King of Foods.

Since the earliest annals of Old Egypt, wheat has been recognized as the king of foods.

It has held its sway down to the present day, notwithstanding the fact that in many forms of making wheat into food products, some of the best elements are lost.

Bread has been aptly termed, "the staff of life," as it alone of known foods has all the elements that are needed to sustain life.

Egg-O-See contains all the best elements of wheat in a far more healthful and delicious form than any bread, crackers or ordinary wheat foods. In addition to the best whole wheat delicately flaked and crushed, it is made still more digestible by the addition of refined diastase, the highest grade of malt.

There are no premiums or gifts in the Egg-O-See package; nothing but full measure of the highest grade of cereal food in the world.

A large package at any grocery 10c

A party of Franciscan monks will work in the hop fields of Kent, England, during the picking this summer.

A Russian is not of age until he is 26 years old. Until that time at least four-fifths of his earnings must go to his parents.

Arabia has the reputation of being one of the hottest and unhealthiest regions on the globe, but all northern Arabia has a winter season, with cold rains and occasional frosts.

In a London court the other day a witness testified that chandeliers had come into fashion again, and that a chandelier that a short time ago was worth only $12.50 was worth $250 or $300 now.

The Vegetarische Worte, a vegetarian journal published at Hamburg, appeals to its readers not to attend Wagner's performances or play any of the master's music. It describes Wagner as "a gross flesh-feeder" and a man who openly ridiculed vegetarian principles.

China has recently issued an edict prohibiting, except in the treaty ports, the sale of metal rimmed spectacles. Tin shoes are also forbidden, and anyone dealing in them renders himself liable to decapitation. This latter drastic regulation is due to the fact that yellow is there the imperial color, to be worn by none save the members of the royal family.

CUTICURA SOAP.

The World's Greatest Skin Soap—The Standard of Every Nation of the Earth.

Millions of the world's best people use Cuticura Soap, the purest and sweetest of emollient skin soaps, for preserving, purifying and beautifying the skin, for cleansing the scalp of crabs, scales and dandruff, and the stopping of falling hair, for softening whitening and soothing red, rough and sore hands, for baby rashes, itchings and chafings, and many sensitive, antiseptic purposes which readily suggest themselves to women, especially mothers, as well as for all the purposes of the toilet, bath and nursery.

The Cheerful Idiot.

"When I was on the farm," began the cheerful idiot who had been humming "Annie Laurie."

"Where you should have stayed indefinitely," remarked the tired citizen, with considerable heat.

"When I was on the farm," went on the C. I., calmly, "we had a donkey we called 'Mig.' We had him because his legs were so heavy. He, ha, ha, ha, ha!"

Ready for the Shock.

"Doctor, what is the amount of my bill?"

"My dear sir, you are only convalescent; I'll tell you when you are entirely well."

—Chicago Tribune.

IN STRICT CONFIDENCE.

Women Obtain Mrs. Pinkham's Advice and Help.

She Has Guided Thousands to Health—How Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Cured Mrs. Fred Seydel.

It is a great satisfaction for a woman to feel that she can write to another teller of the most private and confidential details about her illness, and know that her letter will be seen by a woman only, a woman full of sympathy for her sick sisters, and above all, a woman who has had about forty years' experience in treating female ills than any living person.

Over one hundred thousand cases of female diseases were cured by Mrs. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and this has been going on for twenty years, day after day. Surely, women are wise in seeking advice from a woman of such experience, especially when it is absolutely free.

Mrs. Pinkham never violates the confidence of woman, and every testimonial that letter publisher is done so with the written consent or request of the writer, in order that other sick women may be benefited as they have been.

Mrs. Fred Seydel, of 412 North 34th Street, West Philadelphia, Pa., writes: "Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—I have written you a letter asking advice, and I had found you and could not carry a child to maturity. I received your kind letter of interest, and followed your advice. I am not only a well woman in consequence, but have a beautiful baby girl."

Just as surely as Mrs. Seydel was cured, suffering from any form of female ills.

No other medicine in all the world has such a record of cures of female troubles as has Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Therefore no prudent woman will accept any substitute which is a dangerous mistake.

If you are sick, write Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass., for special advice. It is free and always helpful.

Two Views.

An English prelate, the bishop of Ipswich, was discussing Sunday outdoor games in a liberal way. "Would anyone say his prayers the worse because he had made a good drive at cricket that morning?" asked the bishop. "That is a very good point, my lord, but there is another to be considered. Suppose the cricketer makes a bad drive, then his moral welfare is likely to be badly jarred."

An Indian's Opinion.

Some Indians from the southwest went on a sightseeing tour of Washington in one of the big automobiles devoted to that purpose. They listened gravely to the man with the megaphone as he described the many places of interest. At the end of the journey one of the travelers summed it all up thus: "Heap ride, heap talk, heap smell"—the last referring to the whiff of gasoline which occasionally reached him.

Scrap-Book History.

Gov. Warfield of Maryland has had a large scrapbook of newspaper clippings on the death of Lloyd Lowndes, of his state, to be filed in the state archives at Annapolis. He says: "I believe it is the first time that any history of the death of a governor of Maryland has ever been compiled, and I propose to take care of predecessors, and trust that my example may be followed by my successors."

A Young Astronomer.

Dr. Ralph Hamilton Curtis, lately Carnegie assistant at Lick observatory, has been chosen assistant professor of astronomy by the University of West-ern Pennsylvania. Dr. Curtis, though only 24 years old, recently took his doctor's degree at the University of California, where he received his astronomical training, supplemented by graduate work there and at Lick observatory.

Servant Problem in England.

Evidently the servant problem is driving people crazy in England, too. The following advertisement is from the London Morning Post:

"Wanted—Immediately for Brighton, a superior old-fashioned woman as good cook, age between 30 and 45, wages £2 to begin with; washing money, but no beer; Protestant; also for the same situation, a strong between maid, age about 18, wages £2 and rise, washing money."

The Riddle of the Sphinx.

The Sphinx had just propounded her riddle.

"What goes on four legs in the morning, two at noon, and three in the evening?" she demanded.

"An ant!" they answered, readily.

With a heavy groan, she realized that the moderns had gone her one better.—N. Y. Sun.

Don't Wear Them.

The pressure of a stiff high collar on the pneumogastric nerve has been found by Dr. F. B. Brubaker to produce unpleasant symptoms, like numbness, nausea, lassitude and depression of spirits. He believes that prolonged pressure by a close-fitting collar would tend to serious disease, such as lung disease.

Propelled by a Boat.

Farmer Geehaw—Waal, I caught that young city spark last night that's been hangin' around our Mandy.

Farmer Giddap—An' what happened, Jabez?

Farmer Geehaw—Oh, the spark flew upward.—Louisville Courier-Journal.

A Safe Average.

Mrs. Ferguson—Why do you wear those ridiculously high collars, George? What are they good for, anyhow?

Mr. Ferguson—They are good for about four washings. Laura, that's my experience with the average laundry.

Net Worth Mentioning.

"What kind of a dinner did the Hazletts have? I heard it was to be an elaborate affair."

"No, it didn't amount to much. I felt just as well the next morning as I ever did in my life."

Reasonable Request.

Doctor (to pressing creditors)—If you must bring your bill every day, at least you might come with your head tied up, so that people would think you were a patient!—London Tit-Bits

Good Reason.

Of the 29 graduates this year from Haskell Institute, the government school for Indians at Lawrence, only six are football players. The rest are girls.

DRIVEN TO DESPERATION.

Rejected Suitor, in the Depth of His Dejection, Determines to Go to Work.

"Tell me, my daughter," said Mr. Moneybags, with some anxiety in his voice, "do you like the drawing-room?"

"No, father, not a parcel exactly. But tell me, has anything happened to him?"

"Did he or did he not propose marriage to you?"

"Yes, he did, father," replied the girl, now thoroughly alarmed. "Do tell me if anything has happened to him. Has he done to me?"

"What was your reply, daughter? Did you accept him?"

"No, father. Has his body been diseased?"

"Did you give him any encouragement?"

"No, father. Did he shoot himself or—"

"Did he tell you that he was finally and irrevocably, did you?"

"Yes, father, and he said he'd go and do something desperate, but I didn't think he would do it with himself. Oh, father, isn't it awful?"

"Yes, it's awful. I suspected that he had rejected him when I heard what he had done to me."

"Oh, father, do you think I shall be called to account for it?"

"Oh, dear, no. You weren't obliged to marry him, were you?"

"But, tell me, what has he done, father?"

"He's settled down to earn his own living."

Of Wide Interest.

Breed, Wis., June 26.—Special.—Chas. V. Peterson, Justice of the Peace for Onondago Co., has delivered a judgment that is interesting to the whole State. Pat briefly, that judgment is, "Daddy's Kidney Pills are the best Kidney medicine on the market today."

And Mr. Peterson gives his reason for this judgment. He says: "Last winter I had an aching pain in my back which troubled me very much. In the morning I could hardly straighten my back. I did not know what it was but an advertisement led me to try Daddy's Kidney Pills. After taking one box I can only say they have done more for me than expected, and I feel as well now as ever I did before."

Pain in the back is one of the first symptoms of Kidney Disease. If not cured by Daddy's Kidney Pills, it may develop into Bright's Disease, Diabetes, Rheumatism or some of the other deadly forms of Kidney Disease.

His Opinion.

Dr. Pills—See that squeezed-in waist! That's what they call an hour-glass girl.

Dr. Pills—Hour-glass girl, eh?

"Yes. What do you think of her?"

"Well, if it keeps up that sort of facing I should say her sands of life will not be long in running out."—Louisville Courier-Journal.

Isn't This Absolutely True?

Nothing ever became popular—here or in any other country—without a reason. Popular men have merit of some kind, and those who are not popular, they must have some real and wonderful character if their popularity increases with time.

As with men, so with goods. So with a new article, if it cannot be adopted as a standard article, it cannot survive generations unless it have real, inherent merit.

Millions of dollars spent in advertising any article without merit, are just wasted, so far as continued sales are concerned. Intelligent housewives cannot be compelled to buy what they do not approve of. That much is a self-evident fact. It cannot be gainsaid. But it tells its own story of its own coffee and its quality—a coffee that has been the leader of all package coffees for more than a quarter of a century, that has steadily grown in the affection of millions of American homes since the first introduction. Long, long ago.

It is unexcelled for perfect purity and uniform quality; its absolute cleanliness and neat appearance, have endeared it to the hearts of the people.

It is unexcelled for tell you this, but those who drink coffee ought to know much more about quality than they who simply sell it.

Insist on Lion Coffee, buy no loose coffee (in bulk)—you don't know what you get. How can you grocer?

Don't Poison Baby.

FORTY YEARS AGO almost every mother thought her child must have PAREGORIC or laudanum to make it sleep. These drugs will produce sleep, and A FEW DROPS TOO MANY will produce the SLEEP FROM WHICH THERE IS NO WAKING. Many are the children who have been killed or whose health has been ruined for life by paregoric, laudanum and morphine, each of which is a narcotic product of opium. Druggists are prohibited from selling either of the narcotics named to children at all, or to anybody without labelling them "poison." The definition of "narcotic" is: "A medicine which relieves pain and produces sleep, but which in poisonous doses produces stupor, coma, convulsions and death." The taste and smell of medicines containing opium are disguised, and sold under the names of "Drops," "Cordials," "Soothing Syrups," etc. You should not permit any medicine to be given to your children without you or your physician know of what it is composed. CASTORIA DOES NOT CONTAIN NARCOTICS, if it bears the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher.

Letters from Prominent Physicians addressed to Chas. H. Fletcher.

Dr. J. W. Dinwiddie, of Chicago, Ill., says: "I use your Castoria and advise its use in all families where there are children."

Dr. Alexander E. Mittle, of Cleveland, Ohio, says: "I have frequently prescribed your Castoria and have found it a reliable and pleasant remedy for children."

Dr. J. S. Alexander, of Omaha, Neb., says: "A mother whose valuable and beautiful child she gave to your Castoria is, deserves the highest praise. I find it in use everywhere."

Dr. J. A. McClellan, of Buffalo, N. Y., says: "I have frequently prescribed your Castoria for children and always got good results. In fact I use Castoria for my own children."

Dr. J. W. Allen, of St. Louis, Mo., says: "I heartily endorse your Castoria. I have frequently prescribed it in my medical practice, and have always found it to do all that is claimed for it."

Dr. C. H. Gildred, of St. Paul, Minn., says: "My experience as a practitioner with your Castoria has been highly satisfactory, and I consider it an excellent remedy for the young."

Dr. H. D. Renner, of Philadelphia, Pa., says: "I have used your Castoria in a large number of cases of children, for years past with the most happy effect, and fully endorse it as a safe remedy."

Dr. J. A. Rowman, of Kansas City, Mo., says: "Your Castoria is a splendid remedy for children, known the world over. I use it in my practice and have no hesitancy in recommending it for the complaints of infants and children."

Dr. J. J. Mackey, of Brooklyn, N. Y., says: "I consider your Castoria an excellent preparation for children, being composed of reliable medicines and pleasant to the taste. A good remedy for all disturbances of the digestive organs."

Dr. Howard James, of New York City, says: "It is with great pleasure that I desire to testify to the medicinal value of your Castoria. I have used it with marked benefit in the case of my own daughter, and have obtained excellent results from its administration to other children in my practice."

NEVER BECOME FEATHERED

Eggs Which "This Stranger Eats Are Boiled, Consequently Birds Don't Issue."

A vegetarian had an amusing experience the other morning while at breakfast. His family was out of town, and he went to a restaurant and took a seat next to a stranger.

The vegetarian took occasion to advise the man by telling the stranger that all meat was injurious and that the human diet should be strictly vegetarian.

"But," said the stranger, "I seldom eat meat."

"You just ordered eggs," said the vegetarian. "An egg is practically meat, because it eventually becomes a bird."

The man of eggs is not ever become a bird," answered the stranger, quietly.

"Good heavens!" cried the vegetarian. "What kind of eggs do you eat?"

"Principally boiled eggs," said the stranger.—Chicago Tribune.
