

Mrs. Hughson, of Chicago, whose letter follows, is another woman in high position who owes her health to the use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I suffered for several years with general weakness and bearing-down pains, caused by womb trouble. My appetite was fitful, and I would lie awake for hours, and could not sleep, until I seemed more weary in the morning than when I retired. After reading one of your advertisements, I decided to try the merits of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and I am so glad I did. No one can describe the good it did me. I took three bottles faithfully, and besides building up my general health, it drove all disease and poison out of my body, and made me feel as spry and active as a young girl. Mrs. Pinkham's medicines are certainly all they are claimed to be."—Mrs. M. E. Houson, 347 East Ohio St., Chicago, Ill.

Mrs. Pinkham Tells How Ordinary Tasks Produce Displacements. Apparently trifling incidents in woman's daily life frequently produce displacements of the womb. A slip on the stairs, lifting during menstruation, standing at a counter, running a sewing machine, or attending to the most ordinary tasks may result in displacement, and a train of serious evils is started. The first indication of such trouble should be the signal for quick action. Don't let the condition become chronic through neglect or a mistaken idea that you can overcome it by exercise or leaving it alone.

More than a million women have regained health by the use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

If the slightest trouble appears which you do not understand write to Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass., for her advice, and a few timely words from her will show you the right thing to do. This advice costs you nothing, but it may mean life or happiness or both.

Mrs. Leah Stovell, 177 Wellington St., Kingston, Ont., writes:

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—You are indeed a godsend to women, and if they all knew what you could do for them, there would be no need of their dragging out miserable lives in agony. I suffered for years with bearing-down pains, womb trouble, nervousness, and excruciating headache, but a few bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound made life look new and promising to me. I am light and happy, and I do not know what sickness is, and I now enjoy the best of health."

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound can always be relied upon to restore health to women who suffer. It is a sovereign cure for the worst forms of female complaint—that bearing-down, weak back, falling and displacement of the womb, inflammation of the ovaries, and all troubles of the uterus or womb. It dissolves and expels tumors from the uterus in the early stage of development, and checks any tendency to cancerous humors. It soothes excitability, nervous prostration, and tones up the entire female system. Its record of cures is the greatest in the world, and should be relied upon with confidence.

$5000 FORFEIT if we cannot forthwith produce the original letters and signatures of above testimonials, which will prove their absolute genuineness. Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass.

All She Could Stand.
A certain woman, the wife of a former representative in congress and minister abroad, who now aims at social leadership in the most exclusive and top-heavy circles of Washington, D. C., is noted for her love of display and her penchant for wearing about all the jewels she can bear up under.

One night she gave a dinner. Several members of the diplomatic set were present. Madame was in high feather, and she also wore a diamond tiara and several strings of pearls around her neck.

During the evening she complained of feeling a bit chilly, and told one of the servants to call her maid.

When the maid appeared she is said to have shivered a trifle, and exclaimed: "Sweetie, I am so cold, please give me another string of pearls."—Argonaut.

A Cure for Dropsy.
Sedgewick, Ark., June 23.—Mr. W. S. Taylor of this place says: "My little boy had Dropsy. Two doctors told me he would never get better, and to have seen him anyone else would have said they were right. His feet and limbs were swollen so he could not walk nor put on his shoes. "When the doctors told me he would never get better, I stopped giving him their medicine and began giving him Dodd's Kidney Pills. I gave him three pills a day and at the end of eight days the swelling was all gone, but as sure, I kept on with the pills for some time, gradually reducing the quantity, till finally I stopped altogether. "Dodd's Kidney Pills certainly saved my child's life. Before using them he was a helpless invalid in his mother's arms from morning till night. Now he is a healthy, happy child, running and dancing and singing. I can never express our gratitude. "Dodd's Kidney Pills entirely cured our boy after everybody, doctor and all, had given him up to die."

Funeral Dinner of the Stars.
The cathedral fortress of St. Peter at Paul, whence the wreaths have been cast that decorated the tomb of the late czar, lies on an outstanding peninsula in the Neva. It is a combination of military museum and mausoleum. All the czars since Peter the Great, except Peter II, have been buried there. The walls of the building are completely hung with trophies, wreaths of silver and gold; faded bunches of flowers and lavender, with silver work in imitation of flowers. These are all hung on a background of black cloth. There are also a number of personal relics. Some of the wreaths have been lying in the cathedral for years, and the place would look cleaner if they were removed.—Westminster Gazette.

A Fijian "Chumpie."
Few Fijians have learned to speak English. A well-known traveler, while on the king's Isle of Van, happened in an emergency to want a shilling. He turned to a very superior-looking Fijian, dressed, or rather undressed, like an ordinary native, and on the occasion said in English: "Have you got a shilling about you?" With a drawl that one would expect from Johnny in the Gaiety bar, the native replied: "Upon my soul, dear boy, I haven't got even a blooming copper!" He was the king's son, and had been sent to Sydney to be educated.—San Francisco Wave.

Dickens in Real Life.
A former master of Ely workhouse has just been admitted as a pauper inmate to the institution over which he formerly presided. Such an incident is, we believe, without precedent in poor law administration, although Dickens anticipated it in "Oliver Twist" in the fate which he provided for Mr. Bumble.—Eastern Press.

One Way to Tell.
"They are engaged," she had said, after having watched the couple across the aisle for some time.

"Why do you say engaged instead of married?" he asked.

"Well, after a woman is married she still exhibits the same proprietary interest in a man, but she doesn't seem to be so proud of it."—Chicago Post.

An Abstract Noun.

George Was Misquoted.
"George, Aunt Maria is very angry at you for saying she eats too much."
"Dear, dear, I didn't say anything of the kind!"

"What did you say, George?"
"All I said was that she had an appetite like a mud dredge."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

CLEANING THE EGGS.
No Other Little Job That Can Be Done Around the Farm Yields Better Cash Results.

It is remarkable how many soiled eggs may be seen in the country stores and elsewhere. Many make an attempt to clean them and many more do not know how to do it properly when they make the attempt. Stained and soiled eggs hurt the sale to a marked degree, as it is not only a matter of taste, but it gives the eggs a stale look.

Eggs of all one color and perfectly clean make an attractive appearance and will readily bring several cents more per dozen than a dirty lot, particularly when quality goes with appearance and the one is generally an indication of the other. An egg is improperly cleaned when it is wet too much and not rubbed dry with a dry cloth. Some, when they see spots of dirt on eggs put them in a pan of water and wash them like potatoes. There is, on the freshly laid egg, a mucilaginous covering which gives it a velvety appearance peculiar to new eggs. Water removes this, making the egg have an older appearance and destroying its keeping qualities, as this covering makes the shell impervious to air. An egg, then, if it is not much soiled, should merely be moistened where necessary and rubbed dry. If the blemish is in the nature of a stain, a little powdered scouring brick will help, and if this is not effective vinegar may be used in addition. In this way any stains may be removed from an egg. Some times they have to be put in water, but do not do it unless it is necessary, and then rub dry afterwards. If this is not done they will look soiled and dingy. Eggs should be collected twice or more times a day.—G. Davis, in Ohio Farmer.

COMMON SENSE HINTS.
Swap your dogs for pigs. Sharp tools make work easy. Study, experiment, weigh results. Don't think you know it all. Your neighbor may have an idea worth two of yours. Economy in a machine, when you haven't the means to make shelter for it, isn't economy. Have ideas of your own. After hearing advice, if not convinced that you are wrong, put them into practice. Many of the little unpleasant things which vex one so much may be overcome by using a little common sense. The extension of the electric car line is destined to enlarge the limits of the city and to increase the number of one, two, five and ten-acre farms at the expense of flats and tenement houses. The suburban home will bring light and hope to millions of children.—W. J. Bryan.

An advisory board, to be appointed by farmers' institutes, and to be composed of men of widest experience, to whom could be referred difficult problems connected with the business management of the farm, would prove a godsend to inefficient, inexperienced and youthful tillers of the soil.—J. H. Watson, in Farm and Home.

The Modern Potato Planter.
The potato planter of to-day would make a farmer of a generation ago sit up and rub his eyes. It requires that the potatoes be supplied, but will do all the rest of its own initiative. It picks the potato up and looks it over—or seems to—cuts it into halves, quarters or any desired number of parts, separates the eyes and removes the seed ends. It plants whole potatoes or parts thereof, as desired, as near together or as far apart as the judgment of the farmer on the driving seat suggests. Having dropped the seed it covers it, fertilizes it, tucks it in like a child put to bed, and paces off the next row with mathematical accuracy.—Farmers' Voice.

IN EVERY WALK OF LIFE.
People in every walk of life have had their backs ached—Kidneys go wrong and the back begins to ache. Cure sick kidneys and aches and pains quickly disappear. Read this testimony and learn how it can be done.

A. A. Boyce, a farmer living three and a half miles from Trenton, Mo., says: "A severe cold settled in my kidneys and developed so quickly that I was obliged to lay off work on account of the aching in my back and sides. For a time I was unable to walk at all, and every makeshift I tried and all the medicine I took had not the slightest effect. My back continued to grow weaker until I was unfit for anything. Mrs. Boyce noticed Doan's Kidney Pills advertised as a sure cure for just such conditions and one day when in Trenton she brought a box home from Chas. A. Foster's drug store. I followed the directions carefully when taking them and I must say I was more than surprised and much more gratified to notice the backache disappearing gradually until it finally stopped. A FREE TRIAL of this great kidney medicine which cured Mr. Boyce will be mailed on application to any part of the United States. Address Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y. For sale at all druggists, price 50 cents per box."

A PROMINENT COLLEGE MAN.

One of Indiana's Useful Educators Says: "I Feel Like a New Man."

MR. JOHN W. MENG.

Mr. John W. Meng, 24 Jefferson Ave., Indianapolis, Ind., State Representative of Indianapolis Business College, writes: "I firmly believe that I owe my fine health to Peruna. Constant travel and change of food and water wrought havoc with my stomach, and for months I suffered with indigestion and catarrh of the stomach. I felt that the only thing to do was to give up my occupation which I felt very reluctant to do. Seeing an ad. of Peruna as a specific for catarrh I decided to give it a trial, and used it faithfully for six weeks, when I found that my troubles had all disappeared and I seemed like a new man. I have a bottle of Peruna in my grip all the time, and occasionally take a few doses which keeps me in excellent health."—John W. Meng.

THE most common causes of summer catarrh are catarrh of the stomach and bowels. Peruna is a specific for summer catarrh.

Hon. Willis Brewer, Representative in Congress from Alabama, writes the following letter to Dr. Hartman: House of Representatives, Washington, D. C.

The Peruna Medicine Co., Columbus, O. Gentlemen:—I have used one bottle of Peruna for laminitis, and I take pleasure in recommending it to those who need a good remedy. As a tonic it is excellent. In the short time I have used it it has done me a great deal of good. Willis Brewer.

If you do not derive prompt and satisfactory results from the use of Peruna, write at once to Dr. Hartman, giving a full statement of your case and he will be pleased to give you his valuable advice gratis.
