This woman has been blind for twenty-four years and never made a figure in her life, yet she can tell accurately the number of days, hours, minutes and seconds in a year and give the day of the week on which any person was born if she is supplied with the date. She does this with lightning-like rapidity. She has been visited by a number of professors, who have plied her with intricate mathematical problems, only to be answered quickly and correctly.

After the meeting adjourned the members repaired to the Southern Hotel where a banquet was given in honor of the Grand Chancellor. The members and several invited guests were present and a sumptuous repast and grand good time was enjoyed. A physician recommends Rochelle salts for amateur doctoring. He says that it is an excellent thing to several times a day to take as much of the salts as may be put on a three cent piece in a little water; that they will sweeten the stomach, and act as a very desirable spring medicine. He also speaks highly of soda, having no patience with those timid people who have an idea that it is a dangerous dose, doing some vague harm to the coating of the intestines. "Why, everything we eat, almost, has soda in it," he cries in disdain. "It is an admirable thing to take half Rochelle salts and half bicarbonate of soda, as directed, several times a day. I know of few gentler and more beneficial general medicines."

Grease stains on cloth may often be removed with magnesia. The stained place is first dampened; then the magnesia is moistened and vigorously rubbed on the stain. It must be allowed to dry thoroughly. Then the powder can be easily shaken off.

A minister recently preached a sermon on God's tender wisdom in caring for all, and illustrated his point by saying that He knows which of us grows best in the sunlight and which must have shade. "You know you plant roses in the sunshine" he said, "and heliotrope and geranium, but it won't wear your fuchias to grow you must keep them in a shady nook." After the sermon a woman came up to him, her face glowing with pleasure. "Oh, doctor, I am so grateful for that sermon," she said, clasping his hand and shaking it warmly. His heart glowed for a moment—only for a moment, though. "Yes," she went on, fervently, "I never knew before what was the matter with my fuchias."
