The show is now transported from place to place in eighty-five seventy foot cars, constructed especially for the Ringling Brothers. In connection with the circus proper, in which the acrobatic performance is unexcelled, the Ringling Brothers are this season presenting the beautiful and sublime spectacular production of The Field of the Cloth of Gold. This pantomime play necessitates the use of 1,200 actors and actresses and of almost five hundred horses. It is presented on the largest stage ever used for exhibitional purposes. Special excursion rates have been arranged for on all lines of travel by Ringling Brothers, and those who desire to go to St. Louis where this great circus exhibits April 30 to May 5 can do so at a comparatively small cost. This will be the only point in this vicinity where the circus will exhibit this season and no one should miss the opportunity to see it. Watch this paper for additional announcements.

Christening of the New Bells.

Last Sunday was a gala day for old Ste. Genevieve, for on that day the two large bells, which have been donated to the church by some of our generous townsmen, were solemnly blessed. The ceremony was performed by the Very Rev. O. J. Hoog, Vicar General of the Arch-diocese of St. Louis. The Rev. C. L. van Tourenhout preached the dedication sermon, dwelling at some length on the sacred purposes of bells. He showed how they sanctified time calling the people to prayer three times a day at the Angelus—how they peal forth at all joyous occasions in our lives, such as weddings and feasts—how they call to divine service of the Lord's day and mingle also their moans with our griefs when they toll a requiem for the departed. The Vicar General was assisted in the dedication service by the local clergy. An immense congregation witnessed the rare ceremony with intense interest and appreciation. The larger bell was named Mary Immaculate and bears the inscription: In honor of Mary Immaculate, My soul doth magnify the Lord, I praise God, I mourn the departed. I call the faithful. The other bell was named Ste. Genevieve and has the inscription: Glory to God in the highest, and peace to men. The larger bell weighs 1500 pounds, the smaller 840 pounds. They were raised to the steeple on Monday and it was found that they blend harmoniously with the two older bells, thus forming a sweet and strong melodious peal, of which the parish may well be proud. Next week the work of placing the church clock will begin. Hear the mellow, chiming bells, Golden bells! What a world of happiness their harmony fortells! Through the balmy air of night how they ring out their delight! From the molten, golden notes And all in tune, What a liquid ditty floats, Oh, from out the sounding cells, What a gush of euphony voluminously wells! How it swells, How it swells, Of the rapture that impels To the swinging and the ringing Of the bells, bells, bells, Of the bells, bells, bells, To the rhyming and the chiming of the bells.
