Happy Jack in "A Millionaire Train" is not one of those burlesque characters that are so often put upon the stage without rhyme or reason, but is attempt to bring out the far fetched comedy that has no connection with a plot. In the above named play the tragic is the character about which the plot is woven. At the Armory on Saturday September 23rd.

Married.

The marriage of James Pinkley and Miss Mable Herzog occurred at the Catholic church in this city on the afternoon of Wednesday, September 20th. The couple was attended by Joseph Scherer and Miss Lottie Herzog. A supper was served at the home of the bride's parents. In the evening the many friends of the young couple were entertained at a ball given in the Herzog Hall.

The groom is the son of James Pinkley, Superintendent of the County Farm and the bride is the daughter of Frank Herzog, of this city. We congratulate the new-weds and wish them a life of happiness.

Miss Sadie Chandler and Joseph Basler were married in the Convent Chapel in this city, by Rev.
Father van Tourenhout Tuesday, September 19. The ceremony was witnessed by Miss Martha Basler and August Basler. The wedding festivities were held at the home of the groom's parents where a sumptuous dinner was served to relatives and friends of the couple.
In the evening employees of the Illinois Southern were entertained by the bride and groom.

Joseph Basler, son of John Basler, is one of our thirty young men and holds a position on the I.
S. Railroad as engineer. The bride has been a resident of this city for the past several years and has many friends who congratulate her and her husband.

The couple will reside in the new home lately erected by the groom.
