Finland arrived at Seattle, Wash., on the 1st, from Alaska, with 2,500 cases of salmon, the last pack of the season. She reported severe weather at Junction, with two feet of snow on the level.

JAY GOULD, the great financier and American railroad king, died at the Gould mansion on Fifth avenue, New York city, at 9:15 a. m. on the 2d, of pulmonary consumption. He was in his fifty-sixth year.

The official count of the vote of Wisconsin has been completed, and is as follows: Peck (dem.), for governor, 178,198; Spooner (rep.), 150,541; Peck's plurality, 27,657.

Twenty-two new cases were reported at the smallpox hospital in Seattle, Wash., on the 1st.

Five in a tench boat in Blushing avenue, Becklin, on the morning of the 2d, resulted in the death of two persons—father and child—and the serious injury of at least a half dozen others.

Mrs. E. HENDERSON, of the Fourth Stishes factory (Germany), has been sentenced by court martial to one year's imprisonment for causing the death of seven privates last summer. Heinrich, commander of his whole battalion to swim the river Niese in all their accoutrements, and the seven men were drowned.

The number of arrests for public intoxication in the past year was 306, as against 175 the preceding year. 1,108 post offices were reported to have been entered during the year. There was only 6,029 complaints of all kinds received during the year, which is 57 less than last year.

The annual report of the fourth assistant postmaster general shows that the number of establishments of new post offices during the past year was 4,165, a greater number than during any previous year, with the exception of 1875, when it was 4,157.

COMMISSIONER W. M. FORAN, chief of ordinance, returned to New York, on the 2d, from Bethlehem, Pa., after accepting a lot of barbed wire for the new war ships. He says the result of the test was in the line of general excellence which has characterized the nickel steel armor for the first.

JAMES STRATHER, keeper of a saloon in Greenway, Ind., was shot and mortally wounded, on the night of the 28th, by a tramp who entered the saloon at the hour of closing, and demanded Strather's money. The latter reached for his gun, but was shot before he could use it. The assassin escaped.

GEORGE I. BAGLEY, the $100,000 express robber, was arraigned, on the 2d, before Judge Charles Watson of the district court at Danversport, Ind., and pleaded not guilty. As his attorney the defense will be fairly some days will elapse before the trial begins.

A FIRE in the tenement house 219 Fishing avenue, Brooklyn, at 1 o'clock on the morning of the 2d, resulted in the death of Michael Doyle, 40 years old, and Nellie Doyle, 3 years old, father and child—and the serious injury of at least half a dozen others.

LIZZIE BOREX was indicted on two counts for the murder of her father and step-mother, by the grand jury at Taunton, Mass., on the 2d.

The steamer Graystock, of London, was wrecked at the mouth of the river Elbe, on the 2d, and her entire crew of twenty-three persons were drowned.

LATE NEWS ITEMS.

Denise the panic and terrible suspense following the heading of a shaft in the North German Lloyd steamer space, from Southampton, bound for New York, when even the officers feared that the disabled vessel would sink, was averted, and it is now known that the vessel would be certain death, the services held by the evangelist Moody, which were translated to every group of foreigners present, did more than anything else toward studying the courage of the imperiled passengers.

JIM COOPER, living on a ranch near Bassett, Neb., went into town, on the 4th, and walking up and down the streets with a rifle and revolver, ordered everyone to stand back. Sheriff Harris was sent for and Cooper took refuge in a room in the Valley house. The sheriff ordered him three times to put his gun down, and when he refused shot him through the head. Cooper had said that he would kill anyone who attempted to arrest him.

The custom of marrying minors without asking any questions, which has prevailed for many years in Connecticut, is likely to be broken up by a suit instituted by Mr. Raymond of Galesburg, whose 16-year-old daughter was one of the victims of the practice. If Mr. Raymond's suit prevails, it is said thousands of couples will find it necessary to be remarried.

Times homeless men who made a living by doing odd jobs round New Durham, N. J., were given permission to sleep in a barn owned by Henry Ashcroft. Early on the morning of the 4th the barn was destroyed by fire, and one of the men was burned to death. The other two escaped and ran away. It is believed that they fired the barn by accident.

The Italian steamer Girola arrived at New York on the 5th, from Naples, Messina, being 224 days long passengers, all Italians. Four children died on the voyage and three others were sick of diphtheria. The vessel was held for disinfection.

Mrs. GOULD leaves six children, four sons and two daughters. George is the eldest son, and will likely take up the management of the Gould properties, where his father left off.

REBBS' valuable deposits of coal have been discovered at Tangle, West Penna.

A DISASTER FROM TURIN, dated the 4th, reported Louis Koschitzky to be dead.

Blow-Grey, W. W. Bruce, retired, died in Washington, on the 8th, aged 83.

MISSOURI STATE NEWS.

Population Weather Signs.

Signal Service Observer W. H. Hamilton, of St. Louis, recently made a week's trip through the state.

The steamer Finland arrived at Seattle, Wash., on the 1st, from Alaska, with 2,500 cases of salmon, the last pack of the season. She reported severe weather at Junction, with two feet of snow on the level.

JAY GOULD, the great financier and American railroad king, died at the Gould mansion on Fifth avenue, New York city, at 9:15 a. m. on the 2d, of pulmonary consumption. He was in his fifty-sixth year.

The official count of the vote of Wisconsin has been completed, and is as follows: Peck (dem.), for governor, 178,198; Spooner (rep.), 150,541; Peck's plurality, 27,657.

Twenty-two new cases were reported at the smallpox hospital in Seattle, Wash., on the 1st.

Five in a tench boat in Blushing avenue, Becklin, on the morning of the 2d, resulted in the death of two persons—father and child—and the serious injury of at least a half dozen others.

Mrs. E. HENDERSON, of the Fourth Stishes factory (Germany), has been sentenced by court martial to one year's imprisonment for causing the death of seven privates last summer. Heinrich, commander of his whole battalion to swim the river Niese in all their accoutrements, and the seven men were drowned.

The number of arrests for public intoxication in the past year was 306, as against 175 the preceding year. 1,108 post offices were reported to have been entered during the year. There was only 6,029 complaints of all kinds received during the year, which is 57 less than last year.

The annual report of the fourth assistant postmaster general shows that the number of establishments of new post offices during the past year was 4,165, a greater number than during any previous year, with the exception of 1875, when it was 4,157.

COMMISSIONER W. M. FORAN, chief of ordinance, returned to New York, on the 2d, from Bethlehem, Pa., after accepting a lot of barbed wire for the new war ships. He says the result of the test was in the line of general excellence which has characterized the nickel steel armor for the first.

JAMES STRATHER, keeper of a saloon in Greenway, Ind., was shot and mortally wounded, on the night of the 28th, by a tramp who entered the saloon at the hour of closing, and demanded Strather's money. The latter reached for his gun, but was shot before he could use it. The assassin escaped.

GEORGE I. BAGLEY, the $100,000 express robber, was arraigned, on the 2d, before Judge Charles Watson of the district court at Danversport, Ind., and pleaded not guilty. As his attorney the defense will be fairly some days will elapse before the trial begins.

A FIRE in the tenement house 219 Fishing avenue, Brooklyn, at 1 o'clock on the morning of the 2d, resulted in the death of Michael Doyle, 40 years old, and Nellie Doyle, 3 years old, father and child—and the serious injury of at least half a dozen others.

LIZZIE BOREX was indicted on two counts for the murder of her father and step-mother, by the grand jury at Taunton, Mass., on the 2d.

The steamer Graystock, of London, was wrecked at the mouth of the river Elbe, on the 2d, and her entire crew of twenty-three persons were drowned.

LATE NEWS ITEMS.

Denise the panic and terrible suspense following the heading of a shaft in the North German Lloyd steamer space, from Southampton, bound for New York, when even the officers feared that the disabled vessel would sink, was averted, and it is now known that the vessel would be certain death, the services held by the evangelist Moody, which were translated to every group of foreigners present, did more than anything else toward studying the courage of the imperiled passengers.

JIM COOPER, living on a ranch near Bassett, Neb., went into town, on the 4th, and walking up and down the streets with a rifle and revolver, ordered everyone to stand back. Sheriff Harris was sent for and Cooper took refuge in a room in the Valley house. The sheriff ordered him three times to put his gun down, and when he refused shot him through the head. Cooper had said that he would kill anyone who attempted to arrest him.

The custom of marrying minors without asking any questions, which has prevailed for many years in Connecticut, is likely to be broken up by a suit instituted by Mr. Raymond of Galesburg, whose 16-year-old daughter was one of the victims of the practice. If Mr. Raymond's suit prevails, it is said thousands of couples will find it necessary to be remarried.

Times homeless men who made a living by doing odd jobs round New Durham, N. J., were given permission to sleep in a barn owned by Henry Ashcroft. Early on the morning of the 4th the barn was destroyed by fire, and one of the men was burned to death. The other two escaped and ran away. It is believed that they fired the barn by accident.

The Italian steamer Girola arrived at New York on the 5th, from Naples, Messina, being 224 days long passengers, all Italians. Four children died on the voyage and three others were sick of diphtheria. The vessel was held for disinfection.

Mrs. GOULD leaves six children, four sons and two daughters. George is the eldest son, and will likely take up the management of the Gould properties, where his father left off.

REBBS' valuable deposits of coal have been discovered at Tangle, West Penna.

A DISASTER FROM TURIN, dated the 4th, reported Louis Koschitzky to be dead.

Blow-Grey, W. W. Bruce, retired, died in Washington, on the 8th, aged 83.

STATE POLITICS.

Interesting Group From St. Louis Regarding Missouri Politics and Political Administration.

Interesting Group From St. Louis Regarding Missouri Politics and Political Administration. The officers within the gift of the State Administration and Those who desire to fill them.

St. Louis, Dec. 10.—This morning the meeting of the Missouri Political Association, which began to convene at 10 o'clock, was held in the grand ball room of the Hotel St. Louis. The meeting was held in the grand ball room of the Hotel St. Louis.

The meeting was held in the grand ball room of the Hotel St. Louis. The meeting was held in the grand ball room of the Hotel St. Louis.

The meeting was held in the grand ball room of the Hotel St. Louis. The meeting was held in the grand ball room of the Hotel St. Louis.

The meeting was held in the grand ball room of the Hotel St. Louis. The meeting was held in the grand ball room of the Hotel St. Louis.

The meeting was held in the grand ball room of the Hotel St. Louis. The meeting was held in the grand ball room of the Hotel St. Louis.

The meeting was held in the grand ball room of the Hotel St. Louis. The meeting was held in the grand ball room of the Hotel St. Louis.

The meeting was held in the grand ball room of the Hotel St. Louis. The meeting was held in the grand ball room of the Hotel St. Louis.

The meeting was held in the grand ball room of the Hotel St. Louis. The meeting was held in the grand ball room of the Hotel St. Louis.

The meeting was held in the grand ball room of the Hotel St. Louis. The meeting was held in the grand ball room of the Hotel St. Louis.

The meeting was held in the grand ball room of the Hotel St. Louis. The meeting was held in the grand ball room of the Hotel St. Louis.

The meeting was held in the grand ball room of the Hotel St. Louis. The meeting was held in the grand ball room of the Hotel St. Louis.

The meeting was held in the grand ball room of the Hotel St. Louis. The meeting was held in the grand ball room of the Hotel St. Louis.

The meeting was held in the grand ball room of the Hotel St. Louis. The meeting was held in the grand ball room of the Hotel St. Louis.

The meeting was held in the grand ball room of the Hotel St. Louis. The meeting was held in the grand ball room of the Hotel St. Louis.

The meeting was held in the grand ball room of the Hotel St. Louis. The meeting was held in the grand ball room of the Hotel St. Louis.

The meeting was held in the grand ball room of the Hotel St. Louis. The meeting was held in the grand ball room of the Hotel St. Louis.

The meeting was held in the grand ball room of the Hotel St. Louis. The meeting was held in the grand ball room of the Hotel St. Louis.

The meeting was held in the grand ball room of the Hotel St. Louis. The meeting was held in the grand ball room of the Hotel St. Louis.

The meeting was held in the grand ball room of the Hotel St. Louis. The meeting was held in the grand ball room of the Hotel St. Louis.

The meeting was held in the grand ball room of the Hotel St. Louis. The meeting was held in the grand ball room of the Hotel St. Louis.

The meeting was held in the grand ball room of the Hotel St. Louis. The meeting was held in the grand ball room of the Hotel St. Louis.

The meeting was held in the grand ball room of the Hotel St. Louis. The meeting was held in the grand ball room of the Hotel St. Louis.

The meeting was held in the grand ball room of the Hotel St. Louis. The meeting was held in the grand ball room of the Hotel St. Louis.

The meeting was held in the grand ball room of the Hotel St. Louis. The meeting was held in the grand ball room of the Hotel St. Louis.

WALL STREET'S WIZARD

Failed to Marry Up When Death Called on Him.

Palmarian financing has proved a deal too intricate for the average financier to master, and the late Mr. Gould was no exception.

New York, Dec. 2.—Mr. Gould, the great financier, died at 9:15 a. m. on the 2d, of pulmonary consumption. He was in his fifty-sixth year.

The official count of the vote of Wisconsin has been completed, and is as follows: Peck (dem.), for governor, 178,198; Spooner (rep.), 150,541; Peck's plurality, 27,657.

Twenty-two new cases were reported at the smallpox hospital in Seattle, Wash., on the 1st.

Five in a tench boat in Blushing avenue, Becklin, on the morning of the 2d, resulted in the death of two persons—father and child—and the serious injury of at least a half dozen others.

Mrs. E. HENDERSON, of the Fourth Stishes factory (Germany), has been sentenced by court martial to one year's imprisonment for causing the death of seven privates last summer. Heinrich, commander of his whole battalion to swim the river Niese in all their accoutrements, and the seven men were drowned.

The number of arrests for public intoxication in the past year was 306, as against 175 the preceding year. 1,108 post offices were reported to have been entered during the year. There was only 6,029 complaints of all kinds received during the year, which is 57 less than last year.

The annual report of the fourth assistant postmaster general shows that the number of establishments of new post offices during the past year was 4,165, a greater number than during any previous year, with the exception of 1875, when it was 4,157.

COMMISSIONER W. M. FORAN, chief of ordinance, returned to New York, on the 2d, from Bethlehem, Pa., after accepting a lot of barbed wire for the new war ships. He says the result of the test was in the line of general excellence which has characterized the nickel steel armor for the first.

JAMES STRATHER, keeper of a saloon in Greenway, Ind., was shot and mortally wounded, on the night of the 28th, by a tramp who entered the saloon at the hour of closing, and demanded Strather's money. The latter reached for his gun, but was shot before he could use it. The assassin escaped.

GEORGE I. BAGLEY, the $100,000 express robber, was arraigned, on the 2d, before Judge Charles Watson of the district court at Danversport, Ind., and pleaded not guilty. As his attorney the defense will be fairly some days will elapse before the trial begins.

A FIRE in the tenement house 219 Fishing avenue, Brooklyn, at 1 o'clock on the morning of the 2d, resulted in the death of Michael Doyle, 40 years old, and Nellie Doyle, 3 years old, father and child—and the serious injury of at least half a dozen others.

LIZZIE BOREX was indicted on two counts for the murder of her father and step-mother, by the grand jury at Taunton, Mass., on the 2d.

The steamer Graystock, of London, was wrecked at the mouth of the river Elbe, on the 2d, and her entire crew of twenty-three persons were drowned.

The steamer Graystock, of London, was wrecked at the mouth of the river Elbe, on the 2d, and her entire crew of twenty-three persons were drowned.

The steamer Graystock, of London, was wrecked at the mouth of the river Elbe, on the 2d, and her entire crew of twenty-three persons were drowned.

The steamer Graystock, of London, was wrecked at the mouth of the river Elbe, on the 2d, and her entire crew of twenty-three persons were drowned.

The steamer Graystock, of London, was wrecked at the mouth of the river Elbe, on the 2d, and her entire crew of twenty-three persons were drowned.

The steamer Graystock, of London, was wrecked at the mouth of the river Elbe, on the 2d, and her entire crew of twenty-three persons were drowned.

The steamer Graystock, of London, was wrecked at the mouth of the river Elbe, on the 2d, and her entire crew of twenty-three persons were drowned.

The steamer Graystock, of London, was wrecked at the mouth of the river Elbe, on the 2d, and her entire crew of twenty-three persons were drowned.

The steamer Graystock, of London, was wrecked at the mouth of the river Elbe, on the 2d, and her entire crew of twenty-three persons were drowned.

The steamer Graystock, of London, was wrecked at the mouth of the river Elbe, on the 2d, and her entire crew of twenty-three persons were drowned.